NEW START SEMINAR SET NOVEMBER 13

For Immediate Release
November 2, 1993

Adults who are considering changing careers or starting the college classes they've been postponing for several years will want to attend the free New Start Seminar to be held from 9 a.m. to 12 noon Saturday, November 13, in the Conference Center at the University of Southern Indiana.

The session will answer questions about career planning and placement opportunities, financial aid, USI support programs for adults, and how to enroll in a single class or work toward a degree as a part-time student.

Also available will be the Strong Campbell Interest Inventory, which helps individuals learn their strong points and what lines of endeavor would fulfill their interests. There is a $10 fee for the inventory.

Reservations are requested for the seminar. Call 812/464-1765.
