KENTUCKY SYNOD MEETS IN THIRTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL SESSION HERE

States Sunday School Convenes With Kentucky Organization

The Kentucky Synod-States' Sunday School Convention and State's Christian Endeavor Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church climaxed one of its most successful sessions Sunday evening when Moderator James Tinsley pronounced benediction on the large audience in attendance. This was the thirty seventh annual session and convened with the Hardison Chapel congregation, Morton and Cherry streets with Rev. M. S. McCauley, the pastor as host.

The Synod was opened on Thursday morning at eleven o'clock with the annual message given by the moderator, Rev. James Tinsley of Crider, Ky., who delivered a very inspirational sermon with his text taken from 2 Peter 2:8, his subject, "Building on a Sure Foundation." Tinsley Re-elected by Popular Vote

Rev. James Tinsley, was re-elected moderator of the Synod by a majority of votes that indicated he was one of the most popular members ever to be present at the Synod.

The States' Sunday School Convention, meeting in conjunction with the Synod, held its initial meeting, Friday morning with Mrs. Estella Cox of Providence, Ky., as president. Miss Geneva Crimm of Metropolis, Illinois is president of the States' Christian Endeavor Society which will hold its meeting Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

Highlights of the convention were:—A program of welcome and a sermon by Rev. S. A. Nelson of Marshalltown, Iowa, a BUFFALO, N. Y., (By John Lovell, Jr., for ANP)—The principle of the Gaines case fight, the struggle to destroy differentials in teachers' salaries throughout the states based on race, the whole body of discrimination which resulted in the Marian Anderson incident, and the unremitting push toward an anti-lynching bill were all enthusiastically endorsed by the American Federation of Teachers in their annual convention at the Hotel Buffalo here, Aug. 21 to 25. Thirty-three thousand American teachers of trade union and liberal persuasion comprise the federation. Professor George S. Counts, noted educator of Columbia University Teachers college, was named national president for 1939-40.

Doxey A. Wilkerson, professor at Howard university, was re-elected national vice president-at-large by an overwhelming majority over Miss Layle Lane of New York. The convention heartily applauded Professor Wilkerson's plea for federal aid, especially for Negroes. Following its slogan "Education for Democracy—Democracy in Education" it agreed with him that a breakdown in opportunities for Negro education meant a complete breakdown in American democracy. It also endorsed the plan submitted by Miss Goldie Ervin literary and musical program that was rendered by the convention delegates, and sermons that were delivered by different preachers. Rev. M. S. McCauley, pastor, is extending thanks to the many friends and members who were so kind as to offer conveniences to the many delegates.

Popular Chicago Girl Is Visiting In St. Louis

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—

(Special to Evansville Argus)—The week of August 21-29 was one of 17th Street Church's greatest weeks because during that time the young and popular pastor, Rev. W. M. Edwards, was installed in a very impressive ceremony with some of Indianapolis' leading church congregations, pastors and choirs, participating.

The following churches participated: Metropolitan (Rev. J. D. Johnson, Pastor); 25th Street Baptist Church (Rev. J. B. Carter, Pastor); First Baptist (Rev. F. F. Young, Pastor); Shiloh Baptist (Rev. J. I. Saunders, Pastor); Bethlehem Baptist (Rev. W. Cook, Pastor); Tabernacle Baptist (Rev. H. G. Gardner, Pastor); St. John (Rev. S. S. Reed, Pastor) and Galilee (Rev. D. B. Dudley, Pastor).

of Philadelphia for more intensive work among administrators, parents and children to the end of cooperative thinking and cooperative living. Miss Ervin reported to the convention the steps taken by her local, containing a majority of white teachers, in successfully forestalling an attempt by reactionary groups to unseat Allan Freelon as art supervisor in Philadelphia schools purely because of his race.

The Sunday School teacher asked "what kind of fish did the Lord divide among his disciples?" and nobody knew. Yet it is easy enough to find out. What kind of piscatorial species inhabit those waters.

Picture Lecture To Be Feature Attraction At No. 15 of Lincoln Gardens, Tuesday Eve.

Spring Mill State Park, one of the nation's foremost state parks, is to be the subject of the picture shown by Rev. H. Edmonds next Tuesday night, Sept. 5, 1939, at 8 p.m. This is under the direction of the Works Projects Administration of which Mr. Edmonds is an instructor in the field of Visual Education.

This park is one of the most historical parks in the State of Indiana. There is, I believe, more history attached to the life of this park than any in the entire state. It is one of the most beautiful as you will see if you are able to attend the showing. There are many interesting features that could be mentioned here but to appreciate them, one would find it necessary to attend the activity of Rev. Edmonds and see them in technicolor for oneself.

Those who attended the beautiful picture entitled, "The Birth and Boyhood of Jesus" know that these picture-lectures are very interesting and there is something worthwhile in them. This particular picture has brought much comment and response and will be shown again when Rev. Edmonds is able to secure the slides. Mrs. Edmonds assisted Rev. Edmonds August 22, when the picture was shown, and both were congratulated on the fine points that were brought out. When the picture "The Birth and Boyhood of Jesus Christ" returns, those who missed it before, please be on hand.

FELLOWSHIP OF PRAYER
By REV. D. C. WEAVER

1. Have always a conscience void of offense toward God and man.
2. The very word, conscience, seems now a forgotten word—a ghost of a word. We too largely subject our enterprises to every test save those tests of right and wrong to which everything comes in the end.

3. We need to return to foundation things. A good conscience is surely one of them. A good conscience is sensitive, sympathetic, and teachable. It is always extending its empire. It takes account of new conditions; annexes new duties. It knows that new occasions teach new duties; that right and wrong invites widening reaches of relationship. They involve governmental policies and nations. Read Acts 24:10-16. Paul, at this time, was speaking of how to live with God and in fellowship with man.

4. A good conscience is intelligent. It seeks divine guidance, follows its best lights, then issues its decrees and waits serene in the face of God and man.
5. Prayer will give us fellowship, keeping our conscience clear with God and man.

Negroes Get Housing Jobs

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28—(ANP)—Nearly one-third of the workmen on the James Weldon Johnson low-cost housing project are colored, according to a survey made this week. Of the 221 employed for all purposes, 68 are Negroes.

In the skilled ranks are 11 per cent Negroes, and the latter comprise six steel setters, two carpenters, three cement finishers and one bricklayer. Fifty-six Negroes are doing unskilled work.

The wage scale is the same, regardless of race. All steel setters, carpenters and cement finishers receive $1.25 an hour. Strippers are classed as unskilled workers, but they receive 70 cents an hour; laborers are paid 60 cents, and watchmen 40 cents.

Question as the small number of skilled Negroes brought the reply that there is a scarcity of skilled mechanics among local Negro workers. The most important job held by a Negro is that of construction inspector—in the white collar class. It is held by Sherman Coleman, graduate of Pennsylvania State College and the University of Pennsylvania. He inspects finished work.

The James Weldon Johnson project is located at 25th street and Ridge avenue, and is being developed by the Philadelphia Housing Authority with a loan from the USHA.

Members of the committee estimated the drive would affect a large majority of colored voters in all of the New England and Middle Atlantic states.

The petition will be presented to the president on Nov. 23rd, Thanksgiving day. The drive, initiated in Boston at the spontaneous request of colored youth groups in several other large cities, has the support of the outstanding youth organizations in this section. ## Liberia Celebrates 92nd Anniversary: To Keep Pure

MONROVIA, Liberia—In response to congratulations by members of the Diplomatic Corps on the ninety-second anniversary of Liberian Independence, President Ewin Barclay told foreign representatives that it was the aim of Liberians to have a purely African state. He said:

"We fully realize how severely critical are observers of the Liberian scene. But they should realize, what it would appear, they do not understand, that the aim of Liberians is not to build up in Africa a pseudo-European state. Their objective is a state purely African, preserving what is best in the tradition of the race yet not uninfluenced by those ideals of justice, human liberty, and social responsibility which have gradually developed by man everywhere in the course of his cultural and social evolution."

In so far as we have succeeded in attaining in a measurable degree the realization of those objectives, we claim the sympathetic consideration of others and their cooperation in our future progressive march."

3-Year Plan Successful
The success of President Ewin Barclay's three-year plan was proclaimed during the celebration of Liberia's ninety-second anniversary as a sovereign state. Liberia was colonized in 1822 by free Negroes and freed slaves from the United States.

Imposing Independence Day ceremonies were held at the Executive Mansion, attended by representatives of foreign nations, Cabinet officers and other government officials. President Ewin Barclay, Secretary of State C. L. Simpson and Lester A. Walton, American Minister, were the principal speakers.

On behalf of the Diplomatic Corps at Monrovia of which he is Doyen, Minister Walton said: "It gives me great pleasure to offer congratulations on the 92nd anniversary of the Republic's independence. July 26 is always a gala occasion. This year affords rare opportunity to celebrate jointly two important historic events. In retrospect, the people are in a festive mood in commemoration of the establishment of Liberian sovereignty and autonomy in 1847. From a contemporary perspective, hearts and minds are made glad in the knowledge that your three-year plan is of successful fruition."

"In January 1936, when you were inaugurated Chief Executive for another term, you launched an ambitious, comprehensive program for the economic, social and political rehabilitation of the Republic. The eyes of the world were on Liberia. It was a monumental and problematical task you undertook; so much so that at home and abroad there were those skeptical as to the probability of accomplishment."

"Under your able and far-sighted leadership the three-year plan has been an unquestioned success. Today, Liberia enjoys a reputation for political stability. It has won the confidence and respect of nations. At no time has it bulked so important in international affairs. The sound condition of the Republic's finances is attested by the fact that for three successive years the budget has balanced. Road construction in the hinterland, so fundamental in the development of the country's economy, has been prosecuted with vigor within the limits of resources. The educational system has been standardized. These are few of the major objectives attained. Time will not permit additional enumeration."

"I deem it fitting to observe that had the Barclay plan been a failure the news would have been publicized far and wide. With alacrity, detractors would have gladly embraced the opportunity to substantiate in print and by word the many false statements and malicious misrepresentations which have been circulated to discredit the only Republic in Africa, and to prove that Liberians are not fit to govern. It, therefore, is hoped that due credit will be given for what, in my opinion, will some day rank in the annals of internal and international relationships as a national achievement of no minor significance."

"On behalf of the Diplomatic Corps, I propose a toast to the health of the President of the Republic of Liberia."

300 Nurses Attend Meet

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28—(ANP)—With over 300 nurses in attendance, the 32nd annual meeting of the National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses was held at Howard university, Aug. 21-25, and according to those in attendance, this meet will go into history as one of the most significant and interesting ever held.

It is significant that this year makes the close of the first five years of maintaining national headquarters at 50 West 50th street, New York, in Radio city's magnificent buildings, with a paid executive secretary in charge.

The executive secretary's report showed a 75% increase in membership during the past five years and a substantial balance in the treasury at the opening of the convention. This balance of $1,054.16 as compared with a balance of $46.45 at the end of the first year's operations, was greeted with enthusiasm by the attending members, and as an indication of the growth of the organization and its necessity.

Another significant step in the organization's development is the change in plans for meeting. Hereafter, meetings will be held biennially instead of annually. Regional meetings will be held annually in each of the four regions. An invitation for the first biennial convention has come from Los Angeles, and it is highly probable that the next convention will be held in that city in 1941.

The theme of this convention was the Negro Nurse and the Nation's Health. The deliberations reflected an awareness of the social responsibility nurses should rightfully assume in relation to all social welfare developments in their communities. Better housing, social hygiene and economic problems in their relationship to preventive medicine were discussed.

In keeping with its policy of paying homage to nurses who have pioneered on behalf of the Negro nurse, the Mary Maloney award for 1939 was presented to Miss Petra Pinn. Miss Pinn has served the organization in several capacities since 1912.

Entertainment for the visiting nurses took the form of luncheon and lawn party at Howard Wednesday, and a trip on Thursday to the home of Frederick Douglas in Anacostia.

During the course of the meeting, the official report of the executive secretary, Mrs. Mable K. Staupers, was read and widely acclaimed. In her report, Mrs. Staupers set forth the fact that the nurses had received a donation of $2,500 through the gen-

AS I SEE IT

By BOOKER HUGHES

Sometime ago I wrote an article mentioning Colored men and women who had served in Congress either as Senators or Representatives. I promised myself that I would write of some of them and today there appears an article concerning the life of one of our first Negro Representatives to occupy a chair in the legislative body of our United States Government.

Mr. John Roy Lynch is classified as being an officer-lawyer. He was born August 10, 1847, at Concordia Parish, La., the son of Patrick and Catherine (White) Lynch. His education was received in the common schools of Louisiana.

Mr. Lynch married twice; his first marriage being with Miss Ella W. Somerville. This Mrs. Lynch died about December 18, 1884. The second Mrs. Lynch was Miss Cora E. Williamson who died about August, 1911.

In April, 1869, began Mr. Lynch's long string of political and social activities that were to bring him recognition throughout the United States. At this year and time he was made Justice of Peace, Adams County, Yazoo, Miss. Then he was elected from Adams County to Mississippi state Legislature for two years; and re-elected in 1871, serving last term as Speaker of Miss. house of representatives.

In 1872, Mr. Lynch was elected from 6th Miss. Dist. to 43rd Congress; re-elected to 44th Congress; and elected again to the 47th Congress, 1880-83.

He was temporary Chairman, Nat. Republican Convention, 1884. He was member of Republican National Committee of Miss. 1884-88. During the years of 1872, 1884, 1888, 1892, and 1900, Mr. Lynch served as delegate to Nat. Repub. Con. from Mississippi. In the years 1881-89 he was Chairman, Repub. Cent. Comm. of Miss.

Mr. Lynch was admitted to the Bar in Miss. in 1896, D. C., 1897, and Illinois, 1919.

Mr. Lynch was made Paymaster in the United States Army and served thru the years 1906-11, inclusive. He retired from active service in this capacity in

Dr. Hawkins A.M.E. Sec'y Buried

(By Marguerite L. Martin for ANP)

WASHINGTON—(A N P)—Solemn dignity marked the funeral rites for John R. Hawkins, financial secretary of the A.M.E. church, who died here at his residence Wednesday morning after a prolonged illness. Services were held in the Metropolitan A.M.E. church Saturday before a throng which filled the church building to overflowing, hundreds standing in the street.

A profusion of floral offerings covered the entire front of the church pulpit, their senders being from all walks of life: civil, professional, religious and laymen who knew and honored Dr. Hawkins for his services to the church and humanity.

With Bishop M. H. Davis serving as master of ceremonies at the funeral, those participating included Bishops J. A. Gregg, R. C. Ransom, E. J. Howard, H. Y. Tookes, D. H. Stimms, W. A. Fountain, S. L. Green and G. C. Young. Each had a special part in the service and paid tribute to Dr. Hawkins' work and life.

August 31,
The sixteenth annual meeting of the Dade Park Jockey Club is drawing to a close, but two of the most interesting feature races on the program for the current session remain. One is the Anna M. Fisher handicap for two-year-olds at six furlongs for a purse of $1,000, which will be run Saturday, September 2. The other is the Labor Day handicap for three-year-olds and upward at one mile and one eighth for a $1,000 purse on next Monday, closing day of the 26-day meeting.

The current meeting has been one of the most successful in the history of the Western Kentucky racing strip, according to James C. Ellis, president of the Dade Park Jockey Club, and owner of the track. The attendance has been larger and the wagering in the pari mutuels show a healthy increase.

SERVEL SWEEPS TWO-GAME SERIES WITH BOMBERS

WHITE TEAM RALLIES TO TAKE FIRST GAME, 3 TO 2 AND SHUTS OUT BROWN BOMBERS, 3 TO 0 IN SECOND GAME

Tate, Bomber Pitcher, Complete Puzzle to Servel, But Receives Poor Support

For eight innings Tuesday night, Joe Louis' Brown Bombers who hail from the great Motor City, "bombed" and "pop-ped" all over their white opponents, Servel, on the latter's diamond, but when the battle had ended the Bombers had ceased their activities and were hanging on the "little" end of a 3 to 2 score in one of the season's most thrilling softball games that was only marred by poor fielding, especially on the part of the catcher, Stutzman. In the first game, Tate, the big husky twirler, was a complete puzzle to the white lads, allowing them only 2 hits in 8½ innings and struck out nine. Newman, Servel player, was the only player able to hit the puzzling ball with effectiveness and that was his 3-bagger in the ninth.

In the first game Servel got only three hits, two by Puss Newman and one by Les Reinhardt, which incidentally was the winning single to left field in the tenth inning. Newman's first hit, a grounder to Payne at first, was on the shady side but his second hit, a triple to deep right center in the ninth started the winning rally, Reynolds had walk-off and was forced by Hall. Then came Newman's double, scoring Hall. Hatchet, next up, drew a walk and Tate, the Detroit pitcher, was taken out and Hudson, southpaw, came in.

Stutzman came up and struck out as Hatchet went to second. The Detroit catcher begged the ball and Newman scored with the young run then in the ninth inning, Servel reached second on a walk and a passed ball. Reinhardt popped out to the catcher and Lutzki struck out. Reinhardt popped one into short left and Seibert scored. Lutzki allowed six hits. The Bombers scored in the fourth on Buyer's double and a single by Renard. Walker and H. Larkins singled to account for the last run in the ninth inning.

In the second game on Wednesday evening, netting was the feature of the game with "Steamboat" Hall, ace of the Servel team, slamming out a homer along the outfield foul line that accounted for three runs. The Brown Bombers will play the Lincoln All-Stars in a game at the Lincoln Stadium, Thursday evening. Handy Furniture Co., and the L. and N. will play the preliminary game.

The All-Stars team members are: C. Butler, catcher—H. Hite, pitcher; C. Jordan, Hatchett, Watkins and J. Jordan, infielders; R. Steger, N. Steger, George Culver, and J. Johnican, outfielders.

In the preliminary games the Lincoln All-Stars defeated the Servel League Stars, 11 to 1 and 7 to 0.

Manager Morton's mighty men from the lowlands swamped Butereg to tie them for first place in second half play. Oakdale's team is also the first half champs.

The winners scored in every inning, having their big inning in the fourth when they tallied nine times. Singles by R. and N. Steger brought in one run. In the second frame, a one bagger and a double by A. and H. Hite along with an error produced three more runs. Oakdale failed to get a hit the third but three walks and an error gave them two runs. Butereg got in the scoring column when Warren walked and scored on Bronson's single. Walker started off Oakdale's rally in the fourth with a single. H. Hite doubled and

All C.I.A.A. Star Named N.C. Coach

RALEIGH, N. C.—Erwin "Bus" Holmes, a former member of the N. C. College "Eagles", was appointed to serve his Alma Mater as line coach to assist coaches Burghardt and McLendon with the task of shaping a number one aggregation of "Eagles" for the coming year. Holmes can easily be remembered as the back-bone of the Eagles during the years '31 through '34. His Freshman year and sophomore year he played excellently at halfback, but due to the shortage of ends in his Junior and Senior years he was shifted to end and it was while in this position that he was elected to an All C.I.A.A. berth as end in '33.

BRAD HOLLAND TO COACH AT LINCOLN

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY, Pa., Aug. 28.—Football candidates for the first practise session of the 1939 season at Lincoln University will report to the coaches on September 9th.

Jim Crow Beaten In Baseball League

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. (C NA)—The campaign to reverse the Jim Crow ruling of the Connecticut State Baseball League has been won!

The campaign, sponsored by the New Haven Youth Conference to change a ruling which barred pitcher Johnny Taylor from the New Britain team league, came to a successful conclusion when league president Joe Hannan informed the Conference on the morning of its gigantic protest meeting that no ruling barring Negroes existed any longer in the league. He said he and the league would oppose all undemocratic race bars in the future. Immediate steps to reinstate Taylor are being taken.

Texas College Steers Lose Only 5 Tilts In 5 Yrs.

TYLER, Tex.—If the supreme confidence and optimism of Texas College fans and Tyler supporters could serve as a yard stick, the wheels of football fortune will again fall on the broad shoulders of the Texas College Steers and they will wear their fifth crown in six years! This optimism seems foolhardy in the face of the collapse of the '38 Steers and the loss of nine veterans from last year's squad. In view of this fact, the most casual observer could do no better than label the Steers as the Dark Horse of the '39 race.

One reason why the Texas College supporters are so willing to jump on the Steer band wagon is their consistency in winning. During the past 5 years the Steers have engaged in 51 combats, winning 40, tying 6 and losing 5. That's a good percentage in anybody's league. Thus in five years they have a winning average of 8½ games per year and a losing average of 1½ game per year. This consistency and tradition strongly favor the '39 outfit.

Then there is a matter of schedule. The Steers have always performed best at home. The Steers meet Prairie View, Arkansas, Langston and Bishop on their home lot this year and no team can hardly escape the "Steer rush" in the Steers' own corral. It is interesting to note that the two worst seasons the Steers have encountered during the past two years were the years '36 and '38 when they had to play four of their conference games on foreign soil. However, all of these points that strongly favor the Steers will not offset the loss of such ball hawks as Myles Anderson, F. McClain, Howard, Biggs, Owens, Taylor, Perryman, Rettig and Murphy.

His Freshman year and sophomore year he played excellently at halfback, but due to the shortage of ends in his Junior and Senior years he was shifted to end and it was while in this position that he was elected to an All C.I.A.A. berth as end in '33.

BRAD HOLLAND TO COACH AT LINCOLN

Jim Crow Beaten In Baseball League

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. (C NA)—The campaign to reverse the Jim Crow ruling of the Connecticut State Baseball League has been won!

The campaign, sponsored by the New Haven Youth Conference to change a ruling which barred pitcher Johnny Taylor from the New Britain team league, came to a successful conclusion when league president Joe Hannan informed the Conference on the morning of its gigantic protest meeting that no ruling barring Negroes existed any longer in the league. He said he and the league would oppose all undemocratic race bars in the future. Immediate steps to reinstate Taylor are being taken.

IMPROVED ATHLETIC PLANT TO GREET N. C.

DURHAM, N. C.—One of the best equipped athletic plants in the south will greet the returning and new students when they register at the N. C. College for Negroes here. Not only will it be improved, but some of the program will be entirely new. In addition to football and basketball, which are well established, swimming, tennis, and track teams will be developed and claim a place of prominence on the regular athletic program.

According to the season, the new athletic field which is under construction will take the spotlight. A new athletic field is being constructed with the aid of state and federal assistance to be used this year for the first time when the EAGLES play their first home game.

We may be wrong, but we don't think it necessary for a lady to talk ALL the time to entertain a male guest, even if he is bashful. Make him speak up.

a short trip that included Tennessee (Jaxon to be exact) and Beni states that he attended one of the old fashioned revival meets out in the sticks and was his soul lifted with joy? Sure would like to have been there to see whether he shouted or not . . . by the way, his aunt, Mrs. Willie Bullock, the ex of a very popular dentist down that way and at present, Dean of Women at M. I. College, in Mississippi, is now in our city paying the, Tate a visit . . . Spied a Chevy that looked sorta like Mr. J. S. in front of the Tate mansion, could it be that he's that way about the school marm from the sunny South?

Rec'd the info that Mollie Edwards who is now making her home in Owego, N. Y., for the summer vacation, will soon leave for her permanent residence, Brooklyn, N. Y. She Sed . . . I think that NYC is the brightest spot in the world, but there's no place like home . . . we wonder?

Orbed Augusta Poole who has recently returned from Naptown and looking the pic of health, with the Earl of the Washings in Al's the other dark . . . Her friend, Helen, is supposed to make another trek Georgia-ward ere many hours shall have passed . . . is there a current heart beat in the Gawgia town or is it the lonesome feeling for Mama, Helen?

Sipping a bottle of beer in Al's was Walter Knott, the Tennessee kid who blew into the city from Clarksville and his cuzin, Ruth Merr. . . Coach Cheeks blew into the city from Chi last week—this week he was in attendance at the Coaches' Clinic at Vincennes and now he's at home with his Mom and Pop in the Buckeye State. By the way, Coach stated that he was royally treated while in Vincennes; he ate a delicious steak dinner while seated at one of the dining room tables draped in a table cloth at the very swanky Kumbac . . . Coaches from all over the nation were there at the clinic and much knowledge was gained, stated the coach.

Mrs. Sarah Dupee, affectionately dubbed, "Snookie" and not baby Snooks as a lot would have you believe, blew into this town from Atlanta last week with nothing but praise for the Americans, whose southern hospitality simply won her over in the Grand Style. She talked at length about those wonderful apartments like our Lincoln Gardens; she Adanta, Morenouse, and other Universities, her round of social activities and what not let me forget— that Atlanta Daily World's office, plant and whole "shooting match" . . . those lookies down that way does hope some day to be able to taste this wonderful hospitality. Snookie was sign in her praise for the way the following persons made her feel that Atlanta belonged to the Dupee household—the Smith Sisters, Emma Ingrams, J. C. Broadnax, Reverends. J. T. Dorsey and J. M. Gats, Emma Dunn and her lovely daughter, Daisy Mae (who incidentally, is an accomplished musician), Ric Roberts, sports writer for the World and L. "Melancholy" Jones, another World sports writer.

For some solid in the Groove kicks on the solid side, dig Artie Shaw's rendition of "I'm Sorry For Myself" and "Sweet Sue". Did you dig Jan Savitt doing his number from Hotel Lincoln on the ether waves the past week? If you didn't, am so sorry because Bob-Bon, that Colored kid who really chirps for all that it's worth, solidly sent me with his vocals.

Mrs. G. W. Glover has ret'd from the Big City with plenty to tell . . . she met all the big wigs of the theatrical and ether world, such as Bill Robinson, Cab Calloway, Jimmy Lunceford, Count Basie and many others. Oh, yeah and if that isn't enough, dig this, "she had dinner with Ivie Anderson, Duke's vocalist. She ringsided the Ambers-Armstrong fite and had a grand time in all.

The Matthews Mootrys, the famous jitterbugs, are in the city . . . they blew in town last week from the Windy City . . . they are visiting their parents the Drakes . . . Incidentally, the jitterbugs will do their number during the open date of the All-Star Jitterbugs that will perform at Jeff Starks Nite Club, 31st at Cottage Grove. They left the city last Wednesday for the Big City. Miss Anna Drake motored back with the Mootrys. Anna plans to matriculate in one of the Chi. schools. Miss Alma Hill tells me that the solid cat, Dorothy Barbour, of Naptown, is in town and her husband is expected ere long . . . Miss Catherine Drake gave a birthday party, Aug. 26 with a large number of youngsters in attendance as special guests. Miss Lillie Mae Cawthorne of 313 S. E. Fifth street, is expecting to give a birthday party, October 8, 1939. Bet all the draping cats will be on deck to gob up the mellow jive.

Just a friendly tip—Don't wait until you have covered nearly two score years and then try to bellyache, try to belittle the efforts of others by continual criticizing of their deeds, try to always pour water on the fire. I have always heard that parasites and leeches were the greatest social menaces . . . do believe it, too . . . Doesn't it burn you up to see an Uncle Tom who always is on the mellow side with the ofays even when the fate of the race is at stake? Can't for the life of me, understand why there are certain individuals who are the pussyfoot kind, yet they never seem to get anything or anyplace, only they get the good graces of the ofays.

Until next,
Your Optic.

P. S. The residents of Derbyville merit all the Bonquets for the remainder of the year for the courageous stand they took in blotting the last dance.
From now on, let us contend for waiters, check room girls, Ticket sellers, concession aides, Watchmen, all of the colored race at future dances for the members of our race. And do not let me forget we must have colored men to place the placards up in our business places. We can do it. Let us get together next on the stores who refuse to hire colored clerks, let us put the screws on them.

CONTEST WINNERS RETURN FROM N.Y.

Fashionette

Red Highlights the Autumn Fashion Picture
(By Hazel L. Griggs for ANP)
Red, a real, honest-to-goodness fire engine red, is burning up the autumn fashion picture. Bright and blazing, it is being featured in early fall coats and suits as well as in dresses, and is extremely attractive. Combined with black or worn with black accessories, these bright, dashing creations are taking top honors in all the fashion showings.

particularly smart number, rating lots of applause in one of the recent fashion reviews, was a slim-fitting, red wool coat made in refer style with slightly flared skirt, and double rows of buttons parading down the front. The perky borel worn with this suit was of black beaver, the kind you wore to Sunday school as a little girl, and a red quill shot out jauntily from the underside. The big, gloves and shoes were of black suede. A suit shown, also, used the popular red and black combination. The brief, nipped-in, red wool crepe jacket topped a black skirt of the same material, and the soft collar of the jacket was of curly, black lamb. Still another outfit, a decidedly debuttante type frock of deep, rich black had a splash of color in the long-sleeved bolera of bright red piped with curly black lamb.

Red is also being seen with grey and, surprisingly enough, with a new shade of autumn green called Robin Hood green. This is a soft shade of green—a sort of bright olive, and mixes beautifully with piquant red touches. Green drawing bags lined with red taffeta are popular erosity of Mrs. Chester Bolton of Cleveland, prominent Republican National Committeewoman and philanthropist. Mrs. Bolton's donation was greatly appreciated and helped further the work of the organization.

Among the things accomplished during the past five years, according to Mrs. Staupers' report, were:

1. Stimulating the New York State Board of Nurse Examiners to give accreditation to schools outside the state who met state standards.
2. Opening of Catholic university to Negro nurses through cooperation of Catholic friends.
3. Establishment of public health course at the Medical College of Virginia through the cooperation of the college, the National Organization for Public Health Nursing, the U. S. Public Health Service, and the Julius Rosenwald fund.
4. Promotion of annual regional conferences and other field trips in the interest of local organizations. Cooperation with the Baltimore local citizen's committee for employment in city hospitals for Negro nurses.
5. Organization of a citizens' committee on editing and publishing a vocational pamphlet on nursing for high school students.
6. Working with the national and local placement services in job promotion and placement.
7. Cooperation with federal, state and city agencies on promoting Negro health as a means of promoting more jobs for nurses and improving the health of Negroes. Placement of Negro nurses in administrative and other special jobs.
8. Cooperation with the Rosenwald fund in getting nurse midwives at Lobenstein clinic in New York City.
9. Stimulating interest in and publication of the National News Bulletin.
10. Cooperation with citizens in New Jersey and New York to open tax-supported hospitals to Negro students.
11. Promoting administrative and other special jobs for nurses.

Another feature of the convention was the health exhibit compiled through the assistance of the WPA, the Public Health Bureau, the Farm Security Administration and the medical and nursing schools of Howard. For the first time in the history of the association's meetings, a colored nurse, paid by the exhibitor, was in charge of the J. B. Lippincott Publishing Company array of books pertaining to nursing and kindred subjects. Here, therefore, a white nurse has been accorded this privilege, but at this convention a colored nurse was requested by the publisher and furnished by Freedmen's hospital.

LOOKING AT THE OTHER SIDE

In order to uphold the policy of the paper, "Justice to All," we feel that it's no more than fair that we represent the other side of the Colored Waiters' affair as given out by Dr. E. M. Baylor, the bronze mayor of Derbyville.

As we view the situation, we feel that it no more than right that service be demanded of the members of our race especially when we are being paid a fee equal to the amount of service that is given.

COOPERATION IN ITS BEST FORM

"Colored Waiters Are Excluded From Working At White Dances." Such was the caption of a front page story carried in the columns of the Argus in last week's issue.

According to reports reaching this office, only about this number of persons were dancing. Without further reviewing of the facts in the case, we want to commend very highly the populace of DERBYVILLE for taking such a staunch stand against injustices and for their wonderful cooperation as shown when they completely blotted the Earl Hines' Dance.

Just as this concerted action on the part of the Colored population in this city was shown in this instance, the same may be shown in similar instances with even more telling results. Such situations as the complete boycotting of all stores in the immediate neighborhood (who control about 87% of our purchasing power in the particular lines which they advocate) unless they consider to employ some of our qualified boys and girls.

There are too many business houses on Lincoln avenue that cater to our patronage, yet they flatly refuse to hire members of our race. WE CANNOT POSSIBLY STAND BY AND SPEND OUR MONEY WITH SUCH MERCHANTS WITHOUT PUTTING UP A HOWL.

BRAVO, MAVERICK

Even though there is talk, and threats of recalling Mayor Maverick of San Antonio, Texas, because he allowed the city auditorium to be rented for a Communist meeting, he still has the respect of all true American citizens.

The crowd of two thousand rioters which stormed the

READERS SPEAK

This is a weekly column for the readers of the paper to express their views on any subject that they so desire. Make all articles brief as possible and to the point.

I think this readers' column in your paper for the opinion of the people is very fine. Would I express my opinion?

I'm of the opinion that this column should carry the finest thoughts of the people, an expression of good will to all men. As a race every right that we have has its effect with saints, sinners, business and professions and the common job workers of our group.

Dear Editor: One step in the right direction has been taken, thanks to the leadership and editorial policy of our paper, The Argus.

Never in the history of this country has there been such an exhibition where wrong was hit so squarely in the face by a group so determined to outdo the wrong with the right. Now in like manner the resolute common sense of the Colored individual of this city must find his way out of the many entanglements of prejudice, injustice and by-products of the two for their own safety.

I close with this poem: There's no use to keep complaining, When the fault is all your own, For we are bound to keep repeating,

Just the seed we have sown. If a people want existence, In the higher realms of life, They will join their hands together,

They will take their pennies and nickles, To Negro stores and banks, They will trade with one another, All except fools and cranks.

We have no right to complain of the ground of which we stand. Now the other fellow's thinking, If we're fools enough to stay, auditorium and manhandled and mobbed persons attending the Communist meeting, whether they were Communists or not, ought to be held up to the public as greater enemies to the nation than the Communists ever dared to be or will ever have power to be.

As strange as it may appear, ninety per cent of the factors which caused the mob and the riot was politics. It was the work of the "outs," led by a man who had been defeated by Maverick for public office.

Of course, about ten per cent of those who made up the mob, and fostered it, were old time standpatters—some people call them conservatives. Maury Maverick is a progressive who lives in the spirit of the times and his doctrine of giving every man a fair deal was "blasphemy" to the old-timers, and at the first opportunity they had, they, too, joined the crowd, crying aloud, "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

Sad indeed it is to see these poor, blinded people acting like mad men trying to retard the advancement of the times in which they are living. The horse and buggy days are gone. That they will learn sooner or later. And as time goes on, regardless of the outcome of this contemptuous riot, and the outburst against the mayor of San Antonio, Maury Maverick will live on as a hero, while his traducers and their wicked deeds will perish from the face of the earth.

Merely as a stepping stone, he'll let you have your way, He'll take your pennies gladly, And his children educate,

While our little ones go to ruin, Waiting at the golden gate, We may shout about black heroes,

Until we shake the gates of hell, But until we learn to work together, It's the same old tale to tell, We may shout about our freedom, of God and everything,

But success is only by cooperation, And there's no turning in this lane, We may shout and cry and wonder,

What's the trouble with the Negro race, But when we learn to work together, Then we'll hear the motion sing, Come forth, black man,

It is not too late, The only trouble has been, You have failed to cooperate. Humblest Admitted Yours, R. H. Dixon.

Dear Editor: One step in the right direction has been taken, thanks to the leadership and editorial policy of our paper, The Argus.

My thought is that you received wonderful cooperation in the complete boycott of the dance at the Evansville Coliseum Monday evening. Let us now go forward with our duty taking heed of nothing but the right, resting no point upon wrong or injustice, but forever reposing upon truth and justice.

In consideration of the fact that there is a certain amount of good in every human being, as well as a quantity of bad, and that every person is liked for the good that is in his personality, I shall always look for the good in every person I meet.

I know too that my own personality is far from perfection, so I shall try to analyze myself with the purpose of eradicating the many faults that I have, and until I have done so I shall refrain from criticizing others.

Realizing what a tiny "drop in the bucket" is the small store of knowledge that I have been able to glean, I shall hesitate to call ignorant any person who does not know some of the singular facts that I have learned, for, surely, he knows something that I do not.

Neither shall I ever belittle my fellowman because fortune has been less kind to him, for I have learned that fortune is fickle and can work two ways.

In view of the fact that by extensive and innumerable experiments man has been constantly adding to his achievements and learning for many centuries, I cannot doubt that there is yet much to be learned in all the walks of life, therefore, I will be ever ready to learn and never to claim a maximum of knowledge in any field.

It shall henceforth be far from me to pass judgment upon any person whose likes and dislikes differ from mine or who is a fanatic on any subject which does not particularly interest me, insofar as others are not affected by the differences of opinions.

With these vows ever in mind I intend to get along with my fellowman, and, perhaps, we can see fit to work together for our laws; deprived of education and left at the mercy of these so-called leaders. I feel safe to say that they should suffer all the pangs that unworthy human nature is capable of inflicting.

Hence, I say that your leadership is a step in the right direction and the journey of a thousand miles has started with but a single step. There must be others, for life is a perpetual struggle even under the most favorable circumstances; an unending fight of man against man.

For some slight prank whose weight will hold but one. History is the record of the amelioration of deep-rooted ancient injustice. What a hard, long, bloody, and terrible fight it has been and still must be.

And in concluding, I must state; any time that I might be of assistance in this fight for the rights of my people, please feel free to call upon me.

Sincerely, Clarence Goin.

LET'S GET ALONG

Having been one of the vast majority of colored people who have done nothing worthwhile themselves and have always been ready to criticize any fellow man who has enough courage to attempt something above the ordinary and something that will be uplifting to the race as a whole, I am ready to admit (after careful consideration) the error of my ways, to divorce myself from the great majority, and to concentrate my efforts on the wooing of the favors of fortune for myself.

For the common good of all of us who are members of an under-privileged race I do hereby solemnly, sincerely, and voluntarily vow to conduct myself by actions, comments, and general efforts to aid and encourage any member of my race who has the courage, initiative, aptitude, and foresight to launch any enterprise for his own good, which will eventually boost the race as a whole.

I also promise that I shall never begrudge any other person his success in any undertaking, or be envious of any person who has by his own industry and thrift accumulated more of worldly goods than I have. Neither shall I hereafter be envious of the natural talents of any person, but shall do my utmost to develop the talents that I have, for I realize that the Lord God of all saw wisdom in making us all with different inclinations.

Buys 173 Acre Estate In N.J.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug 28 (By Frank W. Canty, Jr., for ANP)—The title of a 173-acre estate, known as Job's court, formerly owned by E. R. Morehouse of Camden, and located on Great Egg Harbor river 11 miles from Atlantic City, on which is erected three magnificent dwellings, two two-car garages with living quarters above them and another building which for a half century served as a tavern, have been transferred to Mrs. Jennie E. Morris, wealthy Philadelphia mortician.

The sale of the tract was made through Grover C. Jones, local real estate broker, and is the second such purchase made in Atlantic County by members of the race within the last few months. The first was Marian Anderson, world's greatest contralto and concert singer, who is erecting her home on a large tract at Smith's Landing.

Purchase of the estate by Mrs. Morris will make the realization of a childhood dream, for she plans the development of a health and recreation center for underprivileged children. A portion of the grounds will be for building purposes where members of the race may erect homes. Most of the land faces directly on the river.

AME Leader Dies In Washington

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (ANP)—Dr. John R. Hawkins, for 27 years financial secretary of the A.M.E. church and one of the foremost business men of the race, passed away at his home Wednesday. He was 77 years old.

Born May 31, 1862, in Warren, N. C., he was educated in the high school there, at Hampton Institute, Boston Y.M.C.A. and the Howard University law school in 1915. After teaching in Warren county public schools two years and serving as principal two years, he entered the railway mail service in 1882, and was a trustee of Howard University. He was chairman of the Colored Voter's division of the National Republic committee in the 1928 campaign and was president of the Prudential bank which merged with the Industrial bank here during the depression.

Dr. Hawkins is credited with bringing modern business methods to church financial affairs and the A.M.E. denomination enjoyed its greatest monetary prosperity under his guidance. He was also successful in private business pursuits, owning considerable local real estate.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Esther Wilson of Watertown, Mass., and two brothers and two sisters.

Bill To Eliminate Tax

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (ANP)—Cold chills run up and down the spines of Southern congressmen every time the bugaboo of Negro voters is brought into the open, but when congress convenes again in January—unless a special session is deemed necessary due to the European situation—one of the first things that will worry "debaters" is the house bill introduced by Rep. Lee Gever of California.

This bill calls for the elimination of the poll tax in all states of the union. Aimed chiefly at the Southern states, where the poll tax system predominates and where this same tax has prevented millions of Negroes from voting, the bill was among those hastily passed during the last grand rush of congress in its frantic effort for an early adjournment.

When it finally comes out for consideration by the senate, fire-works will prevail and a lot of hot discussion will be the order of the day. There are many who even predict the bill will cause more debate in the senate than the anti-lynching bill, which is one of the issues congress must decide when it reconvenes.
