INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY EVANSVILLE
"Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Employer"
UNIVERSITY NOTES. VOL. X NO. 12 NOVEMBER 26, 1975
Editor, Kathy Funke; Associate Editor, Julie Gaul

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAYS. University offices will be closed on Thursday and Friday, November 27 and 28, in observance of Thanksgiving. No classes are scheduled for Wednesday, November 26. Offices will be open and classes will resume on Monday, December 1.

UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN REPORT. ISUE's contribution to the United Fund is now $2,849 - $235 less than last year. The contribution to date represents only 50% of all ISUE employees, since only 127 out of 254 have donated. "So that we might surpass last year's campaign figure, and show a continued upward trend, I am extending our United Way Campaign to December 4, thus giving those ISUE staff members who have not yet contributed, a chance to do so," comments Robert E. Mays, Chairman of the ISUE United Way Campaign.

Please send your contribution (via payroll deduction, pledge, or cash) to Dr. Mays in office L112, or to your Divisional Representative no later than Thursday, December 4, 1975. Do it now, and the ISUE United Way Campaign will be a grand success!

ART WORK ON DISPLAY. The Drawing students directed by Ramona Stamets, Associate Professor of Art, are displaying their drawings outside of Art Studio SC191. The variety of subjects range from montage drawings in lead pencil and colored pencil to cray-pas sketches of subjects viewed through a microscope. Also included are portraits in pencil and cross hatching in ink. Be sure to stop by and see the display!

ART AND PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBITS TO BE ON CAMPUS. An art exhibit by John Bott of the University of Evansville art faculty will be on display at ISUE beginning November 24 and continuing through December 5 in the lobby of the Technology Center. The show, composed of Bott's paintings representing works in the last ten years, will include geometric, color-field, stained canvas and figurative paintings.

A color photography show by Fletcher Thorne-Thomsen of Louisiana will be on exhibit from December 1 through December 12 in the Conference Center. The 55-piece color photography show is a "visual feast," according to critics. "Thorne-Thomsen's lens is the alchemist's agent, the golden key that enables him to get inside and be part of the main."

YELLOW PAGES LECTURE. John Dawson, Graphic Artist and Photographer, will give a Yellow Pages Lecture on Monday, December 1 from 12:00-1:00 p.m. in Room 351 in the University Center. The topic of the lecture will be camera equipment, camera repair, and tips for better photographs. The Yellow Pages Lectures are sponsored by the Student Union Board.

TOTAL WOMAN PROGRAM. Indiana State University Evansville invites women who are interested in attending classes at ISUE but have questions about enrolling in college classes to the campus Wednesday, December 3, 1975 at 8:30 a.m. The Total Woman Program, an introduction to ISUE, has been designed by Mrs. Laura Rohrbacher, Admissions Counselor. The program will include comments by current ISUE women students who have returned to or have just begun college, University Counselor, Tim Buecher, and Susan Donaldson, Professor of Psychology. Participants will also move into small groups to discuss with an ISUE faculty member items of particular interest or concern. Individual questions will be answered at this time. The program will run about two hours and will be held in the Library, Rooms 107 and 108. Reservations are not necessary, but women planning to attend are asked to call the Admissions Office.

AWARENESS PROGRAM. The Office of Continuing Education is offering an Awareness Program for adults on December 4 at 7:00 p.m. in the Library, Rooms 107 and 108. The program will acquaint interested persons with the academic programs at ISUE and answer questions they may have about enrolling in college course work.

The Awareness Program is open to the public. It is for persons 21 years or older who are seeking job advancement, personal enrichment, want to begin work on a degree or have decided to finish a degree. Representatives from the Admissions Office, Counseling Center, Financial Aids, Veterans Affairs and the academic divisions will be available to answer questions. The program is being coordinated by Ed Jones, Director of Continuing Education.

WISUE CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY. The Women of Indiana State University Evansville would like to invite all faculty children and their parents to the annual WISUE Christmas party. The Christmas party will be held in the Forum on December 6, 1975 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. Lots of activities and goodies are being planned. There will be games, crafts, cartoons and more for the children. A surprise visit by Santa Claus is expected, plus a small gift for each child. Several new activities are in the making for parents, and all those attending will enjoy the trio of musicians and caroling. Co-chairpersons for the event are Linda Wilhelmus and Patricia Like. If you have any questions, please contact one of these people at 867-3773 or 425-6041.

ELIZABETHAN CHRISTMAS DINNERS. The Christmas season on the ISUE campus will be ushered in by the Elizabethan Christmas Dinners scheduled for December 12, 13, and 14. The Christmas Dinners, which have been a tradition in the tri-state area for the past five years, include the colorful pomp and ceremony of Merrie Olde England appropriate for the Christmas season. Tickets for the Elizabethan

ELIZABETHAN CHRISTMAS DINNERS, CONTINUED. Christmas Dinners are on sale for December 12 and 13 in the Division of Humanities. Tickets are $8.00. The December 14 performance is by invitation only. The Elizabethan Christmas Dinners will be held in the Forum Room of the Administration Building.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY SCHEDULE. University offices will be closed on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, December 24, 25, and 26 for the annual Christmas holidays, and on Thursday, January 1 for New Years Day. Class schedules remain as follows:
