In bringing the case to the attention of Mr. McNutt, William Y. Bell, Jr., executive secretary of the Atlanta Urban League, stated his hope that Mr. Mc-Nutt would use every resource to see that the officials responsible for this discrimination should learn that it is inconsistent with the aims of the life and death struggle in which the country is now engaged.

"You will fully understand the severe damage to Negro morale by the continued repetition of Nazi-like discriminatory treatfied applicants for work," he office, where it was agreed to ment of American Negro qualiwrote.

Bell pointed out that as an isolated incident, the run around given Johnson was probably unimportant, but that as a symbol of the attitude of federal officials, it assumed large proportions. He asked that the Federal Security Agency affirm its position against discrimination based on race.

"America must take firm steps to rid itself of the cancer of discrmination, especially in the Federal government," Bell said, "if we are to mobilize all resources for the effective prosecution of this war."

WAR SAVINGS

Am so sorry that didn't get a chance to hear Mrs. Thelma Johnson in recital last Monday . . . the last one that we covered for the paper, was truly a honey and am sure that this one was even better . . . Miss Lula Bell Mallory has returned home from St. Louis where she spent several weeks with relatives and friends . . . Leg stockings or skin stockings, as you will, can be made to look like the real thing if you will add a brown pencil line up the center of the back after rubbing over the entire leg a thin coating of colored lotion selected to suit your taste. No need worry any more about runs for there are no more undependable threads to catch in the finger nails and ruin an expensive pair of hose.

BONDS AND STAMPS

Hear tell that Private Harry Cobb of Fort Bliss, Texas, has recently been promoted to technical sergeant and that Mrs. Vergie Flowers has added another heir, a cute little girl, Barbara Jean . . . Mary Louise Stone has passed the civil service exams and the medical, all she's awaiting . . . the call, which should come anytime . . . the Russel Roberts of Bellmeade are spending several days visiting the parents of Thesz in Iuka, Miss. . . . Would like very much to attend St. John's First Annual Lawn Festival on the 17th, 18th and 19th of this month.

EVERY PAY DAY

Since coming to D. C., have been changed from Senior typist to card punch operator, to tabulator, to checker and now am a verified . . . this position calls for checking of card punching and tabulating . . . making necessary corrections and grading of work . . . Know Janneatta Warren will be interested in the trip that "yours truly," Lula Wright, former business teacher at Johnson's Business College in Little Rock, Ark., and Ruth A. Brown of Ansonia, Conn., made to the Franciscan Monastery, "Holy Land of America," in Washington last Sunday.—It is really the most beautiful place I have had the pleasure of seeing. Highlights of the Monastery are the Rose Garden and Portincula Chapel, Garden of Gathsemanee, St. Sebastian Chapel, Annunciation Grotto, St. Anne's Chapel in the Gardens, the Martyrs' Crypt, Grotto of Bethlehem, Chapel of St. Cecelia in the Catacombs, the Manger-Grotto of the Nativity, the Rosary Portica, Purgatory Chapel, Stations of the Cross and the Tomb of the Blessed Mother.

HELP KEEP THE

The Monastery is konwn as the college and commissariat of the Holy Land and has for its object the education of Missionaries for Palestine and Egypt and the collection of alms for the rescue and preservation of the Sacred Places of the Christian Religion in the Holy Land. "The Crusaders' Almanac," periodical, furthers this interest. The church is the principal attraction, containing reproductions of several of the Shrines in the Holy Land. There may be seen an excellent copy of a section of the Roman Catacombs and the world-famous Grotto of Laurdes. The architecture of the church is Byzantine and is built in the form of a 5-fold cross. The grounds are beautifully landscaped and a veritable wonderland of beauty.

Joel McFarland SPORTS

SPORTS EDITOR:

This is to correct an article published in The Argus, Saturday, Aug. 1, 1942. In regards to George Cooksey, Bud Rankin, Giles Robinson and Charley Powelson. Cooksey never was in the Golden Gloves tournament. Bud Rankin had one allowed 12 hits. "Doc" Bracken drive for 37, 500,000 old fight in the Golden Gloves. Charley Powelson came to Kellam's Gym two years ago and couldn't even skip the rope. He was a Golden Glover. Giles Robinson came to the gym out of the Golden Glove tournament last February. Robinson couldn't skip the rope. All fighters are rope skippers.

Powelson, Robinson and Rankin can do it all now. They are ready to go and the boys that beat these lads will tell score, which stayed that way Y.M.C.A. and tell them when and BETTER TRY the world they had a fight. Another lad, his name being withheld, has just commenced training and positively not a Golden Glover, no doubt will be heard from soon.

Now back to Cooksey, he is a professional. The first professional fight was a semi-final in Louisville, Ky., last December. He beat one of the best middleweights out of Cincinnati. He can punch holes through all Golden Glove boys in Evansville in one night, regardless of size.

There will be an All-Star benefit card in Evansville soon, probably sometime in September, for the Army and Navy. We are looking for fighters, not "punks."

Yours for the Squared Circle, DEACON KELLAMS. Manager and Trainer, 712 N. Governor Street.

The foregoing letter reached my desk this week and is self-explanatory.

Last week 50 children were served at the Lincoln Playground picnic. The Lincoln P-T-A, under the presidency of Mrs. Roy Bynum, donated some of the food. Mary Smith, Marzetta Riley, Patricia Thompson, Lorraine Phelps and Alberta Tillerson helped serve. Mary Smith made the bills for the free lunches to be taken home. Children from the Henderson, Ky., playground visited Lincoln Tuesday.

Girls in the Lincoln Playground pageant are busy these days, practicing in "threes." Those participating:

Jacquese Thompson, Bertha Hildreth, Patricia Thompson, Claudette Nicholas, Anna Mary Duncan, Cleonia Decker, Doris Williams, Marzetta Cooksey, Lula Riley, Alice Snorton, Mollie Jones, Clara Talbort, Blondine Balentine, Aurelia Hicks, Helen Marshall, Juanita Nelson, Charlie Bell, Galbreath, Ruth Phelps, Anna P. Brown, Josephine Smalling.

Practical door knockers, owl shelves and sandwich trays were made during the work-shop period last week. Miss Lucille Phoenix supervised the work of the following:

Robinson Wins Close Decision

NEW YORK, July 31-(ANS) -Uncrowned king of the welters. Ray Robinson, kept his amazing winning streak intact tonight in Madison Square Garden, "by the skin of his teeth," having to come from way back to punch his way to a decision over lightweight champion Sammy Angott. This was the second match between the two good little fighters and the second win for Ray. Robinson weighed 144 and one quarter; Angott, 139 and three quarters. The most exciting and comical round was the eighth. Sammy's knees buckled after receiving a long looping left hook on the chin. As he neared the canvas, he grabbed hold of Ray and then, in a flash, they both hit the canvas with Ray rolling outside the ring on the apror while Sammy was on the inside The knockdown timekeeper bellowed the eighth count before either got up.

This was Ray's 122nd straight riumph on his unbeaten records as an amateur and a pro. He spotted Sammy three of the first four rounds, then unleashed an attack that netted him the verdict. Some 12,073 persons paid $26,853 to witness the brawl.

Long Distance telephone lines are humming with the all-important business of War! We believe you'll agree that these urgent military and industrial calls should have the right-of-way.

Right now many telephone highways are overcrowded-some worse than others. All are feeling the pressure of war.

New construction normally would take care of the greatly increased loads. But that is no longer possible-because copper, aluminum and other materials are more urgently needed for tanks, planes and ships.

Your thoughtful use of the telephone will help us keep the voice highways clear . . . so that war calls will not be delayed.

Before you place ANY Long Distance call, ask yourself this question: "Is it necessary?"

And if it IS necessary, won't you please be as brief as possible?

Another way you can help is by cutting down on the number and length of local calls . . . particularly if you share a party line.

WAR CALLS COME FIRST!
