Introduction

While researching the Descendants of George Helfert, I found references to Peter Helfert. I'm not sure how the two men were related. Both came from Hesse Darmstadt. Both applied for naturalization on the same day in Vanderburgh County Circuit Court in Indiana. Peter Helfert lived in Smith Township of Posey County, while George Helfert lived in Armstrong Township of Vanderburgh County.

Through my research, I reached out to numerous genealogists who have researched other families in Vanderburgh County, Indiana. They have shared their family databases with me. I acknowledge their research in the Sources: Leroy Kercher, Linda Weiss, George Rexing, Karen Scheller Harvey, Hans Hertling, Clem Weiss, Fr. David Nunning, Betty Wirth, Brian Lankford, Frank Hertel, Charles Koressel and Robert Koressel.

This book merely is a summary of my research, and is not meant to be an all-inclusive representation of the Helfert family. Other researchers are encouraged to use what I have assembled here and then continue with their research. Because of mistakes in newspaper articles, government documents and mistakes in my typing, there may be errors.

This family history report uses the legal outline numbering system and a generation prefix. It begins with one source person, Peter Helfert, and moves forward in time. This report includes their descendants (children, children's children, etc.) along with information about each descendant along the way.

Peter Helfert is assigned the number 1. His oldest child, Elizabeth is 1.1; his second child, Margaret is 1.2.

Each descendant in the family history report is assigned a legal outline number which symbolizes the descendant's relationship to the source couple. The number permits one see at a glance the relationships between people in the family history report. For example, the person number 1.2.3 means the third child of the second child of the source couple. The generation prefix, such as (2), is before the descendant's name and indicates the generation from the source couple. When there is a second marriage, the letters, "a" and "b", are used, where "a" represents the first marriage and "b" represents the second marriage.

Sources of information are listed at the end of the report and the connecting superscripts are given after the descendant's name. An index is also provided.

To those that use this book, I wish you success in your family genealogy search.

The Helfert Story

According to census records the Peter Helfert family was from Darmstadt, Hesse, Germany. No specific town was provided in the various census records; however, Birkenau, Hesse-Darmstadt, Germany is listed in a birth record for Peter Helfert by other researchers on Ancestry.com.

I searched for immigrations records of Peter. His two children (Elizabeth and Margaret) were born in Indiana. Peter immigrated before 1854. I did not locate the passenger ship lists for Peter Helfert.

I searched the naturalization records of Indiana and Vanderburgh County and did not find the name of Peter Helfert. However, a record for a Peter Helfer was located, with the same recording date as for George Helfer. Both Peter and George were from Hesse-Darmstadt.

The census records of 1870 and 1880 indicate that the Peter Helfert family lived in Indiana, Posey County, Smith Township. In the 1870 census, Prussia was listed as the birthplace, while in 1880 census, Hesse-Darmstadt was listed. Below are a map and a brief history of Hesse-Darmstadt, Germany. Maps of Smith Township in Posey County are provided in the book.

History:

Hesse-Darmstadt, (German Hessen-darmstadt), former landgraviate, grand duchy, and state of Germany. It was formed in 1567 in the division of old Hesse; after Hesse-Kassel was absorbed by Prussia in 1866, Hesse-Darmstadt was usually known simply as Hesse.

Hesse-Darmstadt was originally only the small territory of Upper Katzenelnbogen with Darmstadt, being situated in what is now the extreme southern portion of the present-day Land (state) of Hessen. But the landgraviate received significant accretions of territory during the 17th and 18th centuries, partly owing to its steadfast loyalty to the Habsburg Holy Roman emperors. Hesse-Darmstadt entered Napoleon's Confederation of the Rhine in 1806 and was consequently raised to the status of a grand duchy in that year. Hesse-Darmstadt joined the allies in 1813 and entered the German Confederation in 1815.

The Congress of Vienna ceded some of Hesse-Darmstadt's lands to Prussia and Bavaria but in compensation gave the duchy, among other territories, a district on the west bank of the Rhine containing the important cities of Mainz and Worms. The grand duke Louis I (reigned 1768–1830) granted Hesse-Darmstadt a constitution in 1820, carried it through other reforms, and made the grand duchy the first of the southern German states to join the Prussian Zollverein (Customs Union). Hesse-Darmstadt thereafter oscillated between liberalism and conservatism. The duchy sided with the Austrians in the Seven Weeks' War (1866) and consequently lost its territory north of the Main River to the Prussian-sponsored North German Confederation. But when the German empire was founded in 1871, Hesse-Darmstadt became one of its constituent states.

Following the abdication of the last grand duke, Ernest Louis, in 1918, Hesse became a republic and one of the constituent states of the Weimar Republic of postwar Germany. In 1945 the territory east of the Rhine was in the U.S. occupation zone and became part of the Land of Greater Hesse (later called simply Hessen), while the rest became part of the Land of Rhineland-Palatinate. Map of Smith Township, Posey County, Indiana

At the 2000 census, its population was 1,292. Smith Township was organized in 1817. The township was named for George Smith, a pioneer settler. Cynthiana is the largest town in this township. Cynthiana was named for Cynthiana, Kentucky, from whence on September 25, 1815, a group of 44 settlers had come. More settlers from the same area continued to migrate to the area over the following several years. On March 6, 1817, the town was laid out by William Davis, with the plat being recorded on March 17, 1817. It was not until April 22, 1896, that the town incorporated. !!

Brigitte Starlene (Gadau) Kissel, age 48, of Evansville, passed away at her home on Tuesday, November 29, 2016. Brigitte had worked as a direct support professional and caregiver at ResCare and was also a homemaker. She loved her children and grandchildren immensely. One of her favorite quotes read, "Mothers are like cathedral builders. These builders gave their whole lives for a work they would never see finished. No one knows who built the great cathedrals but one day the world will marvel at what was built." A mother's work may seem invisible to other people, but God sees.

Surviving Brigitte are her husband of 16 years, Matthew Kissel; a daughter, Samantha (Ryan) Hoefling and son, Mackenzie Kissel, and her mother and stepfather, Darlene and Anthony Tosti, all of Evansville; two brothers, Brett (Shannon) Gadau of Lynnville, IN and Bart (Itzuri) Gadau of Evansville; grandchildren, Landun Smith, Paige Hoefling, Liam Hoefling and Alice Hoefling; nieces, Madison Gadau and McKenna Gadau and nephews, Andrew Gadau, Mason Hart and Max Gadau.

Brigitte was preceded in death by her father, James Gadau.

Funeral services for Brigitte will be held at 4:00 P.M. on Sunday, December 4, 2016 at Pierre Funeral Home, Rev. Phil Kreilein officiating. Burial of her cremated remains will take place at 1:00 P.M. on Monday at Oak Hill Cemetery. Published in Courier Press on Dec. 2, 2016
