

NEWS RELEASE

Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/465-1096
E-mail kfunke@usi.edu
www.usi.edu/events.htm

October 17, 2000

Media Advisory

Photo/video opportunity at the University of Southern Indiana

Visitation day for high school seniors and their parents will be held on Saturday, October 21, at USI

Over 100 high school seniors and their parents are expected to visit the University of Southern Indiana on Saturday, October 21, during Southern Hospitality Day. Admission counselors will greet the prospective families at 9 a.m. in Mitchell Auditorium of the Health Professions Center.

Other events of the day are:

- 9 a.m., Health Professions Center
Welcome session by Eric Otto, director of Admission, and John Byrd, vice president for Student Affairs.
- 9:45 a.m., tours of campus
USI Ambassadors will give walking tours of campus.
- 10:55 a.m. to 11:50 a.m.
Academic sessions, Health Professions Center. Faculty will lead sessions about the majors available and career opportunities for the various majors. Sessions on financial assistance, scholarships, work study, and grants will be covered by staff from the Office of Financial Assistance.
- 12:30 p.m.
Lunch will be served in The Loft, University Center
- 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Information Fair, University Center. Current USI students will present various displays covering the student activities and organizations offered at USI. Tours of housing will be conducted at this time.