PASSOVER SUPPER AT ISUE APRIL 6. ISUE's Campus Ministry will host its' fifth annual celebration of the Jewish festival of Passover on Tuesday, April 6, from 6:00 - 9:30 p.m. The dinner will be held in the University Dining Center.

Passover, also called the "Festival of the Unleavened Bread", the "season of our freedom", or Pesach, the festival's Hebrew name; commemorates the deliverance of the children of Israel from the repressive centuries of Egyptian bondage. The story of the Israelites' escape from the Egyptian pharaoh became a focal point of Jewish history. The mass exodus from Egypt crystallized the Jewish national identity and marked the birth of the Jews as a free people. Passover is a celebration of freedom.

The Passover Seder will combine traditional prayers with explanations and Israeli music. The dinner will include matzo ball soup, roast chicken with matzo dressing, sliced tomato and cucumber salad, fruit cup with macaroons, gefilte fish, broccoli, wine, and of course, the special symbolic ritual food.

The price of the dinner is $6.25 for adults and $3.00 for children. Deadline for reservations is April 2 at noon. Reservations can be made by calling extension 1810.

THIRD PART OF NUCLEAR ARMS SYMPOSIUM HELD TODAY. The third part of the ISUE five-part symposium on Nuclear Arms and World Peace will be held today at noon in UC350. The public is invited to attend.

During this session, Dr. Thomas Kozel, assistant professor of biology, will speak on the topic "The Biological Effects of Nuclear Radiation". William Montrastelle, the Civil Defense Coordinator for Evansville and Vanderburgh County, will discuss "Crisis Relocation Planning in a Nuclear Environment".

More information about the symposium may be obtained by calling Dr. Andrew Jorgensen at extension 1716.

NOTICE TO FACULTY, STAFF AND ADMINISTRATORS. Donations are being taken for the annual Secretaries of ISUE Club White Elephant Sale scheduled for Thursday, April 15. Contributions may be given to Carol Mann in the accounting office (extension 1840).

ANNUAL RECOGNITION BANQUET. The Annual Recognition Banquet for clerical and support staff celebrating five and ten year anniversaries of employment at ISUE will be held tonight at the Petroleum Club. Special recognition will be given to employees who have retired in the last year.

REMINDER: Will Kesling, assistant professor of music, will conduct a gala Easter performance of Handel's Messiah on Good Friday evening, April 9, at 8:00 p.m. in Roberts Stadium. Tickets are $4 and children under 12 are admitted free. For more information, call Dr. Kesling at extension 1736.

WILEY IS VICTIM OF ACCIDENT. The University community is deeply saddened by the loss of one of its valued employees, Charles Wiley, maintenance mechanic in the Physical Plant. Wiley was fatally injured in an accident Sunday evening at Red Bank Road and Highway 62. He had been employed part-time at ISUE since August 1969. He also was a police officer, a member of the police marksmen team and a dog trainer. He was instrumental in building a Canine Corps for the Evansville Police Department and would have been director of the corps when established. Friends in the Physical Plant have announced that a donation in his memory is being made to the Canine Corps, and others who wish to join may do so by calling Barbara Brothers at extension 1800. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. today at Ziemer-Shears Funeral Home on Hebron Avenue.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS. Dr. Larry Arp, associate professor of business, accompanied five business students to the National Collegiate Association for Secretaries convention held in Nashville last weekend. The students included Theresa Davis, Mary Gaskin, Lynn Meyer, Cindy Osman, and Susie Sarver. Dr. Arp was named national vice president of Inter-Chapter Development.
