Information of priorities, rationing, housing, city ordinances governing health, rents and clothing will be available in written form for the use of all who take advantage of the facilities to be offered by the government-sponsored center.

The duties of all persons in charge of the center were discussed and the best possible ways to aid the general public were outlined for the benefit of those in attendance which included:

FREEDOM FOR ALL IS GOAL

NEW YORK, March 16— In significant stands, the highest emissaries of China and India Sunday warned the United States and Great Britain that they must translate their words of freedom and democracy into deeds or they may alienate the faith of the Asiatics in the cause of saving civilization. Pearl S. Buck, novelist and president of the East-West Association, sponsors of the event at the Waldorf-Astoria, predicted that the white race never again would be dominant in the same way that it has been in the past.

The foreign speakers were Dr. Hu Shih, Chinese Ambassador to the U. S. and Sir Shanmukham Chetty, director of the Indian Government Purchasing Mission. Liberty and Equality Sought

"It is only by convincing the Oriental people that liberty and equality are the birthright of all nations, irrespective of color," Sir Chetty argued, "that you can generate in the masses of India and China that moral force and fervor which are as much needed as machines and munitions for winning this war."

It will be the fourth registration during the current emergency and the second since the war actually engulfed the United States.

The chief executive issued a proclamation, under terms of the Selective Service Act, which provides that:

James "Buddy" Catlett, former Lincoln star athlete is spending the week-end in the city, visiting relatives and friends.

DIDN'T GIVE SIGNAL, IS FINED $15

Failing to give an arm signal before entering a left lane on Oak Street between Sixth and Seventh streets last Monday, resulted in a fine of $15 in City Court Thursday for John Carter, 47, 625 N. First street. Carter was arrested after his car knocked Motorcycle Officer Dorr from his vehicle as he was passing. A 60-day sentence was suspended on condition that Carter pay damages.

I. S. Levy, a Negro merchant of Columbia, South Carolina, operated a department store worth $50,000. He hired 12 clerks and did business to the amount of $100,000 per year.

Aubrey Turner, who lives on R.R. 1, Henderson, received the second call during Tuesday's draft lottery... his number was 1103.

Miss Allouise Jaxon Directs Fluoroscopic Tests Of High School Students at Hospital

Approximately 1,600 high school students will be given fluoroscopic examinations for tuberculosis in the current early case finding program being conducted in city high schools by the Vanderburgh County Tuberculosis association, according to Jerome L. Salm, (white) association president.

Miss Allouise Jaxon last week took 167 students from Lincoln to the hospital where they were tested. Memorial students are being examined this week.

Junior class members in the various schools are being examined this year. In former years freshmen were fluoroscoped. The change was made, according to Dr. Paul D. Crimm, medical committee chairman for the association, and director of Boehne tuberculosis hospital, because the junior class more nearly approximated the age group where secondary tuberculosis infection generally begins.

Other students, including those students by school nurses, students in direct contact with known active cases, and those showing TB symptoms are being examined under the association's program. Athletes are also being checked.

Fluoroscopic tests, which are financed through the sale of Christmas seals and made at no cost to students, are administered in the out-patient department of Boehne hospital. The students were taken to the hospital in buses.

The high school examinations will continue through May 20. All seniors have been examined to date.

STOLE COATS
Lebert Grizzard, 31, 1014 Oak street, received a $35 fine and 90-day sentence suspended in City Court Wednesday on a theft charge growing out of the taking of several coats from the Coliseum during the Count Basie dance on St. Valentine night.

Threaten Strike Over Hiring of Negro Motorman

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Mar. 17— Lester B. Granger, Executive Secretary of the National Urban League, today called to the attention of William Green, President of the American Federation of Labor, the threatened strike of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America, in San Francisco, which would completely tie up transportation in that key port of defense.

The proposed strike is being called because the union objects to accepting as a member a Negro who has been certified by the city for the job of motorman. The letter also pointed out that seven other A. F. of L. unions important to defense are impeding vital war production because even though there is a shortage of labor, and Negroes are qualified for the job which they perform, these unions continue to maintain "white only" clauses in their qualifications for membership.

LOOKING and LIVING

By HELEN S. JACKSON

CURRENT LITERATURE

In keeping with the chaotic war-torn atmosphere of 1941 a number of the recently released books reflect this unsettled condition.

Glancing through the New York Times, issue of March 15, we were particularly intrigued by reviews of late literary creations, namely "Remember Pearl Harbor" by Blake Clarke and "The Sun Climbs Slow" by Julia Davis.

"Remember Pearl Harbor" is a graphic description of the Japanese bombing attack from the minute it started. The author was seated on the back porch of a civilian home in Honolulu when he and his host noticed a formation of planes directly overhead. Thinking it merely a practice, they continued their conversation. A few minutes later, they learned the horrible truth.

The book relates the heroic American resistance to unexpected attack—"valor, sacrifice achievement; brave hearts, quick wits, level heads."

It also makes clear "the tragic folly of specific unreadiness; and general undestimation of the enemy's strength and skill."

"The Sun Climbs Slow" details the tragic experiences of two "children of war," Xaim and Marca Ameto, Spanish refugees.

The father, a Spanish poet and former Loyalist soldier, having arrived in New York, places the children under the care of a warm-hearted, sympathetic American woman, one "Jean." (Their own mother was the victim of an air raid.)

It is the foster-mother's duty not only to provide love, care and physical protection for these "children of war" but she also has the more subtle task of attempting to erase from their minds some of the horrifying experiences of the Spanish Civil War.

Xaim is suspicious of his foster-mother's Italian gardener; to this emotionally disturbed child, roads are for tanks and troops; a clear sky, lighted by the moon, means the arrival of enemy airplanes—fear haunts him, like a ghost.

The author, very realistically describes the relationship between Jean and her foster-children; and the foster mother's intelligent guidance which finally integrates them into normal American life.

However, as the author, herself is sharing her home with two Spanish refugee children, one does not wonder at the realism of her literary characters.

Other works indicative of the times are "Total Victory" by Stephen King-Hall; "Defense Will Not Win the War" by Lieut. Col. W. F. Kernan; "Civilian Defense in the United States" by Col. R. Ernest Dupuy; "Our Hawaii" by Erna Ferguson.

Don't forget the faculty play to be given Friday night in the auditorium at 8:30 p.m. . . . "THREE TAPS AT TWELVE."

On January 1, 1863 a final proclamation appeared declaring slavery abolished by military authority in all the South except Tennessee and the parts of Louisiana and Maryland then held by Union armies.

Original Poem by Charles Cornelius

(Bonds and Taxes)

Barringer
When we pay our Taxes
We can smash the AXIS,
Because we are all working
For the good old U. S. A.

When we buy our Bonds
We will soon have defiance;
That's the American Way.
When we kneel before
Almighty God to say a prayer
We are surely helping
The boys over there
To win a long victory.

If we want to have peace
Let's get in there and
Stop those boys from the East,
And have a long victory.

Bonds and Taxes
Will smash the Axis
You know, and I know
Come on, America, let's go!
Time is short; Time is slow!
Long as there's life there's hope
We can win! We will win!
Let freedom ring!
Then, America, we can always rejoice
The American Way.

The man who relaxes;
Who won't pay his Taxes,
Is helping the Axis.

Pay your Taxes!
Smash the Axis!
Buy your Bonds!
Say a prayer!
And come on America,
Let's still have a world
Of happiness; peace and fun.
It's fun to be free—
The American Way!

ELEMENTARY ROOMS BEING DECORATED
The school rooms in the building are being painted pale green, ivory and rose and cream. The 2-A, 3 B children under the supervision of Miss Gertie Gracey and student teacher Miss Margaret Bass have not decided what color they want their room.

The children started on a unit of work about the fireman. Barbara Turner wrote the best letter to the captain of number 9 asking if the class could visit the fire house. George Lander and Lula Riley drew a picture of a house on fire and the fireman coming to put it out.

In our art class we are working with finger paint. The following have work on the bulletin boards: Doris Williams, Barbara Turner, George Lander, Patricia Smith, Iris Brown, and Tom Anderson.

We are very happy about the new bulletin boards. We were glad to welcome Spencer Huffman of Henderson, Kentucky to our class. Blondine Balingine is back in school after being out of school with the measles.

Virgil Sandefur painted the screen yellow to match the room furniture.

In a special chapel this week, Hazel Gracey from Evansville College told the story of "Snow White".

NOT TAXED ENOUGH—DONATES $50 MORE
William L. Edward, a chauffeur and Spanish-American War veteran appeared at the Internal Revenue Collector's Office in the Federal Building to file his income tax return and pay the tax.

While the clerk was figuring this tax Edwards said he had tried to enlist for the present war but was rejected because of his age. Quickly figuring the return, the clerk told Edwards his tax was $1.92.

Edwards paid the $1.92 and shoved the clerk $50.00 more. I feel that I should pay more than $1.92 Edwards explained. The $50.00 will go into the government Special Fund for out right donations to National Defense.

KNOW THYSELF (Page Two)
This thought claims my attention I believe for several reasons. First, I believe every human being of a semi-reasonable mind possesses two characters known as conscious mind and subconscious mind or the minus entity. The conscious mind is that which surmounts obstacles and crushes them down. While the subconscious mind allows obstructions and obstacles to crush you; therefore I think its time to study and know ones self. Today to know, and then know that you know means something to them that know and today to not know and to think you know and don't know that you don't know, and then won't allow anybody that does know to tell or show you that you don't know leaves you in a fix, to never know. Dr. P. A. Carter from Kentucky in the Ministers and Deacons union said to the ministers. "Brethren, I am just thinking about the church this moment and how much shall the church adjust herself to the present day crisis." He stood still a moment then he said the ministers today, it's yours to find the solution and the crisis of the church are many and to adjust them or the church to them, you must first know them but I am just thinking One should see and know himself first in his home, the streets, the church and even to the earth's remotest bounds being conscious of the fact that not all wise men are great, but all great men are wise. Believe it or not it is to know thyself.

ture, praying and leading the hymnal. Rev. M. S. Alston lectured the Sunday School lesson for the week. Special guest was Rev. P. G. Carter of Louisville, Ky., who is now conducting revival services at the McFarland Baptist church.
Rev. H. Robinson, moderator.

From Corydon, Ky., comes this news from the noted evangelist and minister and man of letters, the Reverend C. A. Lamon:

"Brother Scott Posey, a Christian gentleman of this small town has failed only twice to ring the bell for services at St. Paul Baptist Church. He's a gray-haired gentleman of 87 summers, quite active for his age and well respected by all. His faithfulness was manifested in his act of braving the hard Sunday storm and walking about a half a mile to the church so that he could be at his post and on time.

He had to cross streams of water and hills but he came on, with the aid of his trusty cane; not only did he come but he brought with him assurance from other members that they would be there and they were present soon as the storm abated somewhat. They were present in large numbers, some old, some young but the greater number were old and carried canes to support their old and frail bodies, but their courage and strength were backed up by that "good Ole Time Religion."

Rev. Lamon asks that all readers pray for the faithful workers of his church as well as for himself and he takes this means of sending God's blessings on all of them.

Governor Offers To Aid Lynching Investigation

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 17—Following the announcement of Attorney General Francis Biddle that the F.B.I. would continue inquiry into the Sikeston lynching, Gov. Forrest C. Donnell and Attorney Roy McKittrick of Missouri offered the Department of Justice their "full co-operation."
The Missouri officials wrote Attorney General Biddle they were "very much interested in the possibility of proceedings based on possible violation of the Federal statutes" by the lynchers of Cleo Wright.

Their letter resulted from the report of Harry Kay, who represented the State at the two-day Scott County grand jury investigation of the lynching last week at which no indictments were returned.

W. A. Plummer, Fraternal Leader, Buried

CAIRO, Illinois.—(Special)—William Albert Plummer was born in Cairo, Ill., Sept. 1, 1862 departed this life at 4:15 o'clock, Feb. 19, 1942. Mr. Plummer had been ill for about six months, during which time he was always his same cheerful self, smiling and having a pleasant word for all who knew him.

Mr. Plummer was christened in the Episcopal church at the age of nine and upheld his faith, living a Christian life until the end. He was a graduate of Sumner high school of Cairo, Ill. and became a mail carrier soon after. He carried mail in Cairo for 38 years. Mr. Plummer was the only colored mail carrier on the force at the beginning of his illness, and there is not another to take his place.

September 1, 1902 he was joined in holy wedlock to Etzel Shorter, and two children blessed the union, a son who soon passed on and a daughter, Dewitt, who is now a teacher in the schools of Tulsa, Okla., Mrs. Sarah S. Plummer departed this life in 1915. Mr. Plummer was a born leader and diplomat, making many friends. To his many, many friends he was known as "Dolly" or "Colonel." Many thought Dolly to be his real name, it was used so much. He was a leader in the fraternal organizations and was Worshipful Master of Tonic Lodge No. 46, F. and A. M., a member of Gate City Lodge No. 21 Knights of Pythias, and a member of Egyptian Lodge No. 851, IBPOE of W. Supreme representative of the K of P's, Colonel of the first regiment, U. R. He was the last of his family tree. He is survived by his wife Etzel Shorter Plummer, daughter Dewitt, mother-in-law, Mrs. Rebe F. Shorter, two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Emma E. Shorter and Mrs. Dewitt Perkinson.

One comforting thought is the beautiful memory we shall have of him. Fine, clean, straightforward doing unto others as he would have them do unto him. May this assurance that he is in our Father's Mansion ease the pain of parting. Those of his out of town friends who attended the funeral, were Sir Walter D. Crawley, Supreme Vice Chancellor, Knights of Pythias, Sir Benjamin H. Crockett, Grand Attorney of the Grand Lodge, K. P.'s of Illinois. Sir George W. Lawrence, Grand Vice Chancellor, Knights of Pythias, Jurisdiction of Illinois. Sir A. W. Lloyd, Past Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Missouri.

THE WAR... and your Telephone
WE SINCERELY APPRECIATE the splendid co-operation shown by telephone users in these busy wartime days. Your continued understanding and helpful attitude is of great assistance to us at this time for, like many other industries, the telephone business is not as usual.
Our government in its all out for victory program has decided that certain civilian needs, not directly a part of the wartime effort, must wait—and we're sure you'll agree it should be that way.
In order to limit the use of critical materials, the War Production Board recently ruled that there be no further installations of extension telephones in private homes except where necessary for the use of those who are charged with responsibilities for the public health, welfare or security.
The Board prohibited replacements of existing wall and desk type telephones with hand sets, except when an instrument is beyond repair . . . and has ordered that party-line service be installed wherever necessary to conserve materials.
The conversion of manual offices or manual private branch exchanges to dial, and the conversion of one type of manual office to another type also have been restricted.
When a nation hurries it turns to the telephone. Ever since the war in Europe began, there have been enormous increases in the demand for telephone service. During the last two years the Indiana Bell Telephone Company has spent about $10,000,000 for new plant construction to meet this unparalleled demand. But now certain things we had planned to do in expanding our facilities must wait.
We are endeavoring to make available facilities go as far as possible . . . to provide some telephone service for those who need it. By accepting four-party service and thus sharing a line with neighbors you permit us to furnish service to more people—and you also aid in the present wartime program.
OUR FIRST BIG JOB is to see that whatever telephone service America needs for war, it will get in full measure. Our next big job is to furnish the best possible service under existing conditions. We are working harder than we ever did before to do just that.
If once in a while your call does not go through as promptly as usual, or if the particular type of service you want is not available, please remember that these are critical times and our government's needs come first.

Colored Artist Featured In Cream of Kentucky Ads

People in Derbyville and regular readers of the ARGUS may soon get a chance to see a series of Schenely Corporation ads featuring noted colored man and women of days gone by, as depicted by E. Simms, the noted colored artist.

The Schenely Corporation, makers of Cream of Kentucky whiskey, has released the first ad of the series which features Ike Murphy famous colored Kentucky Derby jockey. This copy has been tested in other colored markets and found a tremendous acceptance among colored consumers. Other ads in the series will follow the Murphy feature.

The makers of Cream of Kentucky announce that their products are going over big in the colored markets throughout the country and our paper is pleased to be able to carry the ball for our market area.

In Derbyville, you may now find Cream of Kentucky gaining in favor, even to the extent that the bartenders declare that it is now one of their best bar sellers especially since the ARGUS started its merchandising job on the distilled product. The Argus is now carrying a price and series but the advertising manager expects to start the new historical series soon as this one is run.

The advertising manager of the Argus takes this means of thanking the general public for its wholehearted cooperation in helping to make Cream of Kentucky a popular drink; an indication that the public appreciates the actions of the company in recognizing the value of the Argus in helping to boost the sale of Cream of Kentucky in the Tri-State area. You'll like Cream of Kentucky.

Net Coach Leads Mates To Win Over Niles' Big Five

BY JOEL McFARLAND

Everybody's talking about that net thriller 'tween the elementary and high school faculties last Friday night in the Lincoln Gym, which ended in a 28-17 win in favor of the elementaries. Captain Niles scored 2 points while his teammates hit for 15; Rochelle, 1; Fowler, 3; Miller, 7; Harris, 4; Captain Cheeks of the elementaries hit for 7; Yates, 9; McFarland, 12.

Captain Cheeks' long-clear net swishers and sensational dribbling of Fowler featured the game along with the fine passing and teamwork of Captain Niles. Center Rochelle the fine pointer (with one "great big free throw" to his credit.) stole the game spot, light for a couple of hot minutes when he did an aeroplane spin with Cheeks early in the first quarter and a "bear walk" all by his little self early in the third crowd in laugh stitches.

REMEMBER Pearl Harbor

The teams were tied-up at the end of the first quarter, 2 to 2, results of free throws by Fowler and baskets by Yates; Fowler, Yates, McFarland, Cheeks, Niles Miller led the scoring parade in the second quarter; Miller, Cheeks and McFarland did all of the scoring in the third quarter which ended, 22 to 10 in favor of the elementaries; the half ended with the high schoolies on the short end of a 12 to 5 score. Miller, Fowler, Yates, Harris and Cheeks scored in the last quarter.
