Strategic Planning Seminar designed for middle and senior managers in business or government. It will be held Tuesday, April 30, at the University of Southern Indiana Conference Center.

Dr. B. J. Bischoff, president of White River Training Company in Indianapolis, will conduct the seminar. She also is executive director of Indiana Training Exports, a program sponsored by the U.S. State Department and Indiana Commerce Department, and previously was director of Ball State University's Center for Entrepreneurial Resources.

Participants in the seminar will create a strategic plan that can be implemented in their workplaces. The registration fee is $145 ($135 each for two or more registering together), and includes lunch and materials. Call the USI Office of Continuing Education, 812/464-1989 or 800/467-8600, for information or to register.
