Section One – Introduction to the Weis Family

Introduction

As I researched my ancestry, I noticed the numerous marriages that connect to the Weis families. Some has the surname Weis while others had Weiss. I was puzzled as if this was the same family or two different families. It turns out to be two different families, one family from France, the other family from Germany.

Throughout my research on Ancestry.com, I checked the sources of information and if there were any documents or photographs of tombstones.

Numerous people have researched various branches of the Weis family. I was given permission to view their trees and books. It was my goal to document the data. I tried to substantiate the family connections with documents for the first three generations. From the fourth generation on, information was provided partly by hearsay and partly by government documents. Thus, there may be some names, dates or even family branches missing, along with names being misspelled.

Research emphasis was for the first 3 generations of the Weis family. This book is not meant to be an “end” product, but a direction in the right path. It is left for future researchers to continue with the family connections.

I would like to thank Cecilia Weis Kuester for her encouragement throughout this book. Also, I would like to thank the many researchers who have provided copies of their family lines which intertwine with the Weis family:

Sir,

As you suggested it, the town hall of La Wantzenau forwarded your letter dated 5 January to me. It is the custom in our community. The town administrative services rarely undertake to trace ancestors for it takes a tremendous amount of time. However it happens that I spend my spare time, as a pensioner, searching archives. You may further know that town halls hold only registration books going back up to 1793. For the earlier periods one has to research in the parish registration books which are generally stored, if not lost, at the district administration (Straubourg for us).

Thus I can help you, if you wish, to trace back your ancestors, requiring your patience for at the moment I am overloaded with work. I propose to furnish you, in several steps, with the information that I already have or that I still will be able to collect for you in the future. I believe as a start, that we could go back to your ancestors WEISS as far as possible, probably back to the 17th century. Later I will take care of the females lineage.

For today, here are first of all the answers to the questions you ask in your letter:

Catherine WEISS was born in La Wantzenau on 16.01.1827.

Her father Alexis WEISS, boatman, daily hire, small farmer was born in La Wantzenau on 5 July 1787 as son of Vendelin, daily hire, and of Catherine BORING.

He married on 31 August 1818 in the town hall of La Wantzenau Victoire JUND (who could not sign) born in Meyersheim (a village 10 km from La Wantzenau) on 10 September 1786, daughter of Guy (or Vite), farmer, and of Catherine ACKER. The religious blessing was given in the church of Meyersheim. Of this marriage were born in La Wantzenau:

- Xavier born on 24.07.1819
- Marie Madeleine born on 29.08.1820 and her twin sister Marie Louise born on 29.08.1820 - died Meyersheim 23.09.1820
- Georges born on 23.04.1822
- Francois Antoine born on 15.06.1824
- Catherine born on 16.01.1827

The family emigrated probably to the US about 1835. I would like to know the locations and dates of death of those different members and what happened to them in the new world.

Here is still the preceding generation:

WEISS Vendelin, daily hire and fisher was born in Weyersheim on 19.10.1751 and died in La Wantzenau on 4.02.1820. Son of Jean Jacques, farmer and of Marie Wolff. Married in Weyersheim on 6.02.1781 Marie Catherine BORING, born in Weyersheim on 6.06.1751 and died in Weyersheim on 7.02.1819. Daughter of Jacques, daily hire and of Marie Madeleine CLAUSS. The two spouses are illiterate.

Children born in La Wantzenau:

- Sebastien born on 20.01.1782 and died on 1.03.1783
- Andre born on 11.11.1783 and died in Weyersheim on 14.03.1801
- Sebastien born on 19.03.1785 and died in Weyersheim on 10.03.1855, boatman marries in 1806 Therese KLEPPER.
- Alexis
- Richarde born on 17.04.1792 and died on 11.03.1794
- Vendelin born on 10.04.1796 and died on 15.03.1803, drowned.

You may ask me all the questions you wish but I cannot promise an answer for all of them. I would like to emphasize that the name WEISS is still very much spread in La Wantzenau as everywhere in Alsace. JUND is also much spread in Weyersheim and here. Your name FOLZ is also well known as FOLTZ and VOLTZ.

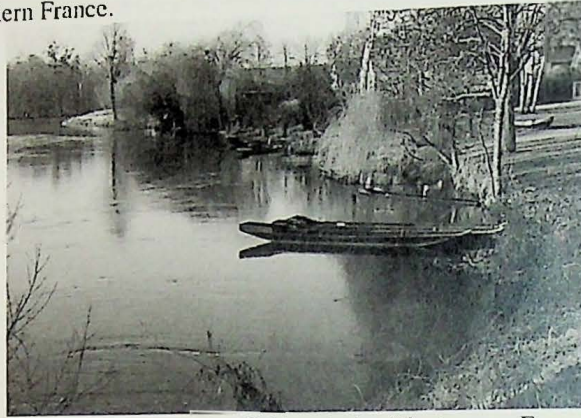

I believe these informations will please you and will still sharpen your appetite.

Cordial greetings.

La Wantzenau (German: Wantzenau) is an administrative district in the Bas-Rhin department in Grand Est in north-eastern France.

The Ill River in La Wantzenau, France

Location of La Wantzenau in France

Location

The town is located 12 km northeast of Strasbourg. It is the last village along the Ill river before it joins the Rhine a few kilometers downstream. The village limits touch the border with Germany, although the closest bridge across the Rhine is in Gambenheim, 10 km north of the village. It is one of the villages of greater Strasbourg (Strasbourg Eurométropole). The village center and the recently developed area, Le Golf, are on the north side of the river Ill with the neighborhood of Le Woerthel on the south side.

History

The terrain around the village is very flat and marshy. In fact, the ending "au" in the name denotes in Alsatian a town which is subject to seasonal flooding. The town was probably founded in the 8th century as a fishing outpost of Honau, a nearby monastery founded by Irish monks on an island in the Rhine river. The name does not appear in any records until 1331 as "Wantzenowe". It was granted status as a parish by the bishop-prince of Strasbourg in 1468. During the Thirty Years' War, in the early 17th century, the town was completely wiped out by Swedish troops. It was also badly damaged during both World Wars. There are many signs of the town's experience with war. Rue Albert Zimmer is named for a soldier who became a local hero fighting with General Leclerc in World War II, only to be killed in fighting near Strasbourg in 1944. The town is dotted with bunkers and blockhouses from the Maginot Line, especially in the La Wantzenau forest. There is also a German-made bunker visible in the house on the corner of the rue Leh and the rue du Moulin.

Today

Today, the town has preserved many 18th century half-timbered Alsatian-style houses. The town has graded a promenade along the Ill river. It is connected to a network of bicycle lanes including the "Piste des Forts" which circles greater Strasbourg, and a path through the La Wantzenau forest through La Robertsau and into downtown Strasbourg. La Wantzenau is well known in the region for the high number of fine restaurants including Le Relais de la Poste, Les Semailles and Le Moulin de la Wantzenau, the last vestiges of a now closed cooking school in the town. The town is twinned with Saint-Yrieix-la-Perche in Haute-Vienne because the population of La Wantzenau was evacuated there at the start of the war with Germany in 1939.

La Wantzenau is a bedroom community of Strasbourg. It combines the advantages of village life with individual houses while still being part of the CUS with train and bus transportation to the center of Strasbourg. 73% of the working population works outside of the village.

The center of the town has several commercial establishments including a grocery store, two bakeries and two tobacconists. There are also several public buildings including a post office, the town hall, the Foyer Culturel, the Jean-Claude Klein sports complex, a football stadium, two pre-schools, a primary school, and a junior high school.

Population (1999 census): 5462

1. I will and direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of my personal estate.

3. At the death of my said wife, I hereby will and bequeath said property, both real and personal, to my ten children—five boys and five girls, in the following proportion: Each boy shall receive five hundred dollars more and each girl five hundred dollars less, than an equal share of all my property left and on hand at the death of my said wife. In the event one or more of my children die without issue before the final division of my estate, then my estate shall be divided amongst the survivors on the same terms and same proportions provided for the then now surviving.

GRIM PROPHECY IS ALMOST FULFILLED

Two Deaths in Family Occur Yesterday and a Third Is Momentarily Expected—Mrs. Catherine Heberer Predicted Deaths

Mrs. Lena Heberer prophesied a week ago that there would be three deaths in her family within a week. Two of these named in her prediction died yesterday and the third, one of her little grandchildren, is now ill and there are no hopes for her recovery.

Mrs. Heberer died early yesterday morning, her niece, Mrs. Catherine Dieg, died in the afternoon and the death of her granddaughter is momentarily expected.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Lena Heberer passed away at her home, Columbia street and Heimlein avenue, after a long illness of paralysis. She was 57 years, 3 months and 8 days old and was the wife of Conrad Heberer, and the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Folz. Mrs. Heberer was born in Posey county, where she remained until her marriage in 1866, when she removed with her husband to this city where she has since resided. She was the mother of twelve children, six of whom still survive her. They are Mrs. Kate Trueb, George Heberer, William, Dr. Joseph, Jacob and Emma. She is also survived by her mother and three sisters and five brothers, Henry, George, Jacob, John and Joseph, Mrs. Spahn, Mrs. Frank Haas and Mrs. J. V. Walz.

At 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon occurred the second death in the family, when Mrs. Catherine Dieg passed away at her home, 218 East Columbia street. She had been ill of consumption for a number of months. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Folz, and the widow of William Dieg, formerly of Mount Vernon, Ind., who died two years ago. She was 32 years old and leaves three small children. She was a niece of Mrs. Heberer.

The eldest daughter of Mrs. Trueb, and one of Mrs. Heberer's grandchildren, is critically ill of heart disease and the attending physicians have little hope for her recovery. The little girl is twelve years old and has been ill for the past four weeks. Mrs. Trueb's mother has been critically ill for the past two months and between nursing her mother and her daughter she has broken her own health down and is now verging on a collapse.

Evansville Courier, Mar 5, 1904, Page 6

THIRD NAMED IN PROPHECY IS DEAD

Little Annie Trueb Succumbs to Heart Disease—Will Be Double Funeral at St. Anthony Church This Morning

The prophecy of Mrs. Heberer a few days ago that herself and niece and granddaughter would all be victims of death within a short time was fulfilled yesterday, when little Annie Trueb, the 12-year-old daughter of Dr. Kate Trueb, passed away. The little girl had been ill for several months of heart disease, but it was not until five weeks ago that her condition became critical.

The death of the child makes a triple loss for Mrs. Jacob Folz. By the death of Mrs. Heberer she lost her oldest daughter, by the death of Mrs. Catherine Dieg her oldest granddaughter, and yesterday death removed her oldest great grandchild.

This morning at St. Anthony's Catholic church there will be a double funeral. Services will be held for Mrs. Heberer and Mrs. Dieg at 8 o'clock. The two caskets will rest side by side.

The funeral of Annie Trueb will be held Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the Trinity Catholic church, of which she was a member.

Annie was a gentle little lady, always cheerful, always obedient and always willing to help at any school entertainment. She was greatly loved and esteemed by her pastors, Fathers Dusted and Schuete, and by her teachers, the Sisters of Providence.

Mrs. Trueb is almost broken down by the loss of her mother, daughter and cousin.

The cause of Mr. Folz's death was a complication of diseases among which chronic disease of the liver and dropsy were the most prominent. He had been suffering for over a year but had not been seriously ill except for the past six or eight weeks. A short time ago he went to Waukesha, another northern resorts in the hope of finding relief but obtained none. He grew gradually worse until his death last evening. He was much improved on Friday and his friends were hopeful, but he suffered a relapse early yesterday morning and sank rapidly until his death at the time named.

He was born in Posey County, Feb. 19th, 1865. He served one term in the city council, being elected as councilman-at-large. He was married in 1895 to Miss Annie Seibert, who survives him.

Mr. Folz was 36 years old and a son of the late Jacob Folz. He was formerly in the seed and feed business on West Franklin Street where he conducted an extensive house. He retired from business about a year ago on account of his failing health. He was a member of St. Boniface Catholic and died in the faith. Father Burkhardt administering the holy unction to him a day or two before his death. He carried a good sum of life insurance and leaves his family well fixed financially.

The deceased leaves a wife and two young child, a boy and a girl, and the following brothers and sisters: Jacob, Joseph, John, George, and Henry Folz, the latter three of whom live in the country; Mrs. Joe Walz, Mrs. Frank Haas, Mrs. Conrad Heberer and Mrs. Spahn, the latter of whom lives in the country and the others in the city.

GAS FUMES ARE FATAL TO WOMAN ALONE IN HOUSE
Daughter of Mrs. Philamine Walz Finds Her Mother Dead

Found dead by her daughter four or five hours after she was asphyxiated by gas, Mrs. Philamine Walz, 61, 17 John-st, Wednesday was pronounced the victim of accidental death by Coroner Max Lowe.

The accident is believed to have occurred when Mrs. Walz was cleaning the bathroom and her broom or mop slipped, turning on the gas jet.

Her daughter, Helen, a teacher at Henry Reis school, said that she tried to telephone her mother at 4 p.m. Tuesday, but that she received no answer. When she discovered the body, in the bathroom both the door and window were tightly closed.

It is believed that gas emanating from a heater weakened Mrs. Walz and she sat down in a chair to rest and was overcome by the fumes.

Funeral services will be held at the home at 7:20 a.m. Friday. The services will be continued at the Church of Assumption at 8 a.m. Burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery.
