WPA Supervised Kitchen To Supply Hot Meals To Students At Noon Hour

Project Made Possible Through Efforts of PTA

After eight months of co-ordinate work on the part of the Third Avenue PTA under the leadership of Mrs. Charles Edwards, a dream has been realized through the co-operation of the Township Trustee, School Board and the Federal Commodity Agent; the establishing of a WPA Kitchen at the Third Avenue School. This kitchen is a part of an established health program at the school that was suggested by Mrs. John Vishner and Mrs. Curtis Muschlitz, head of the Women Projects. The primary purpose of the project is to provide hot noonday lunches for all children of the school. Mrs. Edwards stated that the lunches will be well balanced and will curtail to a great degree the many absences on the part of students which were traceable directly to stomach disorders caused by the lack of proper vitamins in the meals. Before the kitchen and cafeteria were approved the students were being served reasonably priced meals twice a week; Tuesdays and Fridays, but before this there were no available means by which the children could obtain hot meals.

DIETITIAN TO HEAD KITCHEN

Mrs. Bailey, student of Purdue University will head this department with Miss Elnora Powell as her co-worker and several NYA workers will aid these two ladies in the preparation of the food. Mrs. Bailey is an experienced dietitian and at one time served as cook at the nursery school. There will be no charges for the meals. This is the very first WPA Kitchen in the city.

My Life In Wadeville CCC Camp

By SERGEANT HOOPER

It is at this time that I wish to extend my appreciation to those responsible for my attachment to the American Government's fastest developing and highest approved organization under the present Nat'l Government.

*Mr. C. E. Rochelle and Dr. A. H. Wilson.

MY VOW TO PROGRESS

We enter the third week of the Camp Life of a CCC Enrollee, who has for four years and two months shared the invigorating and educational outdoor and CCC Administration life.

Placing the time of acquiring the somewhat unusual caption for this chapter at about September, 1936, I recall conversing with Elijah Brown of Gary, Ind., on the subject, Leadership.

At the time of meeting Sgt. Brown as an enrollee, transferred from Company 542, Bloomington, Ind., in October, 1935. Brown has a knowledge of field work, to my estimation, and obviously to the opinion of his superiors, that would qualify him for a job as a Senior Foreman of Labors.

that Sgt. Brown had the same intention, but, he chose a different method.

At this time I was a member of Mr. Paul E. Dill's Detail, under the Leadership of Sgt. Ezra Smith. Mr. Dill was a young and ambitious Foreman.

His rush method of doing things was met with resentment and unmethodical labor. Ezra Smith, an easy going Leader, was always forced to the back because of his lack of knowledge of the work.

Most evenings after work Brown and I would discuss the days progress and our plans for the next day. As a member of the class in journalism I began to write articles in the camp paper on camp activity and my opinion of what an enrollee should and should not do.

One officer said; "I am glad you take such interest in the Company, Hooper, I hope you continue your articles." Remembering part of my conception of how I must progress, you may with persuasion tactfully given remember that I said; "paired will aid one in the average climb." This officer was persuaded as to the interest I had in the company, he was also one who shared in the control of my objective.

In January, 1937, I had my first set back. It was at this time that Mr. Dill was going to rate an Assistant Leader. Brown and I were aware of a possible third man, we being the first two. It became obvious to both of us that Mr. Dill avoided coming in contact with us.

He also told me that I would receive a rating within the coming six months. This set off the quickest and most destructive movement that I believe Mr. Dill experienced during his Foremanship.

For three months after leaving the field, I became a member of the Army Overhead. I continued to write articles for the camp publication. I received many compliments from Fort Hayes, Columbus, Ohio, on some of my articles.

For 2 years hundreds of boys passed under the Leadership of Assistant Leader, or Sergeant Hooper. From day to day I worked to improve my method of Leadership.

As I glance back at the road I traveled, and think of the people I met while in this great system of Conservation, I believe that I have done my best. In August of this year I received a letter from the Executive Branch of the Soil Conservation Service stating that I had qualified for a position as a Senior Foreman of Labors.

President and Lovely Wife Hold Faculty Reception

ALBANY, Ga.—One of the most colorful and elaborate affairs ever given on the campus of Georgia Normal College was witnessed Saturday night, October 14, when Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Holley, the president and his wife of the college, received the members of the faculty of the institution in their lovely home from 8 p. m. to 10 p. m.

The guests, when they arrived, were greeted by Mrs. A. W. Williams who was attired in beautiful pink lace. They in turn were presented to Dr. and Mrs. Holley. Those receiving with the president and wife were Director of Instruction and Mrs. K. H. Meade, principal of the high school, Prof. A. W. Wright and wife; and Mrs. Bessie M. Henderson, director of the laboratory school.

Mrs. Holley wore a beautiful figured chiffon gown with a bolero coat caught at the neck with a platinum brooch with three lovely diamonds, a gift from her husband. To match she wore lovely slippers of rose. Her flower was a pink and white chrysanthemum at the neck.

Mrs. Kenneth H. Meade was attired in a black, Grecian model gown with long pearls and matching earrings. Her corsage was of pink tea roses.

Mrs. Fossie Henderson wore a lovely gown of cerise moire taffeta with a back bustle with accessories to match. Her corsage was of split white carnations.

Mrs. A. W. Wright was attired in a beautiful orchid taffeta gown with an attractive bustle back. The bustle was caught with a large antique pin of rare brilliance. Attractive necklace and earrings of old gold completed her accessories.

The guests enjoyed bridge until the call was made for supper. They were then ushered into the dining room where Mrs. L. F. Wiley, attired in a beautiful black crepe gown, poured coffee, and Mrs. Iliff Davis, in beautiful beige chiffon and lace, presided over the salad bowl.

The center of the table were yellow and orchid roses and cosmos with tapers forming a circle around the flowers. Canapes of yellow and green, chicken salad, pickles, olives and coffee were served. Charlotte Rousseau was the dessert topped with green cherries.

The guests included members of the faculty:

Mr. and Mrs. W. Kelley, Mr. Misses Cordelia Blount, Sylvia Edwards, Dorothy Reeves, Henri Avent, Narcissus Nichols, Jessie Perkins, Winifred Luffborough, Cora Lucas, Dorothy Harper and L. Louise Northington, Coraese Eaton and Lulu M. Cropper. Mesdames Dorothy Apple, Quintilla Glascoe, Odessa Hamilton, W. Gray, Messrs. Dugas, Archer, Stratton, Twittie, Sloan, Coleman, King and Jackson.

Friday night, Oct. 13, the Douglass High School Bisons met the West Kentucky Vocational School on the Henderson gridiron. The weather was ideal for a football game, but somehow, the Bisons were not able to stop the onward surge of the McCracken County lads, and were defeated by a score of 34-0.
Thursday night, the Douglass High-Y boys sponsored a benefit social in the Douglass High School Gymn. The funds are to be used to send delegates to the Older Boys Conference held in Paducah, Oct. 27-28-29.
In spite of four consecutive defeats this season, the Bisons

MAGNA—By Zona Gale
To choose between a love that is peaceful and warm and one that is mad and frenzied is the problem that faces Magna, who falls in love with two men. As the story opens she is in love with Bolu Marks, a young doctor, and together they are looking forward to a happy married life. Suddenly, Alec Pethner, Magna's cousin, comes into her life and she is swept off her feet by his romantic charm and appeal. The final outcome of the conflict in Magna's mind over her two loves is resolved by Miss Gale with mastery skill.
NEBRASKA — By Clyde Brion Davis

Against the background of Nebraska and the stirring days of the '60s the Macdougalls build their hopes upon the future of the steam wagon. Fortuitously settled on the route of the freight lines to the West, the family prospers, and the town of Macdougall, Nebraska, grows up around them. When the steam wagon reaches its fate as a pile of rusting junk in a ditch by the roadside, the Macdougalls find themselves numbered among the successful pioneers of the western empire, not because of their heroism or industry, but because chance laid success in their laps.

STRANGE VICTORY—By Frank Meloney
The virtue of not knowing when she is beaten is the inheritance that Paige Griswold gets from her ship-owning father. When the story opens, marriage with George Hastings seems the easiest way out. But she doesn't love George, and she decides upon one last fight for independence. A job is essential, and somewhat to her surprise she finds herself entering the Long Island home of Michael Herron with a Patou gown in her suitcase and nothing in her purse, determined to make good as governess to thirteen-year-old Erica. Young Erica feels the world to be an unfriendly place. Now, her mother had been killed in a car accident and Michael Herron's driving had been responsible. It happens that Michael Herron is her guardian now. Paige with the aid of a bounding wolfhound pup and patient understanding, wins the child's confidence and together they rebuild her world. How intend to fight to the finish, Friday night, Oct. 27, they will venture to Paducah Ky., where they will match wits with Lincoln High's eleven of that city.

Coach L. D. Jones was indisposed two days this week and was not able to be on the job. Mrs. Lena Settles was called to substitute.
Miss Beulah Hatchett, a Senior and president of the Athletic Association, has returned to school after a brief illness.

this is done, how Paige discovers herself alarmingly in love with Michael, and how life refuses to be simple for Erica, Paige, and Michael is told in this story that speeds to an exciting finish.

Mt. Olive Galilee Baptist Church is conducting a revival with Rev. Mose Hester officiating. Rev. Ben Jones is the pastor and Josephine Gray is reporter. Sister Anna Belle McNeal is conducting a special prayer meeting every Tuesday and Thursday morning in different homes.
The Unit Club of Little Hope Baptist Church held its fall banquet at the home of Rev. and Sister Robinson, 766 S. Governor street, Monday evening with the following out-of-town guests present—Miss Warfield of Corydon, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Newburgh, Ind., and Miss Ivory Givens of Evansville. They were entertained with a three course dinner which was enjoyed by all.
The St. John Methodist Church located at the corner of Evans and Cheery streets will sponsor a public Hallowe'en Social Saturday, October 28 at 7:30 p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend and enjoy an evening of fun. There will be many events of an interesting nature that will include a fishing pond and many other interesting games. Refreshments and sandwiches will be served. Prizes will be awarded to the three tackiest costumes. This evening is fun and FREE for all. Rev. I. C. Smith is pastor and Mrs. Margaret Tate is chairman.
The Missionary Society of Liberty Baptist Church will sponsor a Paw Rally Sunday, October 29, at 3 p. m., at the church at which time Rev. J. W. Caldwell will deliver the sermon with musical numbers by the choir. Everyone is cordially invited. Rev. L. S. Smith is the pastor.
The St. James Sunday School was opened by Sister Stewart about ten o'clock on last Sunday with a large number of persons attending. Reverend W. M. Moore, our pastor, delivered a very inspirational message at the morning and evening services. Miss Augustine Jennings is the reporter.
Rev. D. C. Weaver, the editor of this column is spending a few weeks in Terre Haute, Ind., where he is engaged in ecclesiastical work.

held in April, Negroes took an active part in each of the four section meetings following the opening session.
Race May Get 15 Girl Flyers
WASHINGTON, (ANP) — If the plans of the Civil Aeronautic authority follow the blue prints laid down for operation, there will be about 15 young women of color in this United States around about June who will have to their credit about 35 hours of actual flying, and who from then on will proceed to make life completely unbearable for some unsuspecting male.
Under the administration plans, 10 percent of the students is the quota allowed ambitious females. With five schools named for the courses, and approximately 30 students allowed for each school, this means that 27 males will be tormented by three querulous, garrulous girls. And the sum total will be 15.
Armed with parachute and powderpuff, these valiants will clamber into the cockpit of some plane and before the instructor can catch his breath, there will be a succession of "oohs," "ahs" and shrieks which beggar description and defy spelling.
And will that instructor be an unhappy person for the first part of the flight! But that won't be anything to what he will be when they start downward and make a hoped for three point landing.

DERBYVILLE

SHE'S THE QUEEN OF DERBYVILLE
Lovely Elder Steger is the Merry Makers' Queen and the Queen of Derbyville far as that swell bunch of young men is concerned. Helen Morpin and Jacquella Jetton were runners up for second honors.

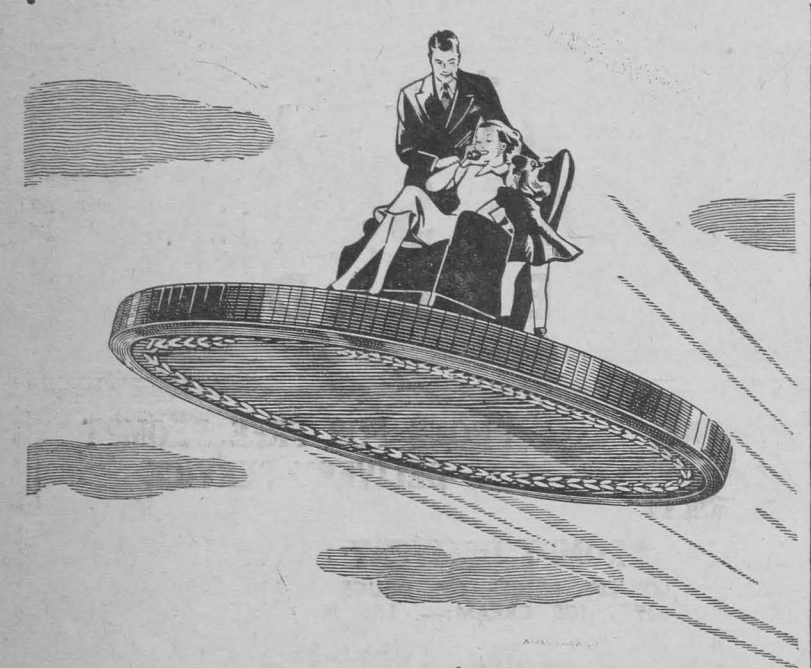

ALL'S FAIR IN LOVE
Charley seems to have lost his hold on cute Dot and George, the lad who really snags the passes for the Lions seems to be the man of the hour. They say that Geo. was the main stay ere Charley made his debut.

I PICKED THIS UP
Joey and Thelma—Stapp and Arnetta don't seem to be the lovely couples that they once were. Katie is in town. She blew in from Clarksville very much the lovely lady that she always has been. But what of the romance 'tween she and Dick? It does seem that Joanna is the current heart beat there. They (Joanna and Katie) were friends ere she departed for the south. Wonder how everything stacks up now? The Carl Blues are not between friends.

Dept. of Justice On Night Riders Trial In S. C.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Two violent outbreaks of Ku Klux Klan activity in South Carolina, in which Negro citizens suffered brutal treatment at the hands of the night riders, are under investigation by the United States Department of Justice, according to a statement made to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, by Assistant Attorney General O. John Rogge. The attacks against Negro citizens occurred in Simpsonville and Fountain Inn, South Carolina. In the latter town the Klan attempted to intimidate Negro boys and girls at a National Administration camp.

All the towns in Western states boast of having more tuxedos than their neighbors. In discussing each other's faults, candor is never a good thing between friends.

"what they used to be" . . . and they were such a lovely couple, too. Do hope that they will soon patch things up. Adcock and Al-treas in so were watching the Lincoln-Summer game together. Mary Ellen and Bert were watching the Memorial football game together the other dark. THIS IS ABOUT THE MERRYMAKERS

Our own "Dare" section is heading a mean game ball that really swings up to the clouds way. This boy Carl really has the stuff and we should not let him slip in a big way. We are also proud of the fact that we have a lot of good people who are really doing their part for the community. We are proud of them and we hope they will continue to do so.

That Cecelia and Denwiddle that very sporty young man who came into the city like gang busters from "ducah, make a swell couple. Henry had to take a back seat when that gentleman blew into the city Satday dark. You have our sympathy "jill" dock. Lovely Delores is back and is she looking mellow. She asserts that the kid from up Naptown way rates sky high with her. Their affair was a nite and day one. Ain't love grand? That Pete really stole the show at the game Satday dark as all eyes were on him as he strolled in with that very fly queen. They were attired in the very latest sport togs and were really sharp. If you had to dig John Kirby and his smallest big orchestra in the world over the ether waves, you sure miss treats of a huge nature. I'LL BE THERE, TOO . . . WILL YOU?

I refer to you several persons who were sipping a wee bit last Hallowe'en in one of the Ave's popular taverns. Didn't think that the Op recognized you in your masks but you are sadly mistaken. I'll be watching Tuesday dark and just for the fun of it, see if I can recognize all of you. I recognized all but one last year. I know that you fens wished that the "masked day" came a bit oftener so that you could come in and be seated minus the stares, etc. IT WAS A HONEY

I refer to that write-up as was inserted in the regular Aisle Seat column found in the Sunday issue of the Courier-Press. Ed Klinger really gave James Roache a much merited boast for his activities in the musical world. He spoke very highly of the Jericho Singers as well as the musical ability of James. If possible, dig Sunday, October 22, issue of the Courier-Press and turn to his column in the theatrical section. (THE AISLE SEAT). IT WILL BE "JUST MY SIZE"

Here's the dope that reaches you from Bralock, the up and coming young man from up Naptown way who is trying to put the wonderful game of bowling on Derbyville's map — The Jensen's Juniors with a score of 312 to 287 for the Jensen's Seniors—were the final tallies of the day. John Bralock was the star of the game when he chalked up a total of 166 points. Sam Brooks another teammate had a total of 129 and James Ricketts, 117. For the Seniors H. Johnson polled 133 points while A. Tandy had 105 and Bailey, 149.

—sports— Here's "Bob" Lambert's dope. . . he's our recreation leader . . . The Community Workshop is now opened and everyone is extended an invitation to come into the shop located in Building No. 4 of the Lincoln Gardens just a few steps north of Lincoln avenue on the east drive way. The shop was installed by our own recreation workers and is on par with the shops being put up for the other race in the Community Center at First avenue and Franklin streets. The shop has been inspected and approved by the Superintendent of Recreation in Vanderburgh county. Monday, October 23rd, clubs began work on various projects with John Polk and Edward Smith making serving trays which are near completion. Damon Riley was the first to complete an article in our shop. He started and finished the article on Monday afternoon. A number of boys between the ages of 12 and 15 are making door stops as their first project. The lumber for those stops was donated by the recreation staff. Each of these boys has another article that he desires to make but the lumber for this article will have to be purchased by the boy himself.

After the bag punching exhibition a heart tournament was run off with several clubs represented by expert card players. John Polk was awarded the first prize with an average of 1 13-15 for the hand count per hand. Paul Jackson was second with a score of 2 5-16 hearts per hand and A. G. Jackson received the booby prize with a 6 9-16 point.

Culver Scores Twice To Thrill 1200 Cheering Fans

Barbry and Jones Standout For Lions
By LESLIE SANDERS

Lincoln 8—Sumner 6.

Several plays later, Turpin, who replaced G. Barrett at the halfback post and co-pilot of the steam roller, led the Lions on another march; this time for 40 yards aided and abetted by Keel and Bethel, who helped the Lions advance to the 15-yd. stripe. Turpin flipped a pass good for 7 yards into the waiting arms of George Culver who stepped the remaining distance for a touchdown. Killibrew plunged for the extra point.

Lincoln 15—Sumner 6

Both teams threatened to score in the third quarter. Keel, Turpin and Barrett carried the ball to the 25-yard stripe where St. Louis recovered a fumble by G. Barrett. Harris and Sharpe then took the ball and advanced to the Lions' 30-yard stripe where Harris fumbled and the Lions recovered. A pass, Turpin to Barrett, was good for 45 yards where a series of plunges by Bethel and Barrett placed the ball on the 11-yard line of the visitors. Two attempted passes to Culver and Keel fell short of their goal. Barrett then plunged for six yards and at this point a place kick fell short of the crossbar.

In the fourth stanza Suggs intercepted a Lions' pass and Harris, aided by some fancy pigskin "toting" on the part of his running mates, advanced the ball down the field 36 yards to the Lions' 29-yard stripe. On the next play Sharpe ran to his right for several yards, and then reversed the field and outran the Lincoln gridders to score a 20-yard touchdown. They failed to make the extra point.

Lincoln 15—Sumner 12

The final minutes of the game found Keel intercepting a pass on the 6-yard line and Barrett carrying the ball to the 18-inch line where his team was penalized 15 yards. The game ended at this stage of the game with the ball in the possession of the St. Louis team.

Hubert Barbry and Jones were the outstanding linemen for Lincoln while Turpin was a very outstanding back. Captain Harris of the St. Louis crew was a constant threat to the Purple and Gold warriors. Sumner outdowned Lincoln 10 to 7. Lincoln attempted 13 passes and

Georgia Normal College 'Rams' Swamp Baptist College In Opening 1939 Football Campaign

Game Played In Downpour of Rain

ALBANY, Ga.—In a steady downpour of rain, backed by an enthusiastic student body and many spectators that braved the weather to witness the initial game of the 1939 edition of Georgia Normal College, the G.N.C. Rams ran rough-over the Georgia Baptist Bears of Macon on the College gridiron on last Friday. It was the thirteenth but there was no evidence of ill-omen in the fine team work of the A, B, and C, squads that Coaches Kelley and Coleman paraded before the astonished eyes of the awed spectators as the Rams proceeded from the kick-off to give an exhibition of running, and dazzling deception that was beautiful to look at. On the second play after the kick-off, behind perfect interference and blocking down field, Blaylock, fleet-footed right half of the Rams, romped down the field across the goal for Georgia Normal College's first marker. A short time afterward Driskell, the Rams right half raced for forty yds. upon receiving a punt through the entire Georgia Baptist team for the second tally. From this point on the spectators were given an exhibition of line charging and blocking, pass interception, broken field running, and end skirts that netted the Rams a total of seven touchdowns and four points after touchdowns. Three teams saw action during the afternoon, and it was hard to tell which of the first two were most effective.

The starting lineup for the Georgia Normal Rams was as follows: Harper—R.E.; Gideon—L. T.; White—L.G.; Caldwell—C.; Aaron—R. C.; Irons—R. T.; Bryant—R.E.; Reid—Q.B.; Lawson—F.B.; Blaylock—R.H.; Driskell—L.H.

TOUCHDOWNS: Blaylock — 1; Driskell — 1; Saxon — 2; Chestnut — 1; Reid — 1; and Bryant 1.

Extra Points: Lawson — 2; Hardwick — 1; and Driskell — 1.

Director of Athletics of the College, James E. Stratten, looks forward to a great year from the squad. The actual strength of the team will be given its test with the oncoming three games which will be played on Georgia Normal Home grounds: Georgia Normal College vs. Fla. Normal—October 20; Georgia Normal College vs. Bethune-Cookman—October 27; Georgia Normal College vs. Alabama and leading the ball carrier for long runs.

Not far behind Bentley was his running mate, Harold "Tuffy" McClain, who played a whale of a guard in the last half by stopping the ball carrier for repeated losses and defending mightily for the passer.

Outstanding subs in this game, who will be seen often in remaining games of the season, were: Kennedy—a fast coming guard; Nevett and Harlan—two quick stepping backs; Pillar and Hudson—two rugged tackles; Bryant, a blocking back, who suffered an injury in the Pearl High game; D. Gordon, a seasoned performer, who has returned from Chicago to take his old position as End. Other subs were: L. Smith, R. Smith, and McKissack.

Coach Horace Porter and Manager Edward Kimes have the Bull-Dogs in fine shape for the College Hill vs Gallatin game to be played Thursday night, October 19, in Pillar Park at Columbia.

College Hill Bulldogs Score Again, 13 -- 6

COLUMBIA, Tenn.—(Special to Argus)—An exciting game, by two alert and determined football teams, ended Thursday night with the College Hill High School Bulldogs defeating Gallatin High by a score of 13-6.

When the game was but a few minutes old, Edwards, Columbia's Great Back, had received the ball on his own 20-yard-line to plunge through a strong line of men to Gallatin's 40-yard-line, where he was finally run out of bounds. Grim fighting moved the ball to Gallatin's 20-yard line, giving Horne a chance to make the first touchdown of the game. Jordan made the extra point by a line plunge. Gallatin was unable to score during the first half of the game; thus, giving the Bulldogs a lead of 7-0.

In the third quarter of the second half, Captain Patterson and Jordan, Columbia's half-back, and quarterback, respectively, alternated in carrying the ball. From Gallatin's 2-yard line, Edwards made the final touchdown for the Bulldogs.

In the final quarter, the Gallatin team began to warm up, making five completed passes in succession. Vertrees, Gallatin's strong full-back, carried the ball over Columbia's 2-yard line for a touchdown. The extra point failed. Neither team was able to score again before the game ended.

The line-up for both teams follows:

Lions Out To Avenge Last Year's Defeat At Hands of Ky.

Coach Niles' Purple and Gold warriors will take the field tonight at 8 o'clock in an attempt to upset the dope bucket by tripping a large and strong team from Franklin, Kentucky. The team comes to Evansville after successfully whipping the highly touted Central Hi School warriors of Louisville—13—12 in a game week before last and depositers give the Kentucky team the edge over the locals. The visitors swamped the Lions last year in Ky. to the tune of 12-0 but chief as they made valiant attempts to score for the first Conference game of the season.

The first touchdown was made during the first half of the game. The other two scores were made in the last half, with extra points by Horne and Edwards on line backs. Edwards, College Hill Great Back, ran, kicked, and threw passes into the receiving arms of Hogan, Alderson, Horne Patterson, and Jordan. Alderson and Hogan did not fail to go over the goal lines, after receiving these beautiful passes.

Douglas Horne, a shifty back, put on a show for the fans by eluding would-be tacklers all evening, making repeated gains on off tackle and end runs. The stonewall blocking of Captain Patterson was the feature of sustaining drives by the Bull-Dogs when the last two touchdowns were scored. In many instances, he cleared the way for Horne, Jordan, and Edwards.

The "Seven Iron Men" continued to play the type of football that makes opposing backs cry. Redding and W. Mitchell, two stellar tackles, smashed play after play. They were poison to the Lewisburg backs, C. Evans, the answer to a coach's prayer, continued his fine play from the center position. He knocked down passes, diagnosed plays, and backed the line like a veteran.

College Hill should be proud to boast of a guard like "Silent Bentley" who has What It Takes and is always a stalwart in the line. This year, he has come into his own in pulling out of the line

AN EDUCATOR RETIRES AT EVANSVILLE
After forty-six years of faithful services in the education and best interest of the youth of Evansville, Miss Fannie E. Snow, elementary school teacher of that city, has retired.

There must have been many times when Miss Snow might well have spent the time she devoted to her pupils in pursuits more selfishly; apparently, however, this fact never occurred to her and the teacher's energies and fine philosophy were generously given to the community.

In this day, when it is heard on every hand that one must be ruthless merely to get the bare necessities of life, and strict selfishness and any method of "getting there" are rationalized and justified, the story of selfless service in the interest of others is a refreshing thing, inspirational and reminding that all the world has not gone mad with materialism and grasping.

Let all Indiana, then, turn its eyes to Evansville, to this fine woman who has given proper foundation and right perspective to youngsters and the community at large. Pay tribute to one who served forty-six long years—during which time she has seen the tomorrow become today and her former pupils grow to fine citizenship and glorify her work of yesterday. These forty-six years of generous contribution will live forever in the lives and characters of those she influenced. She has well earned retirement and may she realize with simple satisfaction that hers has been work beyond the ordinary and may knowledge of her fine service mellow the many years we hope lie before her.

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL JUNIOR TUBERCULOSIS AUXILIARY INTERESTED IN HEALTH OF LINCOLN STUDENTS

The Junior Tuberculosis Auxiliary was recognized under the supreme supervision of our school nurse, Miss Jaxon.

The presiding officers are: president, Bernice Matthews; vice-president, Jeanne Niles; secretary, Marguerite Davis; assistant secretary, Gloria Thompson; treasurer, Marshall Tyler.

The Auxiliary started with an enrollment of 18 members.

The general purpose of the Auxiliary is to assist the Senior Auxiliary and to encourage the promotion of health about its surroundings.

At Tuesday's club meeting, the N.A.C.G.'s manifested great interest in the work hour. Miss Nance and Catherine Carey, recreation workers from the Phyllis Wheatley house, volunteered their services to teach the club handicraft. Each girl started to making mats on small looms. The entire club of 30 members enjoyed a weiner roast at Mrs. Stewart's home at E. C. A. period Thursday.

The General Custodian Class meets at Central High School every Monday night, and is attended by Mr. William Millsap and Mr. Frank Johnson. They find it very interesting and a lot of benefit. It helps the custodian in his daily task, makes him more efficient and economically fit for his job. Mr. Higgins is head custodian and engineer. All of the custodians in the city's public schools are looking forward to the banquet in December which some of the school board members will attend.

Scouts of Troop 14 are expecting to play a fine part as scouts this year; we are going to start off by helping the Goodwill Goodturn. Mr. Stevenson from Kansas City, Kan., is acting as assistant scoutmaster and he has had experience in leading scouts in Kansas City.

We have also elected patrols and patrol leaders. They are as follows: Aaron Coleman, Cleo Washington, Mr. Stevenson and Mr. Fields.

We have also elected a few other officers—Harry Cobb, scribe; Mr. Fields, treasurer.

The Craftsman Club will give a Hallowe'en Social for its members Tuesday, October 31. The hours are from 4 'til 6. The music will be furnished by the WPA band.

The social committee is composed of Bobbie Winston, chairman, who will decide the activities for the evening. Each member will invite her guest. There will be games and dancing. Prizes will be awarded to the winners.

LINCOLN ELEMENTARY

The boys and girls in the Jr. 1-B room received a new baby doll which they named Shirley. Rita Mae Vaughn has entered this room from Pennsylvania. The children in this room and Miss Morpin's room enjoyed the weiner roast at Mesker Park Friday. Parents assisting were: Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Grey and Mrs. Jones.

The 1-A's and 2-B's enjoyed the excursion to the zoo. The animals were fed during their visit.

The 2-B's in Mrs. Tidington's room have been 100% for the week. Mozetta Hocker, Matilda Vance, Elizabeth Mockobe, Russel Wilford, Esther Morse, Nathaniel Riley, Thomas Baker, Frances Duncan, Pandora Patterson, Audrey Stewart, Zoetta Williams, Mary Ryder, Georgeanna Williams, Eunice and Eleanor Landers are doing outstanding work in arithmetic. We are studying the picture, "The Pastry Eaters," by Muilla. We have learned the picture, "The Boy With The Rabbit" by Henry Raeburn. We like to read the artist's lives and learn why they painted the different pictures. We will visit the L & N Station next week. We are all ready for the trip. We enjoy using water colors and coloring the leaves on the trees. We have a large airplane in our room.

The second grade children in Miss Gracey's room are making pumpkins, false faces, witches and owls for the Hallowe'en party. Each child will make his own false face. The following boys and girls have been selected as junior leaders in our room for one week: Donald Ricketts, Kurnie Sanders, George Springer, John Dulin, Joseph McElroy, Louise Brudy. The two B's and two A's are in a contest to see which one will be one hundred per cent in getting Library cards and books from Cherry St. Library.

There is also a contest between individuals of these classes to see which one will read the largest number of books. The contest will last four weeks. The winner will be given a book. These boys and girls have had perfect number papers since September 1st: Kurnie Sanders, Charles Christine, MayLeen Kendrick and John Shane. The news reporters in this room are James Hicks, Donald Ricketts, Alice Pett, George Buckner, Sarah Kivel, Ruth Henderson. New games played this week are Charlie Ove The Ocean, Black Tom. New songs, I Had A Little Doggie and Rags. Edward Hall and Samuel Carter had a birthday. The children sang Happy Birthday and wished them many more happy birthdays.

The pupils of the Special Education room are working out a unit on transportation. They have brought in many interesting pictures and have made many models of different modes of transportation. The following were neither tardy nor absent during the first five weeks: James Clark, Vernon Francis, Samuel Gamble, Oneal Gamble, James McClure, Lawrence Merritt, Joe Lee Vaughn, Flossie Wilson and Abram Cheatom.

The children in Miss Adams' room who have never been absent or tardy are: Melvin Brooks, Anna Mary Duncan, Mary Ann Robinson, Jacqueline Taylor, Mary Ann Jackson, Robert Merritt, Joyce Moorman, Anna Mae Nelson, Betty Jean Redd, Dorothy Ricketts, William Stubblefield, Jacques Thompson, Cordelia Brodie, Eugene Byrd, Lorraine Cosby, Gardner Fields, Donald Howard, Opal Knowles, Mary Roberts, Delores Smith and Nancy Lovelace.

The home room has been organized into a home room club with the following officers elected: Pres., Cordelia Brodie; Vice-Pres, Irma Killebrew; Secy., Marv Roberts; Asst. Secy., Mary Ann Robinson; Treas, Anna Mary Duncan; Reporter, Freda Carson, and Advisor, Miss Adams. The

THE LINCOLN UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL ISSUE
The U. S. Supreme Court and the Missouri Supreme Court have both held that the State of Missouri most either admit Gaines to the University of Missouri Law School or establish one for him that is substantially as good. This ruling is applicable to any Negro resident of the state and to all graduate work offered at the University of Missouri. It may be a fact that the Lincoln University Law School meets the minimum requirements of class slogan is: "Every Day On Time Will Make Our Attendance Good And Fine. We Don't Want To Be Behind In This Elementary Line."

The Lincoln Elementary grades are going to publish a paper six times a semester. It will be about their grades and activities during their daily life at school. It will be distributed to all pupils of the elementary grades and their parents. The Boy Scouts of Troop 15 had a weiner roast Thursday. The boys all went to Newburgh. ing to gild the noonday sun. His coming again is mentioned more than three hundred times. Paul alone in his Epistles refers to it at least fifty times and each time you sit at the Lord's Table you do show forth His death until He comes.

It is indeed an unthinking person who cannot see in the past events happening daily around us the harbingers of some momentous event. To the student of the Bible they are no mystery Christ himself, speaking of the signs of His Second Presence said, "when ye shall see these things, know that it is near, even at the door." He added the solemn warning, "watch therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come," emphasizing it still further with these words, "Be ye also ready; for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh."

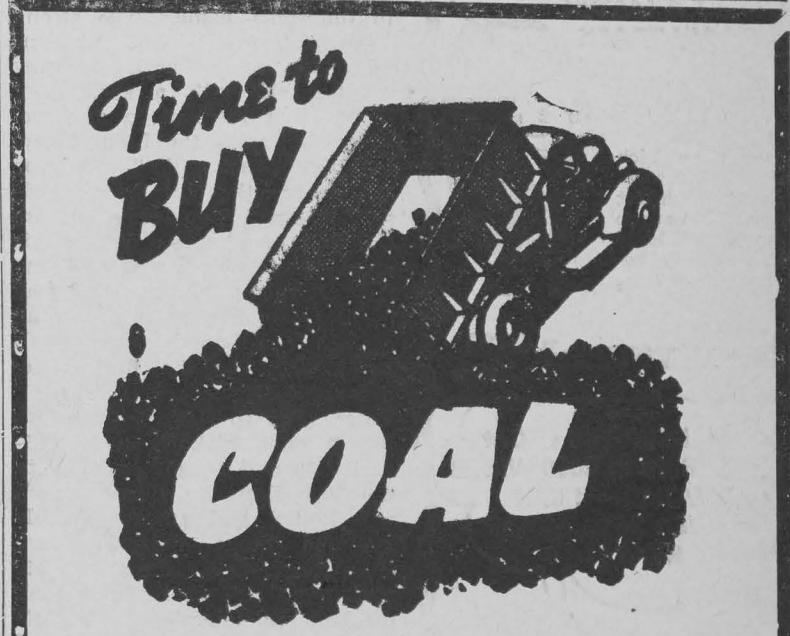

In Daniel 12:11 is recorded a prophecy to the effect that a certain time in the world's history a powerful ruler would arise who would attempt to overthrow true divine worship and establish in its place a system of false worship and this is exactly what Hitler is attempting in Europe; he is attempting to extend his sway over many countries, changing christian places into temples of idolatry.

Wave after wave of conquests like these have swept the world since the beginning of recorded history. In the fifth and sixth centuries great hordes of barbarians swept across Europe, almost wiping out the civilization of that time. These Nomads had scarcely become absorbed and a new civilization started when Moslems almost succeeded in over running Europe again. History is largely a record of the conquering march of the "have-nots," striving to become "haves." It is the age old urge of dictators today to TAKE what would require generations to acquire by orderly methods that started the World's War; it was back of the Revolution in Russia; the Communist rising in other countries and it is the same urge to TAKE what their more fortunate neighbors possess, that has spread such a spirit of unrest through the world today; time changes, condition changes, but human nature goes on forever.

Adolph Hitler, having trampled Czechoslovakia into oblivion and recaptured Memel, thus placing Eastern Europe's lessers powers at his mercy, rises as the Goliath in the world's amphitheatre—as yet no David has arisen to challenge him

With the roar of a madman, a battle cry of bold and brutal attack this Nazi overlord devoured Bohemia, Moravia and Slovakia in less than twenty eight hours, exactly a week later he stretched forth his ogerish hand and ripped a 1,000 square miles of Baltic Seaport; Zone of Memel away from a trembling Lithuania and restored it to its pre-war owner, Germany. The real feast is being prepared and statesmen of Great Britain and France anxiously seek the key that will provide the answers to the question that hovers over the world. Will it be Hungary, Roumania, Danzig, Soviet Russia or Ukraine which would give him easy access to Palestine near where the great battles of ages gone were fought and where the world's last conflict will take place. "He gathered them together in a place in the Hebrew tongue called, Havnageddon." To this end the Four Horsemen ride.
