USI College Information Night reception scheduled in Vincennes

Counselors from the Admission Office at the University of Southern Indiana will be at The Executive Inn, One Executive Boulevard, in Vincennes, Indiana from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, February 24 hosting a reception for high school juniors and seniors, their parents, and two-year college graduates who may be interested in a four-year college degree. Information about academic programs, the USI admission process, financial aid programs, housing, and USI scholarship options will be available. South Knox High School graduate Andy Yochum, a USI senior majoring in biology, and other USI students will answer students' questions about college life.

The University of Southern Indiana is a public university located in Evansville, Indiana. A liberal arts and science curriculum serves as the foundation of knowledge for USI programs and complements undergraduate programs leading to careers in business, engineering technology, government, health professions, education, and related fields. Over 8,400 students are enrolled in USI programs this year.

The information night reception is free and reservations can be made by calling the USI Office of Admission at 800/467-1965.
