MATER DEI YEARBOOK STAFF

1300 HARMONY WAY EVANSVILLE, INDIANA

June 3, 1963

Dear Mater Dei Students,

As the last copy of our yearbook pages were ready to go to press, we received the touching news of the death of our Holy Father, Pope John XXIII, the Pope of Peace and Unity and, above all, the Good Shepherd of His flock.

It is within only a few hours after the echoes of this news has faded away that we re-dedicate this, our M.D. Hi-Lights yearbook of 1963 to the Supreme Pontiff, John XXIII.

His passing is a loss to us Mater Dei students as well as to the people of all faiths throughout the world. May his memory live always in your hearts.

As you read through this yearbook, you will see how we have applied his words of wisdom, understanding, compassion, and love to our own individual religious, intellectual, athletic, social, and cultural ways of life.

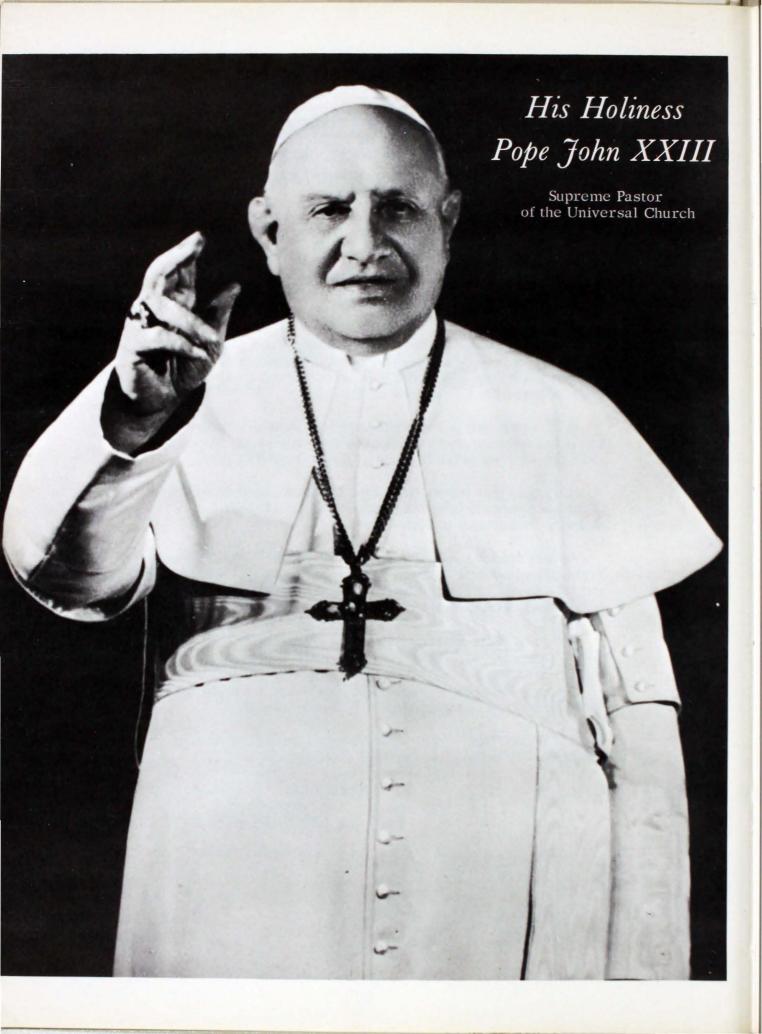

Weigh well the advice of this Gentle Shepherd--a man of force, tempered by gentleness, of wisdom sustained by humor, a vision untroubled by fear.

We hope that you will gain much pleasure in recalling the many memories of the past year recorded herein.

The Mater Dei Yearbook Staff wishes to thank everyone who helped to make this yearbook a reality.

Gratefully,

The 1963 Yearbook Staff

Dedication

"O Divine Spirit, ... pour forth... the fullness of Your gifts upon the Ecumenical Council."

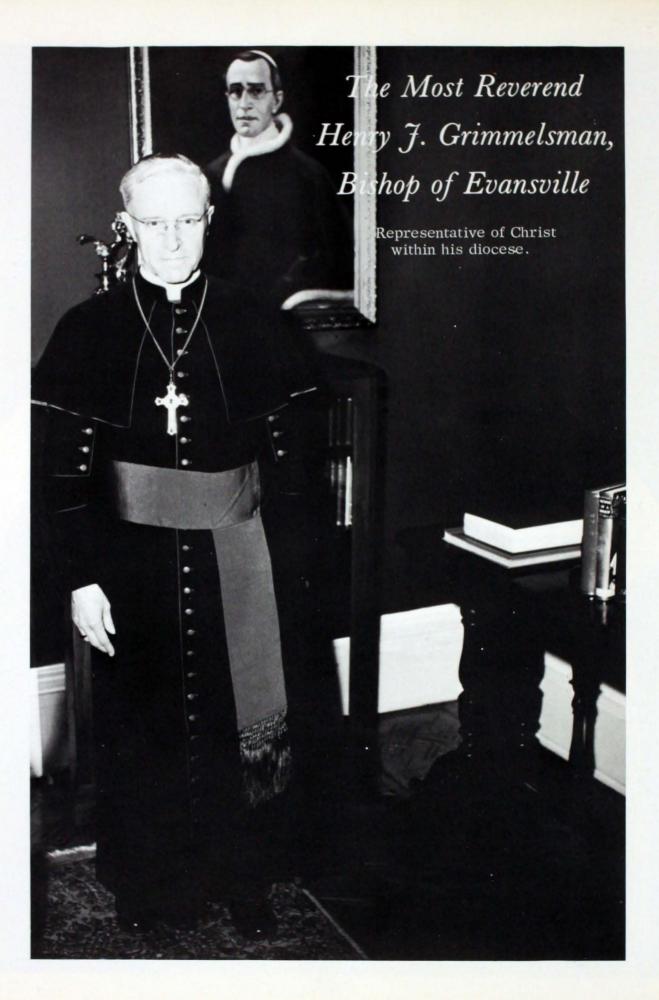

In reply to the urge of our Holy Father, Pope John XXIII, we, the students of Mater Dei High School, as a "vast" army of youth, join the great wave of prayer which resounds from all parts of Christendom.

With grateful hearts and filial reverence, we dedicate the M. D. Hi-Lights of 1963 to His Holiness, Pope John XXIII. Acclaimed as universal Pastor and Judge of the faithful, he has with untiring zeal, initiated and carried on the work of the Second Vatican Council.

As the world continues to grow smaller the need for unity becomes more urgent. Particularly does this need become apparent within the ranks of Christianity. In response to this plea, the Holy Father called the Second Vatican Council, with its theme, "the search for means of restoring Christian unity under the guidance of the Holy Spirit." The Council has, so far, progressed greatly toward the accomplishment of its goals.

May this same Holy Spirit guide us to the accomplishment of our goals in life. Our concern for the cause of Christian unity manifests itself in prayer and our activities undertaken in order to grow in the charity of Christ.

Begging the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, we pray with the Pope and his Council: "O Welcome Guest of the soul, establish our minds in truth and bring our hearts to a ready obedience, so that what is determined in the Council may be sincerely accepted and promptly fulfilled by us."

Special Services + + +

Mrs. Bernard Schenk and Mrs. Jack Freeman assist Mater Dei's nurse, Mrs. Marie Schlamp, with the juniors' chest X-rays.

X-ray technician places Jo Ann Short in position for X-ray.

Mrs. Marie Schlamp, M. D. nurse, prepares to "needle" one of our students, or maybe it's flu shots for the teachers.

Fun goes hand and hand when Mr. and Mrs. Syl Brenner are on hand.

"Meinie" Schoenbachler, chief maintenance man, keeps, M. D. in tip-top shape.

Cafeteria Staff + + +

Mrs. Wilford Baehl assists Mrs. August Gerst, cafeteria manager.

Mrs. Vincent Winiger prepares menu chart.

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{Mrs}}.$ Henry Effing adds fresh fruit to the lunch diet.

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{Mrs}}.$ Carl Feldhaus puts the finishing touches on the dessert for the day.

Future Mess Hall workers are Mike Beard, Bob Winiger, Bill Smith, and Larry Pendley.

Charlagene Fischer, Diane Smith, Beverly Geuss, Brenda Paul, and Nancy Fischer cheerfully dry the dishes.

Larry Beard, David Haller, and Philip Strange are proud of their gentle Ivory hands.

...work...as it is an expression of the human person...

Glenda Like smiles as she and Connie Hillenbrand compete in a food-scraping contest. (Below)--L. Feldhaus, H. Jorgensen, and V. Marx handle M. D. 's fine Chinaware.

Roman Marx and Jerome Brenner dreamily gaze on as Magdalen Arnold works at dishwasher.

Don Seibert, vice-president; Jane Becker, treasurer; Dan Laib, vice-president; and Sylvia Berendes, secretary.

As the bookkeeping class works on practice sets, John Winterman gets individual attention from the teacher, Mr. Francis Hillenbrand.

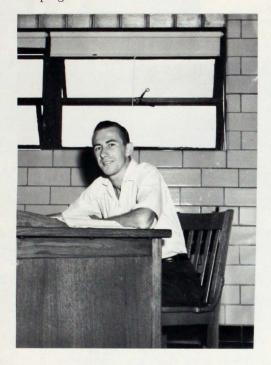

Sister Mary Carmen, business teacher, and Sister Mary Austin, math and business teacher, take time out to smile in between their busy day's schedule.

Work in typing class demands plenty of concentration for accuracy and speed.

Mr. John Payne, part-time business teacher, spends the first two periods of the day teaching consumer economics and bookkeeping.

Spurred on by the blackboard chart, the junior boys toil at typing in order to "get on the ball" and stay there.

Business teacher, Sister Mary Carmel, supervises Doris Feller, Thelma Kelle and Linda Knapp in operating the mimeograph machine.

The senior girls can't be distracted during a time test in typing.

Home Economics + + +

this is your vocation as Catholic women, always thoughtful of the welfare of others, always ready to give service with love and understanding.

Judy Gerling, Angela Muensterman, Mary Baumgart, Sharon Fehrenbacher, Nancy Fox, Nancy Head and Mary Plump model the aprons they made.

Penny Schwartz, Joyce Ann Will, and Sharon Lovell agree that the cake surely looks good.

Senior girls, B.

Circulation managers, Linda Scott and Diane Matz file yearbook subscriptions.

Jayne Hayden manages to keep busy as business and advertising manager of the 1963 M.D. Hi-Lights yearbook.

It is, in fact, our great wish that journalist may not, for lack of sufficient information, be reduced to guesswork which may be only partially true and to publishing ideas, opinions, and hopes which later may prove to be unfounded or erroneous.

The tables are switched as the photographers, Jon Oberhausen, Mike Glaser, and Tom Jochim have their picture taken by Sister M. Dolorita.

Pat Payne places the Hi-Lights

The deadline of June 9 is met and Sister Dolorita, sponsor, closes the planbook for another year.

Another issue of the Hi-Lights is prepared for mailing by Cathy Wahnsiedler and Becky Dippel.

Sister Maria, Co-sponsor, plans the arrangement of the senior portraits with co-editors.

U. S. History students observe Sister Charlene correcting American Problem term papers.

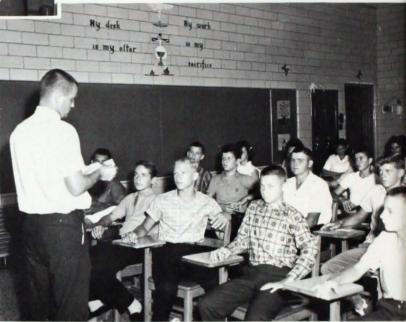

Social Studies achievement monogram recipients are: B. Wilderman, M. Wannemuehler, R. Anderson, S. Hevron, S. Krietemeyer, and C. Allen.

Baccalaureate + + +

All graduates and underclassmen attended the baccalaureate Mass offered by Father Dewig.

"There," says Dorothy Gries, as she adjusts the cap of Peggy Reitz.

Dan Zenthoefer helps Paul Stocker with last-minute details.

In his baccalaureate sermon, the Reverend Sylvester Loehrlein stressed LOVE as a determining factor in giving meaning to our education.

Speakers for baccalaureate day were: Jane Becker, Rita Farny, Father Loehrlein, Father Dewig, Father Deering, and Jim Spahn.

Some serious, some "giddy", the young ladies breakfast in style.

A good breakfast of fruit cocktail, rolls, milk and coffee keeps the graduates-to-be in a jovial mood.

Dan Zenthoefer and John Winterman lead their fellow-graduates from the gym after graduation ceremony.

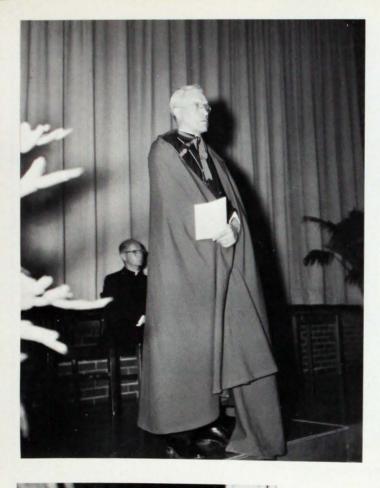

Graduation + + +

The decorum of William Arnold, Charlie Bergwitz, Leroy Borst, David Brenner and Roger Brown manifests the solemnity of the long-awaited occasion as they file into their places before graduation exercises.

The graduates of 1963 listen attentively to the Most Reverend Bishop's speech after having received their coveted diplomas.

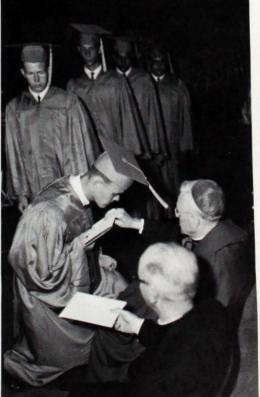

The Most Reverend Henry J. Grimmelsman reminds the graduates that youth must be patient and assume responsibility.

The Reverend Roman Heerdink delivers the commencement address.

Paulette Burton kisses the Bishop's ring as she receives her diploma. Reverend James Deneen assists.

Assisted by Father Heerdink, His Excellency presents diploma to Roger Brown as G. Clausheide, J. Dippel, R. Englert and D. Fehrenbacher wait in line.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES WHERE DO YOU GO FROM HERE?

To all who possibly can do so, we say, "Enroll in Evansville College or any other college or university of your choice". If you can't quite finance a full college education by yourself, investigate the many scholarship opportunities available - the self help programs that are offered.

If none of these work out, look into night school schedules or correspondence school home study courses.

Long experience proves that college training or its equivalent pays off in dollars and cents, in security and in solid satisfaction.

But even if normal schooling ends, learning does not - it really just begins. So - Graduates - where do you go from here? - you go on learning - in college at night school - or on the job.
