Introduction

This book provides an overview of the first three generations in America and a descendant list for the Niemeier Family from the research provided by others and not by the author. It was requested to assemble a book focusing on the first three generations and a listing of the remainder family members. The majority of research was not done by the author. Some branches of the family may be missing.

The folklore story is that the original name was Niggemeier, and later changed to Niemeier. Franz Niemeyer and his sister Maria Christina Niemeyer of Anröchte, Germany, left the Port of Bremen, Germany on Ship Ferdinand on 12 May 1861 and arrived in Baltimore on July 22, 1861. Franz's occupation was listed as a carpenter. They identified Evansville as their destination, which indicates they were joining relatives or friends already there. Their parents were deceased, their father died in 1853, and their mother died in 1849. Some of the siblings remained in Germany. Younger brother Anton joined his siblings in America. Thank you to those who provided family trees. See the sources for a list of contributors.
