FrontLine Leadership, a professional development series for the employee, still has openings for the fall section of classes at the University of Southern Indiana.

Instructors have been licensed by Zenger-Miller to conduct the FrontLine Leadership classes, which focus on supervisory basics and human relations skills. The first class, Core Interpersonal Skills, will meet three Tuesdays, starting October 6, in the University Conference Center. A two-session class on Managing Individual Performance will start November 5.

Call the USI Office of Continuing Education, 812/464-1989 or 800/467-8600, for information or to register.
