"Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Employer"

UNIVERSITY NOTES. Vol. XIII No. 34, April 11, 1979

Editor: Rose Zigenfus

Associate Editor: Mary Lou Maxwell

SPRING WEEK. Though at times it seems like the warmth and sunshine of spring will never arrive, Spring Week will be here soon, with a week filled with zany races and contests.

The fun begins April 23 at 10:00 a.m. with the Pyramid Race on the UC Mall, followed by the Life-Saver Race, Sack Race, and the Egg Toss. On Tuesday, April 24, there will be a Frisbee Contest, a Hula Hoop Contest, and a Tug-0-War. Dick Gregory, civil rights speaker, will lecture at 7:30 p.m. in A126.

The Eagle Gran Prix, the highlight of the week's activities, is the annual bicycle race which will be run Wednesday, April 25.

The competition continues on Thursday with the Pizza Spinning Show at 11:30 a.m. on the UC Mall and the Pizza-Eating Contest, and on Friday at 1:00 p.m., canoe races on Reflection Lake.

To conclude the week, the Spring Formal Dinner-Dance will be held at the ISUE Cafeteria on April 28 at 7:00 p.m.

CLASSES CANCELLED THE AFTERNOON OF APRIL 25. Wednesday, April 25 has been designated as Student Union Board Day. To celebrate this occasion, the Student Union Board has scheduled several events including the annual Eagle Gran Prix bicycle race. According to DR. ROBERT REID, Vice President for Academic Affairs, classes have been cancelled between 12:00 noon and 6:00 p.m. to allow students an opportunity to participate and attend the events. In the event of rain, these activities will be held the following day, Thursday, April 26, 1979.

TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONNEL: Coffee and cake will be offered in the Business Administration Office on April 12, 1979 from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. for everyone who may wish to bid ANTON BOEHM adieu and to say hello to JEFF HAYS on his return from the State Legislature.

ISUE HONORS ATHLETES: At the Annual All-Sports Award Banquet on Thursday, April 5, athletes from all men's and women's sports teams were recognized.

WAYNE BOULTINGHOUSE headed the program and announced the basketball winners voted on by their teammates. Cortez Collins was named the Most Valuable Player and Honorary Captain. John Alexander was given the Screaming Eagle Award (for the player who displays the most enthusiasm). The Coach's Award (the person who gives outstanding service to the athletic department) was given to Jim "Champ" Douglas.

Women's basketball coach, RUTH SCHWENK, announced the women's basketball winners: Kathy Beck, Most Valuable Player and Honorary Captain along with Holly Billins; Diane Wuensch, Most Improved Player; and Michele Funk, Screaming Eagle.

Kiwanis Award winners for basketball were also honored, Brad Bolling and Kathy Beck.

SPECIAL NOTE OF THANKS: ISUE faculty and staff donated 111 units of blood to the Red Cross Blood Drive on Wednesday, April 4, and 70 units of blood on Thursday. The response was very much appreciated.

HUMANITIES FORUM. Dixieland Jazz is coming to ISUE on Wednesday, April 11. Robert Bates and Company will perform from 12:00 noon until 1:00 p.m., and from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. in Room A28. The public is invited to attend at no charge.

ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT LECTURE SERIES. Indiana State Senator, Mike Kendall, will speak at the ISUE "Energy and Environment" lecture series on Thursday, April 12. Kendall has been directly involved in key environmental lawsuits in southern Indiana, for example the Barmet and I & M Rockport power plant suits. His topic will be "Environmental Law."

The lecture, which is a part of TOM ZELLER's Earth Science 391X class, will be held in Room SC126 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

SPRING FILM SERIES. Le Bonheur will be shown on Thursday, April 12, at 2:00 and 6:00 p.m. in Room A 126. The film is free and open to the public.

EASTER EGG HUNT. Saturday, April 14th at 10 a.m., the Student Union Board of ISUE is sponsoring an Easter Egg Hunt for all children of ISUE students and University personnel. The hunt is for children from ages 1-10, and they will be divided into three age groups which will give all children an equal chance to capture Easter surprises. There will also be a visit from Mr. Rabbit!

VIDEO TAPE SYSTEM IN STUDENT ACTIVITIES OFFICE. Video Tape System designed to improve communication within the ISUE community was recently installed in the Student Activities Office. BARRY SCHONBERGER, director of student activities is compiling a policy and procedures format which will include information on how to get your message communicated.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS. DR. ROGER COX, assistant professor of psychology, recently participated in a symposium on the effects of divorce on children as a part of the meeting of the Society of Research in Child Development in San Francisco, March 12-16. COX and his colleagues on this research, E. Mavis Hetherington and Martha Cox, have recently contracted with Century Press to co-author a book on divorce. He has also recently been informed that their chapter entitled "The Development of Children in Mother Headed Families" has been published this month in The American Family: Dying or Developing co-edited by David Reiss and Howard Hoffman by Plenum Press. On April 16-18, COX will be presenting a paper co-authored with ISUE psychology major Joe Hulgus on "The Understanding of If...Then Contingency Statements by Kindergarten Aged Children" at the annual meeting of the Rocky Mountain Psychological Association meeting in Las Vegas, Nevada.

ROBERT E. MAYS, director of student teaching, laboratory experiences and coordinator of graduate studies, and Peggy G. Elliott, assistant director of Teacher Education at Indiana University Northwest, recently had a book published in the Phi Delta Kappa Fastback Series titled Early Field Experiences in Teacher Education. This fastback develops the rationale for early field experiences and describes how such programs can be organized under a "partnership" plan between teacher training institutions and the schools.
