

For Immediate Release

July 10, 2001

University of Southern Indiana Students Plan to Study Abroad

Eleven University of Southern Indiana students are planning to attend Harlaxton College for the fall 2001 semester in a study-abroad experience. Study at Harlaxton College, located in Grantham, England, and owned and operated by the University of Evansville (UE), is available to USI students through a cooperative agreement with UE.

Following is the list of students planning to attend Harlaxton College:

Chandler Kelly Porth, Sophomore	Major Social Work
Evansville Thomas Bippus, Senior Nicholas Peregoy, Sophomore	Fine Arts Business
Floyd Knobs Patia Huling, Sophomore	Elementary Education
Haubstadt Michelle Schmitt, Sophomore	Radiologic Tech
Loogootee Jeff Smith, Junior Kathy Stoll, Junior	Math Art Education
Paoli Michael Barley, Junior	Business Administration
Poseyville Anna Pulliam, Junior	Undeclared
Sullivan Linzy Holycross, Senior Lacey Holycross, Freshman	Elementary Education Undeclared

USI junior Nathan Price of Anderson, Indiana, will spend a year of study at the University of Caen in Caen, France. Price is majoring in French at USI.

Sent to: Anderson Herald Bulletin, Loogootee Tribune, New Albany Tribune, Paoli News, Orleans Progress Examiner, Bedford Times-Mail, Courier & Press, Sullivan Daily Times, Warrick Newspapers, Mt. Vernon Democrat, Posey County News, and South Gibson Star Times, the Shield, Web