In memory of John Earl Helfert

Introduction

As I looked for my ancestors, I noticed a close relationship with the Helfert family. They were not only neighbors of my mine, but were neighbors and good friends of my grandparents. I was interested in how the Helfert families had lived and what their family history was. So, I spent time researching numerous records to piece together the family lines. Rather than let all of this research evaporate, I decided to assemble a book from my research, including the obituaries, tombstone pictures and census records.

Through my research, I reached out to numerous genealogists who have researched other families in Vanderburgh County, Indiana. They have shared their family databases with me. I acknowledge their research in the Sources: Leroy Kercher, Linda Weiss, George Rexing, Karen Scheller Harvey, Hans Herling, Clem Weiss, Fr. David Nunning, Betty Wirth, Brian Lankford, Frank Hericl, Charles Koressel and Robert Koressel.

This book merely is a summary of my research, and is not meant to be an all-inclusive representation of the Helfert family. Other researchers are encouraged to use what I have assembled here and then continue with their research. Because of mistakes in newspaper articles, government documents and mistakes in my typing, there may be errors.

This family history report uses the legal outline numbering system and a generation prefix. It begins with one source person, George Helfert, and moves forward in time. This report includes their descendants (children, children's children, etc.) along with information about each descendant along the way.

George Helfert is assigned the number 1. His oldest child, Elizabeth is 1.1, His second child, Maria is 1.2. His third child, Valentine is assigned 1.3, and so on down the line. When there is a second marriage, the letters, "a" and "b", are used, where "a" represents the first marriage and "b" represents the second marriage.

Each descendant in the family history report is assigned a legal outline number which symbolizes the descendant's relationship to the source couple. The number permits one see at a glance the relationships between people in the family history report. For example, the person number 1.2.3 means the third child of the second child of the source couple. The generation prefix, such as (2), is before the descendant's name and indicates the generation from the source couple.

Sources of information are listed at the end of the report and the connecting superscripts are given after the descendant's name. An index is also provided.

To those that use this book, I wish you success in your family genealogy search.

The Helfert Story

According to census records the George J Helfert family was from Darmstadt, Hesse, Germany. No specific town was provided in the various census records, but Birkenau, Hesse-Darmstadt, Germany is listed in a birth record for Peter Helfert.

I searched for immigrations records of George and his wife, Barbara. Their first three children (Elizabeth, Maria, and Valentine) were born in Hesse, and their last two children (Margaretha and John Baptist) were born in Indiana. Thus, the family immigrated between 1851 and 1854. I did not locate the passenger ship lists for the family.

I searched the naturalization records of Indiana and Vanderburgh County and did not find the name of George Helfert. However, a record for a George Helfer was located, with the same date as for Peter Helfer.

The census records of 1870 and 1880 indicate that the Helfert family lived in Vanderburgh County, Armstrong township. The 1880 Atlas of Vanderburgh County for Armstrong Township does show a Helfert family, near the St. Wendel Post Office area, owning over 80 acres of land.

In the 1870 U.S. Indiana, Vanderburgh County, Armstrong Township, census records, George and Barbara Helfert lists Hesse Darmstadt as their birth place. No specific town was identified. Below are a map and a brief history of Hesse-Darmstadt, Germany.

History:

Hesse-Darmstadt, German Hessen-darmstadt, former landgraviate, grand duchy, and state of Germany. It was formed in 1567 in the division of old Hesse; after Hesse-Kassel was absorbed by Prussia in 1866, Hesse-Darmstadt was usually known simply as Hesse.

Hesse-Darmstadt was originally only the small territory of Upper Katzenelnbogen with Darmstadt, being situated in what is now the extreme southern portion of the present-day Land (state) of Hessen. But the landgraviate received significant accretions of territory during the 17th and 18th centuries, partly owing to its steadfast loyalty to the Habsburg Holy Roman emperors. Hesse-Darmstadt entered Napoleon's Confederation of the Rhine in 1806 and was consequently raised to the status of a grand duchy in that year. Hesse-Darmstadt joined the allies in 1813 and entered the German Confederation in 1815.

The Congress of Vienna ceded some of Hesse-Darmstadt's lands to Prussia and Bavaria but in compensation gave the duchy, among other territories, a district on the west bank of the Rhine containing the important cities of Mainz and Worms. The grand duke Louis I (reigned 1768–1830) granted Hesse-Darmstadt a constitution in 1820, carried it through other reforms, and made the grand duchy the first of the southern German states to join the Prussian Zollverein (Customs Union). Hesse-Darmstadt thereafter oscillated between liberalism and conservatism. The duchy sided with the Austrians in the Seven Weeks' War (1866) and consequently lost its territory north of the Main River to the Prussian-sponsored North German Confederation. But when the German empire was founded in 1871, Hesse-Darmstadt became one of its constituent states.

Following the abdication of the last grand duke, Ernest Louis, in 1918, Hesse became a republic and one of the constituent states of the Weimar Republic of postwar Germany. In 1945 the territory east of the Rhine was in the U.S. occupation zone and became part of the Land of Greater Hesse (later called simply Hessen), while the rest became part of the Land of Rhineland-Palatinate. Father, son are killed in wreck near Poseyville

Special to The Press

POSEYVILLE — A Posey County father and son died today in an early morning wreck on Poseyville-Wadesville Road three miles south of Poseyville.

The Posey County Sheriff's Department said John A. Erbacher, 33, of Wadesville and his father, Charles J. Erbacher, 63, of Poseyville, died in the 4:35 accident.

The younger Erbacher was driving the 1979 Dodge pickup truck when it struck a bridge abutment, police said. They said skid marks indicated the truck then crossed the center line, and traveled about 153 feet before it flipped over and rolled several times. It landed on its top in a small ditch about 215 feet from where it struck the abutment.

According to the sheriff's report, the accident occurred on a straight stretch of road. The road was dry with no hazardous conditions. The accident is still under investigation.

The younger Erbacher died of head and internal injuries while being transported to Deaconess Hospital in Evansville.

His father, who was pinned in the wreckage, died of internal injuries at the scene.

The elder Erbacher is survived by his wife, Martha; daughters, Charla Pearson of St. Joseph, Mich., Jane Murphy of Wadesville and Sydney Russier of Cynthiana, and a son, Robert, of Louisville.

The younger Erbacher was not married. He lived in Blairsville and worked at Klenck Construction Co. there.

Arrangements are pending at Werry Funeral Home in Poseyville.

Poseyville Motorist Killed When Car Leaves Highway

POSEYVILLE - Ind. - (Special) - John Erbacher, 21, was killed shortly after 6 p.m. yesterday when his car went off Highway 460-66, about four miles east of New Harmony.

State Police said the accident occurred on a sweeping curve.

Erbacher, a driver for his father, John F. Erbacher, operator of a truck line here, was alone and headed east, according to the police report.

Troopers said he apparently lost control of the car while speeding. The car went across the road, down an embankment, smacked five trees and overturned before coming to a stop. It traveled about 300 yards after leaving the road.

Posey County Coroner Ferrel J. Meinschein said Erbacher died instantly of a broken neck. He also had a crushed face, fractured left leg and cuts and bruises.

A 1956 graduate of Poseyville High, he was a member of the Student Council, Future Farmers of American and played three years on the baseball team.

His father operates the 10-J Truck Lines. It was named 10-J because the Erbachers had 10 children whose names started with the letter "J."

Surviving, besides the parents, are brothers, James R, Joseph F., Jeffery Lynn and Jerome P.; sisters, Misses Jean Alice, Judith Marie, Joan Elizabeth, Joyce Anne, Janice Marie and Jo Mary; grandparents, Mrs. Mae Erbacher and Mr. and Mrs. Omar Wiggins, of Poseyville.

Funeral will be 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, with burial in church cemetery. Evansville Press, 2 Mar 1959, Page 9

Erbacher, UE Senior, killed in truck wreck

A University of Evansville senior was killed early Saturday when he lost control of the truck he was driving and slammed into a dirt embankment of U.S. 41 north of Indiana 57.

Jeffrey L. Erbacher, 24, of 1673 Lincoln Ave., who was a term away from completing work on his bachelor's degree, was dead on arrival at Welborn Hospital at 5:45 a.m. Erbacher also worked for Klenck Construction Co. in Blairsville while attending school

According to Indiana State Police, Erbacher's truck ran off the right side of the southbound lane of U.S. 41 into a drainage ditch, one-half mile south of Mt. Pleasant Road. The truck traveled two-tenths of a mile in the ditch before crossing a small creek and hitting the embankment, police said.

Witnesses told police the truck had been swerving from lane to lane just before the accident and was traveling about 50 mph when it left the road.

Erbacher was a 1972 graduate of Memorial High School.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Erbacher, of Evansville; seven sisters, Jo Mary and Julie Erbacher, all at home, Joanie Hostetler of Evansville, Joyce Ungetheim of Poseyville and Jamie Pokorney of Evansville; and three brothers, Jerry at home, James R. of Flora, and the Rev. Clarence E. "Gene" Helfert "Chug", sixty-eight years of age, born on September 13, 1949 to Clarence G. and Evelyn (Gordon) Helfert in Evansville, IN passed from this earth into his Savior's arms on Tuesday, July 10, 2018, at home. Standing in the Gates of Heaven to greet him was his mom, dad, and younger brother, Roy.

Gene fought a long, hard battle with cancer the last 5 years. He had a rare form of cancer that his Dr. told him no one had ever survived. They gave him 6 months at the longest but most likely 3 months. Gene told him, "You may be my Dr., but my Heavenly Father is who I depend on for the length of my days of my life." So, with his Drs. hard work, prayers from his family and friends, and his Savior by his side, he fought a long, hard battle.

Gene was a hard worker throughout his life beginning as a teenager working for local farms in St. Wendel where he was raised. After graduation from Reitz High School in 1967, he worked for Federal Produce for a few years before becoming an owner operator driving for Buchta Trucking. Years later, he worked for Overnight Trucking and for his friend, Dan Perdue at Universal Salvage. His last job before retirement was at T.J. Maxx where he was known by everyone as "Preacher."

Although at times, he may have been a little rough around the edges, he had a big heart and loved to help out with food, etc. at church events. He enjoyed the Frog Follies and just socializing with people – Gene never met a stranger! He had many, many friends. He also found a joy in spending all day on Saturday going to yard sales - He loved a bargain! At Christmas time, he enjoyed playing Santa Claus at his niece's daycare.

Gene has 4 sons he was very proud of, although he may never have told them that! He did not express his feelings very well to them. He was very proud of the men they had become: good husbands and fathers to their children. He was very grateful to Sharon, their mother, for the way she had raised them.

The family would like to thank his very special cousin, Larry Straub and his wife, Mary, who cared for him in his final days. There were others who also helped: his nephew, David Marts, sisters, Tammy and Sue, and sister-in-law, Karen Helfert. The family would like to say a special thank you to Darcy Puckett at Kindred Hospice, Kimberly Staples with Deaconess Medication Assistance Program, Melissa with Specialty Group, and Dr. Ahmed and numerous other Drs. who also helped his fight with cancer.

He is survived by his sons, Eric Helfert, Brian Helfert (Rebecca), Brent Helfert (Angie), and Mark Helfert (Alice); mother of his sons and good friend, Sharon Helfert; 5 grandchildren; 4 step-grandchildren; sisters, Sue Foster, Linda Bollinger (Clete), Margie Luffman, Tammy Helfert-Marx (Billy), and Marlene "Jody" Luffman; and his precious dog daughter, Roxie, that he loved so very much.

He is preceded in death by his parents and younger brother, Roy Helfert.

Funeral Services will be held at 11:00 a.m., Friday, July 13, 2018 at Boone Funeral Home East Chapel – A Family Tradition Funeral Home, 5330 Washington Avenue with Pastor Gary Auten officiating. Burial will be in Sunset Memorial Gardens.

Teen-Ager Found Shot To Death

A teen-age hunter was found dead, shot by his own rifle, Monday afternoon by his father, who was called home from work to search for him.

Ernest Leo Rexing, 16, of Rt. 7, was found dead in a ditch about a mile from his home by his father, Raymond.

Sheriff's deputies said young Rexing was shot once in the chest with the 22-caliber rifle with which he was hunting.

The coroner's office is continuing investigation.

Leaves Home at 8 a.m.

Deputies said they learned the teen-ager left his home about 8 a.m. with the rifle and two dogs.

About 4 p.m. Mrs. Rexing became worried because her son had not returned and called her husband at work. He returned home and was led by the dogs to the spot where his son lay dead.

Besides his parents, Rexing is survived by two brothers, Donald and Neal, and a sister, Sylvia, all of Evansville; and his grandmother, Mrs. Clara Jameson of St. Wendel, Ind.

The youth was a member of St. Wendel Catholic Church.

The body was taken to Pierre Funeral Home, where friends may call after 5 p.m. Tuesday.
