Openings still are available in the six-week Small Business Success Seminar which gets under way Monday evening, March 7, at the University of Southern Indiana. The course, designed to aid the small business operator in overcoming the pitfalls that lead to business failure, will cover legal concerns, finance, marketing, management, and accounting. In addition, a panel of small business owners will offer practical tips for success.

The registration fee is $95, or $85 each for two or more registering together. Contact the USI Office of Continuing Education, (812) 464-1863, for information or to register.
