

WINTER NONCREDIT RATE REDUCTION. The following courses in the Winter Noncredit Series are open to ISUE faculty, staff, and students for one-half the regular registration fee. Those wishing to enroll may register anytime during the week preceding the start of the course. The courses are: Amateur Radio Novice License Preparation, So You Want to Build a House, Weaving, Discussions in Literature: 19th Century Women in Fiction, Microwave Cooking, Personal

Centering, Estate Planning, Risks and Rewards: An Introduction to Investing in Securities, Growing Plants Indoors, Beginning Yoga and Continuing Yoga. For more information call 464-1863.

REDUCED TUITION FOR GRADUATE COURSES. An agreement has been reached between ISUE and ISU-Terre Haute to enable full-time ISUE employees or their spouses to take graduate classes at a reduced rate. One-half of the fees will be waived for one course during each enrollment period (Fall, Spring, Intersession, Summer Terms) beginning with the Spring 1979 semester.

For additional information, contact Dr. Robert Mays (extension 1813).

FAT-OFF. Beginning Friday, January 19th, Health Services is sponsoring a Fat-Off. Everyone is invited to weigh in each Friday. DONNA MYERS will keep a chart of your progress. DONNA is also organizing a lunch-time exercise program. For further information, contact DONNA at extension 1807.

REMINDER FROM UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES: HELEN'S REED, in Archives, encourages all University faculty and staff to deposit copies of their recent books, articles, reviews, and other publications in the University Archives. They will be added to the growing permanent collection of such materials documenting the professional achievements of ISUE personnel. Unpublished writings, collections of personal papers, and students' class projects are always welcome also. Please call Ms. Reed (extension 1896) for further information.
