Introduction

Back in 2001, I researched my Herrmann family line. When people heard that I was writing a family history book, they often asked if I was of the Hermann Candy, or the Herrmann Dairy, or Herrmann Wagon Wheel family. My answer was that I was from the Herrmann farmers, who lived in German Township, Vanderburgh County, Indiana.

In my research, I discovered other families with the last name of Herrmann or Hermann, but they were not related to me. However, I kept records on what I had found for these two other families that were from different states in Germany. This helped me figure out who was candy, dairy or wagon wheel Herrmanns.

My GGG-Grandfather, Michael Herrmann, immigrated around 1845-1849 from the town of Steinfeld, Bavaria, Germany. Six of his children – Michael, John Michael, Katharina, Frank, Carl and George – also immigrated, but not together. From the county records in North Carolina, Michael Herrmann purchased 80 acres of land in Vanderburgh County, Indiana from Alfred Williams, Fabius I Hayward and Martha Hayward. The Warranty Deed of Sale, to Michael Herrmann, dated 6 Nov 1949, was recorded in Indiana, Vanderburgh County, Book R, Page 542. They were farmers and sold their produce at the local farmers' market.

The Jacob Hermann family lived in Evansville, Indiana. Jacob and Anna Maria (Ganz) Hermann were the parents of 9 children – Henry A. Jacob, John, Mary, Elizabeth, Suzanna, Margaret, Francis and Anna. Jacob was born in Wiesbaden, Hesse, Germany and immigrated in 1837. Jacob was a cabinet maker. His sons - Henry, Jacob and Francis – were confectioners and operated the Hermann Candy Store that was well known in the Evansville area.

The Philip Herrmann family was from Löllbach, Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany. Philip and Veronica (Rassweiler) Herrmann had three children – Johann Peter, Philip and an unnamed child. Only Johann Peter is known to have immigrated to the USA; and he and his wife, Anna Katharina Altes, settled in Racine, Wisconsin. They had eight children – John, Philipp, Jacob, Peter, Katherine, Charles, Frederick and Caroline. Their oldest sons, John, Jacob, Peter and Frederick, moved to Tell City, Indiana and had a wagon making business. Katherine and Charles remained in Racine. Philipp died of yellow fever at the Isthmus of Panama on his way to California, while Caroline died in 1865. Frederick's son, John Lincoln Herrmann, owned and operated the Herrmann Dairy.

Thus, three different families, from the German states Bavaria, Hesse, and Rhineland Palatinate, settled in the Evansville area, operated very prosperous businesses and contributed immensely to the local economy.

This book is a summary of my personal research, and is not meant to be an all-inclusive representation of the Philip Herrmann family. Other researchers are encouraged to use what I have assembled here and then continue with their research.

Because of mistakes in newspaper articles, government documents and mistakes in my typing, there may be errors. In various records, names were written in German, Latin or English. Thus, Maria could be recorded as Mary, Marie, Maria, or Marian, or Mariam. John could be recorded as Johann, Johannes, Joannes, John, Jno or Jon. Baptismal names included two to four names – a saint's name, a parent's name, the child's name and the surname. With a lack of consistency in records, it is very confusing, and mistakes can be made.

Through my research, on the Philip Herrmann family, I reached out to numerous genealogists who have researched their families in Vanderburgh County, Indiana. They have shared their family databases with me. I acknowledge their contribution: Stephen Bruehl, Carol Elrod, and Viola Herrmann Herrell.

To those that use this book, I wish you success in your family genealogy search.

Herrmann Family Folklore

Subject: Herrmann family

My husband, Ed, and I visited Löllbach, Germany, the family's hometown, in 1958. He was stationed near Kassel at the time in the Army. The town was at the end of a rutted, one-lane road - population 400. As you can imagine we were quite a curiosity, especially since I was 7 months pregnant and German women didn't go out in public in that condition back in the 1950s. People couldn't have been nicer, and we even were given lunch in the town gasthaus. We also went to the church, a Norman-style structure built in the 900s, and met the minister, who showed us the church records for the Herrmanns. He had someone copy off names and pertinent dates and affixed his seal to it.

Here's a summation of the information we got. Part of the family came to the US in 1855, according to the Lutheran pastor, but my great aunt, who wrote a short family history, said they landed in New York July 12, 1856. A history of Perry County, IN, said the family came to the US in 1852. My great aunt, Mathilda Herrmann Wedeking, said that the oldest son of the family, also named Johannes (b. 10 Oct 1830 in Löllbach), was already in America and was waiting for the family in New York. Another brother, Jacob, had come to the US earlier and was working in Racine, Wisconsin.

The parents: Johannes Herrmann b. Oct. 16, 1800, d. Sept. 1880. On 8 Sept. 1829, he m. Anna Catharina Altes in Löllbach, which, by the way, is near Kaiserslautern. She was b. 1811 Johannes bought an 80 acre farm 8 miles from Kenosha in Paris Township. In Germany he had been a wagner (wagonmaker). In the 1920s my uncle Gustav Herrmann had been to Löllbach and told me that he saw the ruins of the family home, with a wagonmaker sign still attached. We were shown the foundation of the house, all that was left, in 1958.

The couple had 9 children.

1. Johannes, b. 10 Oct. 1830 in Löllbach. He had seven children. I have their names, if you want them.
2. Phillipp, b. 14 Dec. 1832 in Löllbach. He died on the Isthmus of Panama of malaria while on his way to California, 1859.
3. Jacob, b. 13 Nov. 1834 in Löllbach. He died in Tell City, IN, in 1898. He had five children, whose names I have.
4. Peter, b. 22 Feb. 1837 in Löllbach. Died Evansville, IN 1896. He had two children.
5. Catharina, b. 3 Dec. 1839 in Löllbach. She m. Jacob Herzog and lived in Chicago. She had eight children, whose names I have.
6. Carl, b. 13 April 1843 in Löllbach
7. Frederick (My great grandfather) b. 11 Oct. 1845 in Löllbach. Served in the Union Army in the US beginning 1864, lived Kenosha, then Tell City. He m. Marie Spillman 14 May 1874. He died 25 Feb. 1927 in Evansville, IN, in the home of one of his daughters, the above-mentioned Mathilda. I remember Marie well, but he was already dead when I came along. They had eight children, whose names I have.
8. Charles (your ancestor), who my aunt said lived on a farm in Somers Twp. near Tell City. (Was he born after the family came to the US? The minister at the church in Löllbach did not give me his name.) My aunt says Charles' children were Charles, John, Lizzie, Minnie and Mary.
9. Another son died in infancy, according to my aunt. Was he born in the US? My aunt said that the elder Johannes had six brothers and one sister and that the father's name was Philip Herrmann. He would be our great-great-grandfather. His wife's name, according to my aunt, was Veronica (Veronika). She didn't know her maiden name. After the Civil War, Frederick returned to Kenosha to become a farmer again. His two brothers, Johannes and Peter by then were living in Tell City, IN, where they had started a wagon-making business. So, he went there and worked for his two brothers. That's it for now, cousin. I'm glad to meet you. Carol Elrod

Historical excerpts about the Herrmann family

HISTORY OF PERRY COUNTY

By Thomas James De La Hunt
published by W. K. Stewart, 1916, Page 191

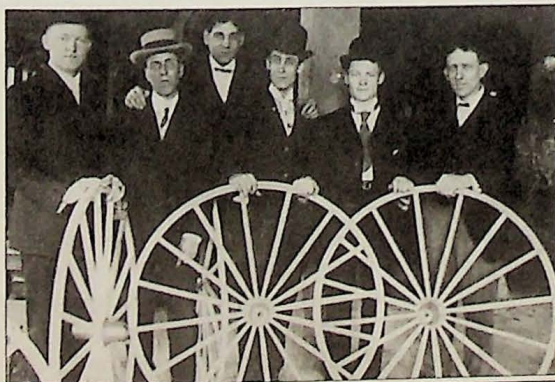

"Probably the earliest industrial undertaking was the saw-mill established April, 1858, by the Herrmann Brothers (John and Peter) who found themselves scarcely able to supply the enormous demand for lumber, as there were no houses to shelter newcomers and buildings of flimsy nature sprang up like mushrooms everywhere in the woods.

The Herrmanns were of Prussian birth, children of John and Katharina (Altes) Herrmann, and came to the United States in 1852, working at the wagon makers' trade in various cities of Ohio before locating in Cincinnati. From thence they removed to Tell City, of which John Herrman became the first postmaster, when the post office was established in 1858 by Post- master-General Aaron V. Brown, of Tennessee, whose official successor as holder of that portfolio in Buchanan's cabinet was Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, born directly opposite Perry County, at "Holt Place," Breckinridge County. A year later the Herrmann brothers entered upon the wagon making business, building up what became one of the largest in Southern Indiana.

After some years the manufacture of hames was developed, remaining in control of the Herrmann family, who are still locally prominent, until 1906, when their plant was absorbed by the United States Hame Manufacturing Company, who made Tell City one of their principal depots in the Middle West."

JOHN HERRMANN, manufacturer of Tell City, is the eldest child of John and Kathrina (Altes) Herrmann, born in Prussia, October 14, 1830. The father came to the United States in 1856, and located on a farm in Wisconsin, where he died in 1880. The mother resides in Racine, Wis. He received a fair education in youth, and worked at farming and wagon-making with his father until 1852, when he came to America. He worked at his trade in various cities in Ohio, finally locating in Cincinnati, where he remained until 1858, when he came to Tell City and engaged in the saw-mill business. After a year he, in partnership with his brother Peter, started a wagon manufactory, which they have since conducted with more than ordinary success. They began with small capital, but by hard work, economy and integrity have succeeded in establishing one of the largest factories of the kind in southern Indiana. In 1866 they built their present large buildings, and in 1875 established a store and salesroom at Evansville, which is managed by Peter. In 1856 John Herrmann was married to Elizabeth Keller, who died in 1881, leaving seven children: John W., Charles F., Peter J., Frederick J., Elizabeth B., Herman L. and Andrew J. One child is deceased. January 14, 1884, he married Dora Kay, of Indianapolis. In politics Mr. Herrmann is a staunch Republican, has held various local offices, and was the first postmaster appointed at Tell City.

This family biography is one of 257 biographies included in The History of Perry County, Indiana portion of the book: History of Warrick, Spencer and Perry Counties Indiana published in 1885 by Goodspeed, Bros. & Co.

The Herrmann Wagon Works was located in the 100 block of Ninth Street.

Ancestral Town of Löllbach, Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany

Source: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Löllbach>

LOCATION

Löllbach is an Ortsgemeinde – a municipality belonging to a Verbandsgemeinde, a kind of collective municipality – in the Bad Kreuznach district in Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany. It belongs to the Verbandsgemeinde of Meisenheim, whose seat is in the like-named town.

Löllbach is a typical clump village and lies between Lauterecken and Meisenheim, off the major traffic routes, in the North Palatine Uplands at an elevation of 208 m (682 ft) above mean sea level. Running through the village is the Jeckenbach, and emptying into it in the village core is the Schweinschieder Bach. The municipal area measures 494 hectares (1,220 acres).

Clockwise from the north, Löllbach's neighbours are the municipalities of Jeckenbach and Breitenheim, which likewise lie within the Bad Kreuznach district, the municipalities of Medard and Kappel, which lie in the neighbouring Kusel district, and the municipality of Schweinschied, also in the Bad Kreuznach district.

Location of Löllbach,
in Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany

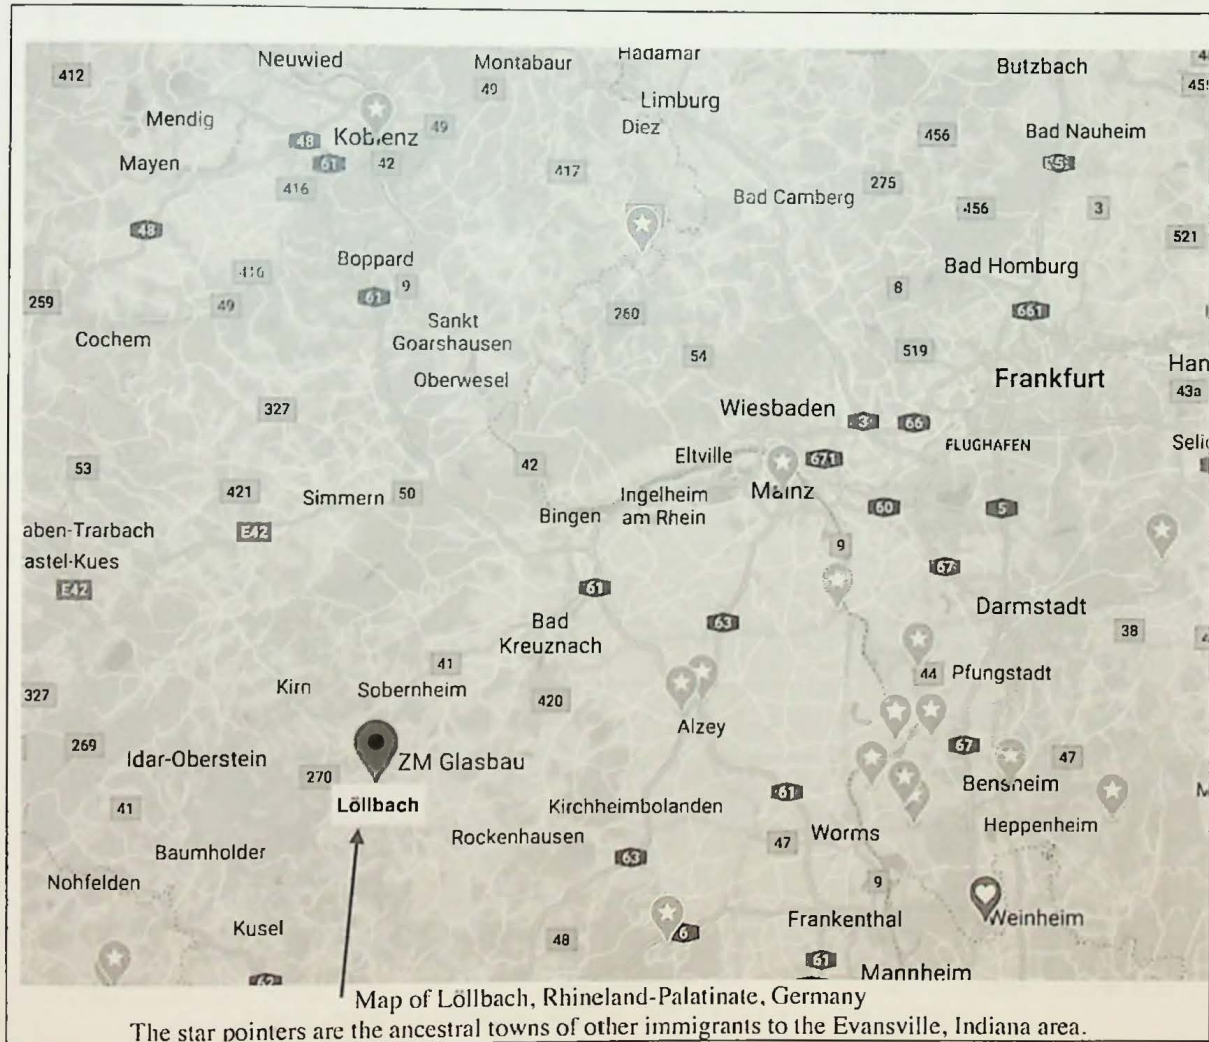

HISTORY: Some 5,000 years ago, the Löllbach area lay in trackless wilderness. The mountains were covered in old-growth forest, and most of the dales were marshy. It was at about this time, though, that the first humans set foot here, nomadic hunter-gatherer folk, whose feet made the first human paths through the area, although these would not have looked very different from trails made by the deer.

In the rural cadastral area known as the “Lagerstück” near Löllbach, a stone hatchet and a sharp-edged arrowhead were unearthed, which these early hunters would not have been happy to lose. Only 2,000 years later, thus about 3000 BC, scattered bits of tribe from far away made themselves at home on the local heights at homesteads. They already knew about the metals tin and copper, and the alloy that could be made from them: bronze. Iron was then still unknown to them. Knowledge of these people's presence comes from the graves that they left behind, barrows, known in German, not altogether accurately, as Hiinengräber or “Huns’ graves”. These can be found in the Striedter Wald (forest), as well as in other places in the area.

These Bronze Age dwellers had also learnt the rudiments of crop raising. These people were succeeded by the great Celtic tribes who came into the area from northern France and northern Germany to settle across their vast new homeland stretching to the northern edge of the Alps. They, too, worked the land and raised livestock, although they hunted as well.

Archaeological finds have also shown that they had also mastered pottery along with bronze and iron casting. In their time, the Löllbach area was already widely settled with homesteads in hillside glades. In their struggle with Germanic peoples who had crossed the Rhine, the Celts fled for shelter behind the ring walls at their refuge castles that they had built on mountaintops: Marialskopf near Medard, Raumberg, Donnersberg, and many others. The Celts, however, were outnumbered and melded with the victors, with the result being the Treveri, a people of mixed Celtic and Germanic stock, from whom the Latin name for the city of Trier, Augusta Treverorum, is also derived.

History of Tell City

The Wagon and Plow Factory of Herrmann & Bro. was really founded on the smallest scale in 1858, two or three men doing the work. The business was slowly increased until, in 1866, the sales amounted to about $7,000 annually, and employment was given to six or eight men. In 1866, there was spent on new buildings, machinery, etc. about $6,000, and at the end of the year about ten men were employed. The annual sales soon ran from $10,000 to $15,000. Since then, from time to time, additional shops or departments have been added. Employment is now given to about twenty men. The firm has a warehouse at Evansville, from which the goods are distributed. They now make from 400 to 600 wagons annually; 75,000 to 150,000 plow-handles, 300 to 500 wheelbarrows, and a few spring wagons. The firm consists of John and Peter Herman, or Herrmann, as it is sometimes spelled.

MADISON – Ella Margaret Bettinger, 88, died at 6:30 a.m. Wednesday, March 18, 2015, at 6:30 a.m. at the King's Daughters' Hospital in Madison. She entered this life Sept. 26, 1926, in Tell City, the loving daughter of the late Earl H. and Carla H. Herrmann Bettinger.

Ella was raised in Tell City and was a 1944 graduate of Tell City High School. She then attended Indiana University in Bloomington and received her Bachelor of Science in chemistry in 1948. Ella resided in St. Louis since 1948 and was employed as a research chemist with Mallinckrodt Pharmaceuticals, retiring in 1988. While there, she helped write the formula for ice-melt. She was proud to have two U.S. patents with the termination of iodine. While living in St. Louis, she was a member of the Redeemer United Church of Christ. She was also a member of several neighborhood groups in St. Louis and a life member of the American Association of University Women. After moving to Madison in 2005, she became a member of St. John United Church of Christ in downtown Madison and attended DuPont United Methodist Church.

Ella enjoyed reading, history and traveling the world. Ella was proud to be one of the first females to obtain a pilot's license in Indiana to pilot a towboat on the Ohio River. She dearly loved the Ohio River and her many visits down to the river.

Ella will be missed by her loving nephew, the Honorable Judge Michael J. Hensley and his wife, Kathy, of Madison; her loving great-nephew, Evan Michael Hensley; her loving caregiver and friend, Barbara Feider of Madison; and several cousins in New York.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her sister, Charlotte Ruth Bettinger Hensley, who died June 10, 2000; her brother-in-law, the Honorable (Ret.) Judge Joseph Louis "Joe" Hensley, who died Aug. 27, 2007.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday, March 24, at Morgan & Nay Funeral Centre, 325 Demaree Drive in Madison. Interment will follow at 5 p.m. Tuesday in Greenwood Cemetery in Tell City.

William C. Lehman was the president of Lehman Company of America, a furniture manufacturing firm in Cannelton he formed with his brothers in the mid 1920's. At its height, the company employed 350 people from Cannelton and nearby towns in the manufacture of its patented "Babyguard" high chairs and other children's and kitchen furniture.

With the stock market crash of 1929 and the onset of the Great Depression, the company continued to operate by dint of great effort on Lehman's part. In 1935, he was elected president of the Toy Manufacturers of America. He served for many years on the Cannelton School Board and the board of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church in Cannelton.

Lehman purchased a 100 acre tract of land three miles east of Cannelton and built a spring-fed lake and house on it, naming it Lake Bill-Va-Dor after his three children, Bill, Virginia, and Dorathea. Tragedy struck in the early morning of December 7, 1936 when a fire of unknown origin swept through the lake house, taking the lives of his wife and son, and injuring his daughters and him. Lehman subsequently sold the lake property which is now Girl Scout Camp Koch. Contribution: Find-A-Gave.com

JACOB HERRMANN.

Death of a Well-Known Citizen of Tell City, Ind.

Revenue Collector Adler yesterday received notice of the death of Jacob Herrmann at Tell City.

Mr. Herrmann was a brother to the late Peter Herrmann of this city, who died about six months ago and who was president of the Herrmann manufacturing Company and an ex-councilman.

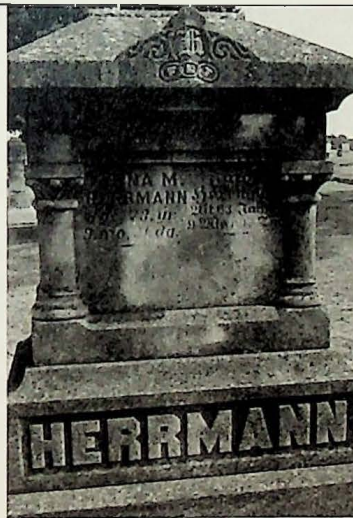

Jacob Herrmann was well known in this city, where he had frequently visited his brother in his lifetime. He was in the employ of the government at the time of his death, being the scorekeeper and gauger at the Krogman Distilling Company's plant at Tell City.

The deceased was 64 years old. He had been ailing for a long time, but his death was sudden. Only last week Mr. Clarence Gilchrist, one of the traveling revenue collectors, visited Tell City and saw Mr. Herrmann. He was at that time up and able to attend to his duties.

Mr. Herrmann leaves a family. He had considerable wealth.

The funeral took place yesterday at Tell City.

Alfred Herzog Obituary - Racine, WI | Racine Journal Times

RACINE - Alfred E. Herzog, 70, passed away Sunday, June 22, 2008, after a long battle at St. Luke's Hospital in Milwaukee. Born on July 8, 1937, at Kenosha Memorial Hospital in Kenosha, the second son of the late John J. and Lucille (nee: Bounsall) Herzog. In his teens, he moved from Kenosha to the family farm in Mount Pleasant.

On November 20, 1959, he cemented his loving relationship with his wife of 48 years, Shirley Ann Andersen, in holy matrimony at the Our Savior's Lutheran Church. After graduating from Park High School, he served in the United States Army from 1954 until 1955. Al was formerly employed by American Motors for five years, then the family-owned Southeastern Trucking Company for 10 years, and then Racine Unified School District for 25 years, until his retirement in 2000. Growing tired of the sedentary life, he took on maintenance for multiple condominiums in the complex that he and Shirley had moved into after selling their beloved home in the country of many years. He was also a former member of Christ Church United Methodist in Racine and a lifetime member of the Kenosha HOG Chapter, where he held many positions within the club for many, many years, sharing his love of the road with anyone and everyone.

Surviving are his wife, Shirley of Racine; two sons, Kurt (Christine) Herzog of Sheboygan and Kris (Elizabeth) Herzog of Racine; an older brother, John (Beverly) Herzog of Titusville, Fla. and Twin Lakes; his beloved and cherished identical twin granddaughters, Katie and Kelly; numerous extended family members; and his wide, non-exclusive club of friends, including his brothers and sisters in the Kenosha HOG Chapter.

Preceding Alfred in death were his grandson, Thomas Brian Herzog; and many loved family members that he cherished the memory of for many years. A private celebration of Al's life will be held after his brothers and sisters honor his memory by taking to the roads that he loved so Nancy Johnson Martens, age 74, died on October 8, 2013 at Pomerado Hospital after a long, courageous struggle with cancer.

She was born to Arthur and Emily Johnson on January 26, 1939 in Kenosha Wisconsin. Upon graduating from the University of Wisconsin in 1961 with a degree in Speech Therapy, she married her college boyfriend, Ted Martens. Immediately after marriage, they started a series of moves from coast to coast while following her husband's career with Procter and Gamble. They had a son, Ryan, in 1965. They retired to Point Loma in San Diego in 1995.

Nancy had a short tenure as a speech therapist in Southern Maryland, practicing in a segregated school system with three black and three white schools. She then devoted herself to being a stay-at-home mom and wife while engaging in other pursuits that interested her. Among them were teaching swimming to both children and adults who were afraid of the water, and coaching a youth swim team. Her main avocation was helping customers find just the right book, especially children's books, in several independent book stores. She was an avid knitter, reader, sea glass collector, and trivia expert. She tried out, but fell short, to be a contestant on the Jeopardy TV show. She loved to travel the world learning about different cultures, visiting dozens of countries and all seven continents.

She was a member of the University of Wisconsin Alumni Club of San Diego and Bernardo Heights Country Club. Nancy was an outgoing, spontaneous, caring, and fun person. Most of all, she was a devoted and loving wife, mother, and friend. She will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

She is survived by her husband of 52 years, Ted; a son, Ryan (Wynn) Martens, and grandson, Gus Martens, of Boulder, CO; and a brother, Mark (Marcy) Johnson, of Rockford, IL. She was predeceased by her parents. Her remains have been cremated and her ashes will be scattered at sea in a private memorial service. The family requests no flowers or memorial donations. legacy.com

Frederick Hermann was a private in Company E of the 1st Wisconsin Infantry Regiment, which according to the wiki page below did fight in the siege of Chattanooga. Wisconsin historical society link suggests it went to Atlanta also. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/1st_Wisconsin_Volunteer_Infantry_Regiment_\(3_Years\))
<http://www.wisconsinhistory.org/Content.aspx?dsNav=N:4294963828-4294963805&dsRecordDetails=R:CS2575>

He later was transferred to this unit in Sept 1864:
<http://www.wisconsinhistory.org/Content.aspx?dsNav=N:4294963828-4294963805&dsRecordDetails=R:CS2344>

Their colonels were: Cols., John C. Starkweather, then later George B. Bingham
From what I can piece together from this (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Chattanooga-Ringgold_Campaign_Union_order_of_battle),

Looks like the Wisconsin 1st Infantry were in Chattanooga under the 3rd brigade, First Division (Brigadier General Richard Johnson), which was part of the XIV Corps under Major General John Palmer. This was all apparently part of the Army of the Cumberland, led by Major General George Thomas, which ultimately was under General U.S. Grant (Military Division of the Mississippi).

WIFE OF DENTIST TAKES OWN LIFE

Mrs. Veronica Snethen Found Dead Near Open Gas Jet; Illness Blamed

Ill health is believed by relatives to have caused the suicide early yesterday morning of Mrs. Veronica Snethen, 45, wife of Dr. E. L. Snethen, dentist, 1913 Powell avenue.

The suicide was the third in the city in the past 10 days.

Dr. Snethen discovered his wife's body lying near an open gas burner in the basement of their home when he arose to determine the source of fumes which were filling the house.

Mrs. Snethen retired as usual Tuesday night, giving no indication of any unusual morbidness or despondency. It is not known at what hour she arose and went to the basement. In addition to the husband she is survived by her mother and two children, Merrill and Dorothy.

Funeral services will be held at the residence at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, members of the family announced last night. Burial will be made in Camp Ground cemetery.

Viola V. Herrell, 105, of Evansville, passed away Saturday, March 22, 2014 at Evansville Protestant Home. She was born June 29, 1908, in Evansville, to the late John L. and Emma B. (Wedeking) Herrmann. She was a graduate of the old Central High School downtown and obtained her teaching certificate at what was then Evansville College. She taught first and second grades at Stringtown Grade School until she married Orris Herrell. She was active in church at Old North Methodist Church and later at Aldersgate Methodist Church. She remained active in education and served as PTA President for two years when Stringtown and Highland schools were consolidated. This resulted in each grade having their own classroom instead of two grades sharing a teacher in the same classroom since each school had only four rooms. She was an avid game and card player, loved closeness of family, and never knew a stranger. She is best described as a kind and loving person who will be dearly missed.

Viola was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Orris; sister, Pauline Baker; brothers, John and Edwin Herrmann; and parents.

She is survived by her son, Dr. Michael (Helen) Herrell of Newburgh, IN; daughter, Patricia Hentze of Fort Worth, TX; grandchildren, Michele (Matt) Brookman, Dr. Jennifer Herrell, Elizabeth (Dr. Joe) Owens and Joe Hentze; and nine great-grandchildren.

Services will be 2:00 PM Sunday, March 30, 2014, at Alexander Memorial Park Heritage Chapel, officiated by Rev. Mitch Gieselmann, with burial in Alexander Memorial Park. Published in Courier Press on Mar. 27, 2014

Traffic Victim

Traffic claimed its thirty-eighth victim in Vanderburgh County this year at 12:59 a. m. Sunday with the death of John Carl Herrmann, 28, a partner in the Herrmann Dairy Company.

He died in Deaconess Hospital of injuries suffered at 12:15 a. m. in an accident at Stringtown and Mill Roads. Deputy Coroner E. H. Zell attributed death to a fractured skull and broken left shoulder.

Sheriff's Deputies Nichols and Sams said Mr. Herrmann was driving a car which collided with an auto driven by Virgil Witt, RR 7. Following the collision the Herrmann car crossed the road, sheared off a utility pole and overturned in a ditch, they reported.

Mr. Witt was only shaken up in the accident, the deputies said.

Mr. Herrmann and his brother, Edwin, operated Herrmann's Dairy, RR 8, Herrmann Road, since the retirement of their father, John L. Herrmann, in 1945. The business was founded by their grandfather, Frederick Herrmann.

The victim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Herrmann, were notified of the accident in Los Angeles, where they have been visiting a daughter, Mrs. Pauline Baker, for nearly a year. They sent word last night they were flying here immediately.

Mr. Herrmann attended the Evansville College basketball game Saturday night at the armory. He was returning home after taking a companion home.

Mr. Herrmann was a member of the Old North Methodist Church. He also was a member of the Shrine and its drum and bugle corps, the Scottish Rite, Reed Masonic Lodge and the Stringtown Men's Club.

Other survivors are: sister, Mrs. Viola Herrell, Evansville, two nieces and a nephew.

The body is in Johann Memorial Temple.

John Carl Herrmann, 28, partner in the Herrmann Dairy, rural route 8, was fatally injured in an automobile crash at 12:15 o'clock yesterday morning at the intersection of Stringtown and Mill roads.

His death was the 38th traffic fatality of the year in Vanderburgh county, 22 of which have been within the city limits.

Sheriff's Deputies Nichols and Sams said the Herrmann car collided with a vehicle driven by Virgil Witt, rural route 7, crossed the road, sheared off a utility pole, and turned over in a ditch.

Taken to Hospital

Mr. Herrmann was removed to Deaconess hospital where he died at 12:59 o'clock, about four minutes after entering the hospital. Deputy Coroner E. H. Zell said the victim suffered a fractured skull, and a broken left shoulder.

Mr. Witt, the deputies said, was shaken up in the crash, but uninjured. The coroner's investigation of the accident will be continued this morning.

Mr. Herrmann, with his brother, Edward, operated Herrmann's Dairy, rural route 8, Herrmann road. The business was founded by their grandfather, Frederick Herrmann, and was carried on by their father, John L. Herrmann, who retired in 1945 when the brothers took over the active management of the organization.

Mr. Herrmann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Herrmann, were in Los Angeles, Calif., when the accident occurred. They had been there for nearly a year with a daughter, Mrs. Pauline Baker. They had planned to return to Evansville in the spring, but when notified of the accident yesterday said they would fly here immediately. Members of the family last night said they were scheduled to arrive here this morning if they were not delayed enroute.

Had Attended Game

Mr. Herrmann had attended the Evansville college basketball game Saturday night at the armory, and was returning home after taking a companion to his residence.

Mr. Herrman was a member of the Old North Methodist church. He also was a member of the Shrine and its drum and bugle corps, the Scottish Rite, Reed Masonic lodge, and the Stringtown Men's club.

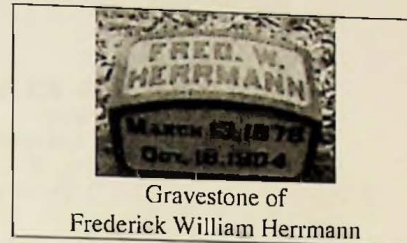

Other survivors are a sister, Mrs. Viola Herrell, of Evansville, and two nieces and two nephews.

The body is at the Johann memorial temple. Funeral arrangements are incomplete pending the arrival of the parents from California.

Gustave T. Herrmann, an Evansville native who was a school official, optometrist and coconut dealer in Manila, was dead on arrival at Deaconess Hospital yesterday at 1:35 p.m. He was 81.

Mr. Herrmann was taken to the hospital from 2813 Hillcrest, where he lived with his sister, Mrs. Fred Wedeking. He was ill since having a heart attack five weeks ago, his family said.

Mr. Herrmann went to Manila in 1904 and was a superintendent of public schools there for three years after attending Salina (Kans.) Normal School and teaching at the old Smith public rural school on Old Boonville Highway here.

He later worked as an optometrist and then as supervisor of several coconut plants before returning to spend the Christmas holidays in Evansville in 1941. World War II conditions prevented him from returning to Manila.

At the time of his death he was president of Philippine Dedicated Coconut Company, an international manufacturer of shredded coconut with headquarters in New York.

He was a member of Old North Methodist Church here, Salina (Kans.) Masonic Lodge No. 60, Philippine Islands Scottish Rite, Nile Shrine in Seattle, Wash., and Elks Lodge at Washington, Ind.

Surviving besides Mrs. Wedeking are another sister, Mrs. Charles F. Basler, Evansville; and nieces and nephews.

Funeral will be at Alexander Funeral Home-West Chapel Saturday at 1:30 p.m. The Rev. Robert Kessinger will officiate. Burial in Campground Cemetery.

Friends may call at the mortuary after 6 tonight.

Home Again After 15 Years, Man Leaves to See America

At 58, Gustave T. Herrmann is a veteran at this business of showing off for new horizons. (And if you're flustered with plans for a vacation trip this summer probably it will calm you down somewhat to meet Mr. Herrmann.)

He left Evansville at 21 to teach school in the Philippine Islands. That was in 1904. Since then his business has taken him into all parts of the Philippines; he has traveled into China, in the South Seas. In the Hawaiian Islands. He has been visiting at the home of a brother-in-law, Fred Wedeking, 2813 Hillcrest-tr.

But Sunday Mr. Herrmann left on another trip. And, comparatively speaking, he's rather excited about it, too. He's going to see America. With him is his nephew, Merrill Sneath, Bosse High School art instructor. They plan, first, to take in the New England states, then work westward.

Schoolroom to Coconuts

"It's somewhat of a see-America-last-but-see-it campaign for me," said Mr. Herrmann.

Mr. Herrmann taught school on the island of Luzon for about four years. Then he went into the optical business on the islands. In 1925 he came back to Evansville, determined to remain in the States. For a time he considered going into business in California.

But after two years he found he couldn't shake off the relentless urge to get back to the tropics, and when he had an opportunity to get into shredded coconut business back in the Philippines he grabbed it and held on.

Changes in America

He is enthusiastic about the Philippines, and about Filipinos. The vast majority of the native population, he says, feel a great friendship for the United States. There is a small pro-Japanese element among the natives but for the most part he believes that its importance has been overrated.

Has there been much change in the American way of thinking?

Mr. Herrmann believes there has been. In the first place, he said, the American people seem more aware of the world itself than they were 20 years ago.

However, recently he was dumfounded when a man asked: "The Philippines—why you're pretty close to Puerto Rico, aren't you?" In case your own face is red, Puerto Rico is half the world away from the Philippines.

He May Stay

Whether or not Japan and the U. S. go to war will depend in large measure on the outcome of the trade dispute between the Japanese and the Netherlands East Indies, Mr. Herrmann believes.

After he has seen America—"and I want to get a good look at it," he said—Mr. Herrmann will go back to the Philippines at the end of this year.
